A. J. SANTAMAW DIES THURSDAY IN PRINEVILLE

Andrew James Santamaw, 85, for more than 36 years a resident of Klamath Falls, died at his home in Prineville at 7 o'clock Thursday evening following a lengthy illness, according to word received here Friday morning. Mr. Santamaw had spent the past year in Prineville. Funeral services will be held here Monday from Sacred Heart church with interment in the family plot in Mt. Calvary cemetery, according to Whitlock's.

Mr. Santamaw is survived by his wife, Julia, Prineville, two daughters, Mrs. Emil Dreher of Prineville and Mrs. Harry Petersen of Portland, one son, Stanley, Pasadena, three grandchildren, Dr. James Dreher, Margaret Plymale and Virginia Petersen, all of Portland. Two brothers and one sister live in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Dreher and Mrs. Santamaw will arrive here Sunday from Prineville and will be at the Elk hotel, friends are advised.

The late Mr. Santamaw, who leaves many friends in Klamath county to mourn his passing, led a colorful and interesting life. He was employed as boom man for the Pelican Bay Lumber company until he reached his 81st birthday, having been with the firm from 1911 until his retirement in 1934. He was born in Granville county, Ontario, Can., July 8, 1857. Mr. Santamaw and Julia Marsrow were married at Bay City, Mich., in September, 1893.

During his long residence in Klamath Falls, Mr. Santamaw recalled many interesting incidents pertaining to the pioneer history of the district. In 1904, he started working on the preliminary survey for the US reclamation service here. Three years later he was the first man to turn the water into the government canal.

The Santamaw family left here for a short stay in Los Angeles, later returned to Portland and one year ago moved to Prineville to be near their daughter, Mrs. Dreher, former Klamath Falls resident.

ANY OLD BUTTONS?

ST. LOUIS, Mo., (AP)—Police men are searching everywhere for brass buttons from discarded uniforms. There's a class of 35 new officers to be graduated March 1—and the department can't buy the necessary 1330 buttons for their uniforms. Officers have salvaged 10,000 old ones, thus far.

William J. Staugel, who sold used cars for Lombard Motor company here, is now in the American air force in Africa. Staugel left here in 1941 to join the Royal Canadian air force as a fighter pilot. He later was transferred to the AAF with the rank of lieutenant.

Rex Q. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Davis, 329 Washington street, has graduated from the armored force officer candidate school at Fort Knox, Ky., and is now a second lieutenant. He has spent the last 13 weeks in intensive training.

Sergeant Billy P. Burgess, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Burgess, 204 South Fifth street, has entered the armored force school tank department at Fort Knox, Ky.

FDR to Address Nation by Radio At 6:30 Tonight

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—President Roosevelt will talk to the nation by radio tonight for the first time since he returned January 31 from a three weeks' trip to Casablanca and his historic "unconditional surrender" conferences with Prime Minister Churchill.

He chose Lincoln's birthday for the first of two broadcasts on foreign and domestic affairs, the second to come February 22 when he addresses Washington birthday dinners to be held in most states to climax a fund-raising drive by the democratic national committee.

Tonight's speech will begin at 6:30 p. m. PWT., and will be about 20 minutes in length. White House officials said a wide range of foreign and "home front" developments would be covered.

Farrell Asks Extension of Auto Licenses

SALEM, Feb. 12 (AP)—Secretary of State Robert S. Farrell Jr., asked the legislature today to extend automobile drivers' licenses to June 30, 1945, without payment of any additional fee. Existing licenses, which cost $1.50, are due to expire next June 30.

Farrell said his department, because of the manpower shortage, would not be able to hire hundreds of additional employees to handle new licenses, and that revenue from the licenses is not needed.

GOVERNMENT OF the people BY the people FOR the people shall not perish from the earth!

Deep in the heart of America is the love of Freedom... and the will to preserve forever those principles crystallized in the immortal words of Abe Lincoln.

In this war—as in the dark days when Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg—many of our boys have fought and died in a war testing whether "This nation... or any nation so conceived... can long endure."

It is up to us to see that "these dead shall not have died in vain... and that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of Freedom."

Honor Lincoln now—not with a word of tribute, but with an action tribute! INVEST IN WAR BONDS AND STAMPS TODAY!
