

Captain Ehle Reber, son of County Commissioner and Mrs. John Reber, who was reported missing - probable prisoner when his Flying Fortress failed to return after a mission over Germany, was a track star and all-around sportsman from the Malin high school, who attended the University of Oregon and captained the track squad there. we asked Lynn Roy-Today croft, Captain Reber's closest friend, to write a short history of Ehle's sport prowess. Lynn

"From 1933 to 1937 Ehle Reber entered competitive athletics for Malin high school. During his time there Malin high was constantly in the forefront of Klamath county athletics. Baseball, basketball, football and track teams were sparked to constant wins by Reber brothers -Ehle and Clayton.

"During Ehle's competitive career in high school he won many awards in track. While featuring in broad jumping and pole vaulting he also entered sprints and ran on the relay team. "He held the Modor field record for the broad jump. Several times he won the county championship in the pole vault. In 1935 and '36 he played second base in Junior league baseball.

"Entering the University of Oregon in 1937 he made the freshman basketball squad uner quidance of John Warof 1938 he gave himself en-tirely over to Bill Hayward for development of the broad jump. His other extra-curri-cular work went into military training and journalistic sports wriling. "His major was journalism and his desire was to become a sports writer and commen-tator. Grantland Rice and Damon Runyon were two of his heroes.

"Ehle was chiefly admired in athletics for his ability to better himself under trying conditions. He had an abso-lute fearless competitive heart. When he was beaten it was because he had nothing more to give. "His friendliness on and off the field won him hosts of dmirers."

Ray Robinson's Winning Streak Stopped at 129 by Jacob LaMotta in Detroit

By WATSON SPOELSTRA DETROIT, Feb. 6 (P)-Jolting Jacob La Motta, young New York middleweight, is open to the schoolboy challenge, "pick on someone your size," but there was nothing questionable about his 10-round decision last night that shattered Ray (Sugar) Robinson's sensational winning streak at 129 fights, including 40 in the pro ring. A 1 to 3 underdog, La Motta carried a 16-pound weight ad-vantage into the Olympia stadium ring and came out with a unanimous verdict over the previously unbeaten fellow New Yorker before an overflow crowd of 18,930 that set a Michigan indoor record. La Motta weighed 1601. Referee Sam Hennessy gave La Motta five rounds, Robinson four and called one even, up. On two judges backed him up. On Jake won the last four, topped by the eighth round when he smashed the Sugar boy through the ropes with a left to the head for a count of nine. The bell sounded a split second before the timekeeper's hammer came down for
