

BRITONS ASK INVASION OF EUROPE NOW

By JAMES KING

LONDON, Feb. 8 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill's return from his 10,000-mile air tour of North Africa and the middle east touched off today new demands for speeding the invasion of Europe while the Russians have the Germans rocking on their heels. Every cry sounded the warning that not an hour must be lost.

The conservative times set the pace with the declaration that "if the moment cannot be seized before the impetus of the Russian advance is exhausted, the enemy may gain breathing space for recuperation and be enabled to carry on the struggle into another year."

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express said: "Already the Russian offensive has gone on for many weeks longer than any previous offensive. The resources of Britain and America must make ready to take over the burden. They must lose not a day and not an hour."

The prime minister, home from significant conferences in Casablanca, Cairo, Adana and Algiers, showed he was wasting no time as he met with ministers within a few hours of his arrival for discussions which continued well into this morning. He reached England yesterday in an American-built Liberator bomber flown by his American pilot, Capt. William Van Der Kloot of Sarasota, Fla. He came to London by special train, being greeted at Paddington station by Mrs. Churchill and other members of his family, government officials and diplomats.

Mrs. Scherer and Mrs. Fitzsimmons explained how to pin a pattern on a piece of material. Donna Layton volunteered to give an example of what had just been explained. We next decided on a few things we should watch for when buying material. In judging our handbags in group one, Velma Boroughs received honorable mention and Bonnie Jean Sievers second; for third place it was a tie between Lois Boroughs and Kathleen Johnston; fourth place went to Patsy Ward, and fifth to Eleanor Simmers. In group II Gloria Fitzsimmons got first and Louella Bondeau second. Patsy Ward, news reporter.

AFL Boilermakers' Squabble Back in Hands of Union

PORTLAND, Feb. 8 (AP)—The squabble over officers in the huge Portland AFL Boilermakers union is back in the hands of the union again today.

A. E. Jordan and John Bigot, who said they were elected to office in December, filed suit to oust incumbent officers. Circuit Judge James W. Crawford denied their petition Saturday, advising them to exhaust their courses of action within union rules before undertaking court action. Meanwhile international officers opened an investigation of this disputed election.

Boy Scouts Mean Business

"Toughen up, buckle down and carry on to victory," is the Boy Scout major task this year. Their 1,570,000 members are in the conflict to the hilt on the home front, doing everything boys of Scout age can do to help win the war speedily and a just peace permanently.

DAN J. ARKELL DIES IN SINKING

Dan J. Arkell, 29, skipper of the crab fishing boat, "Truxcella," and his mate, Max Kincart, both of Reedsport, lost their lives in a coastal storm which swept the North Umpqua river country February 1. Young Arkell was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Arkell of Klamath Agency who returned from Reedsport this weekend after the coast guard advised them they had given up all hope of recovering the bodies.

Arkell was a graduate of La Grande high school and had been fishing off the coast for the past two years. He was owner of the "Truxcella." He is survived by his wife, Iris, and a 4-year-old daughter, Karen, both residents of Lakeside where Mrs. Arkell teaches school. Kincart is also survived by his wife in Reedsport.

Skipper Arkell is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Louis Burgoyne of Portland and Mrs. Fred B. Morse of Corvallis, two step-sisters, Mrs. Robert J. Luse, 873 California avenue, this city, and Mrs. Marshall Kellein, Redmond.

Any man hired by the United States in time of war to manufacture essential armament or equipment who willfully delivers defective products is as guilty of treason as were the Chicago relatives and friends of Hitler's saboteurs.—Rep. Michael A. Feighan of Ohio.

KEEP THESE 4 FACTS IN MIND ON INCOME TAX

By JAMES MARLOW AND GEORGE ZIELKE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (AP)—These things you can count on, so far as your income tax is concerned:

1. You'll have to pay more this year than ever before.
2. You'll have to file by March 15 a return showing what your 1942 income was.
3. Unless congress takes some action quickly (and congress usually deliberates quite a while on tax matters) you'll have to make your March 15 quarterly payment—and probably the June 25 installment—on the basis of the increased rates voted by congress last year.
4. If congress does make a change later, any money you pay on or before March will apply on what you owe. So, the treasury and congressional leaders say, you won't lose by paying on that basis now.

One other thing seems fairly certain: After July 1, undoubtedly some portion of your paycheck will be deducted to provide at least part of your payments on the tax for 1943. President Roosevelt, the treasury and many congressmen are on record in favor of a pay-as-you-earn plan.

If you keep these things in mind, the tax experts say, you won't be apt to be lulled by daydreams that you'll get out of paying increased taxes this year and for years to come.

DEATH COMES TO DR. A. H. GIANNINI

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 8 (AP)—Death has taken Dr. A. H. Giannini, 69, known as the "Angel" of the motion picture industry to the extent of millions in loans—even in the early days when the "flickers" were regarded by other financiers as pretty poor risks.

Dr. Giannini, who with his brother, A. P. Giannini, developed the Great Bank of America National Trust & Savings association, suffered a fatal heart attack yesterday while attending a meeting of Loyola university's board of regents.

His career encompassed also the realms of medicine and civic betterment. He served as surgeon in the Spanish-American war and helped fight a threatened typhus epidemic after San Francisco's 1906 earthquake. He was a strong supporter of the Los Angeles Philharmonic society and other cultural and educational groups.

Stephan Must Die, Rules Court in Treason Appeal

CINCINNATI, Feb. 8 (AP)—The U. S. circuit court of appeals Saturday upheld a Detroit district court death sentence on Max Stephan for allegedly aiding a German aviator in his flight from a Canadian prison camp.

U. S. District Judge Tuttle ordered Stephan, a restaurant owner, to be hanged November 13, 1942, after his conviction for harboring and giving aid to Oberleutenant Hans Peter Krug of the German air force. The sentence was stayed pending appeal.

The 21-page decision, given by Presiding Judge Ben Hicks, upheld the government contention that Stephan had committed treason by taking Krug into his home.

Counsel for Stephan contended in arguing the case before a five-judge court here in December that he merely befriended Krug and that Krug's testimony was worthless because as a Nazi he had no conception of the meaning of an oath.

Willamette River Subsides; Flood Danger Passed

The Santiam river went three feet over the 14-foot flood level at Jefferson yesterday, then began dropping rapidly.

The weather bureau predicted a continued fall in the level of the Willamette and its tributaries.

Treasury Offers Simpler Form to Income Taxpayers

The Federal Treasury is offering again this year to people whose 1942 income was $3000 or less, a simplified income tax form which may be filled out in five minutes or less. This is known as Form 1040-A. It may be used by any taxpayer whose $3000-or-less income came wholly from wages or salary, dividends, interest or annuities. Last year when this time-saver was first introduced, over 10,000,000 individual income tax returns were filed on it. People who had previously spent hours working over the regular report-form were enthusiastic about the ease and speed with which they could now complete their annual income tax chore. This year, with an estimated 12,000,000 new taxpayers filing for the first time, the Bureau of Internal Revenue confidently expects that nearly 20,000,000 taxpayers will benefit from this short-cut way, saving in the aggregate millions of hours of time and innumerable headaches. Incidentally, this simplified Form 1040-A is also a boon to the Internal Revenue bureau, for it greatly reduces the amount of time previously spent with so many millions of taxpayers in answering questions and helping them make out their returns. A glance at the picture shows how quick and simple Form 1040-A makes this income tax filing job. There are only 6 things to do; write down their names, address and occupation, the names of their dependents, the amount of income received during the year, the amount of deduction allowed on account of dependents; check the square (whether married or single, etc.). Then they simply read their tax law, and write it down on the return.

100 Homeless as Fire Sweeps Juneau Apartment House

JUNEAU, Alaska, Feb. 8 (AP)—One hundred persons were left homeless and their personal belongings lost in a fire which destroyed the old three-story Cliff apartments Saturday night. Over 100 men battled the blaze four hours to keep it from spreading in a high wind to the federal jail and other nearby buildings. The apartment was of frame construction and housed 20 families. The flames spread so rapidly no attempt was made to rescue personal belongings. The building is owned by Garland Boggman who estimated the loss at $20,000, partially covered by insurance. The homeless families found temporary shelter in church basements and in private homes.
