BUT ISN'T IT NICE?
ABERDEEN, Wash., (AP)—Mayor Walter T. Foelker received a letter from one Sindar D. V. Gohlbe, of Poona City, India.

It contains a prayer called the Rama Nama and several enthusiastic slogans such as "Up with the British empire and the USA!"

There's also a greeting which says "we firmly believe in the justice of the British-USA cause." The mayor doesn't know Mr. Gohlbe but he thinks the letter is fine . . . even though he can't read the prayer.

To combat aero-bombing—flyer's "bends"—flyers pedal a motor-driven bike for a half hour wearing an oxygen mask and are careful not to breathe natural air after the process starts.

I had plenty of opportunity for watching our fellows. They made me proud. They were calm and acted just like old, experienced fighters.—Pvt. Vincent J. Alfano, wounded in North Africa.

Man Charged With Running Down Wife With Automobile

PORTLAND, Feb. 13 (AP)—Multnomah county deputy sheriff jailed Chester V. Howard, 26, Portland, last night and charged him with running down his wife with his automobile. Bail was set at $2500. The formal charge is assault with a dangerous weapon.

The wife, Lorraine Howard, 19, was in serious condition in Emanuel hospital.

A report of Sheriff Martin Pratt asserted that Howard deliberately backed his car over his wife's body after she tried to prevent him from taking the vehicle out of the garage.

SURPRISE!
KANSAS CITY, (AP)—Why did the draft board have to take her golf pro husband, the father of two children, with childless husbands still available? Mrs. Frank Stamberger, Jr., asked the board.

Chairman Frank M. Hasselt of the selective service board said that was the first he'd heard of the children.

They checked the questionnaire Stamberger had filled out. He'd neglected to mention Babette, age 4, and Sharon Lea, age 10 months.

Stamberger is now a private at Camp McCain, Miss., but his release is being sought, Hasselt said.

All crewmen manning the U. S. army's heavy bombing planes must hereafter be experts in gunnery so the bomber's fire power will not be reduced should the regular gunners be put out of action.

The person who really is a big noise keeps quiet about it.

Alaska Offers Much, Says Jean Bremer of Klamath

(Editor's Note: Jean Bremer (Mrs. Arthur Bremer) is a Klamath Falls girl now holding down a government job in Alaska. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Beard, 814 Lincoln street. Her Alaskan address is C.A.A., Officers, Anchorage.)

By JEAN BREMER
Many would-be travelers dream of Alaska. Fortune smiles upon some, and their fancies are realized. I have been fortunate, and I can now understand why Alaskans invariably return if, indeed, they should ever leave. There is a sense of well-being among these people that I have found nowhere else; perhaps they have discovered that for which they were searching when they came. God has endowed this rugged northland with a vivid, colorful panorama, but he also left with it a frigid temperature and a wind that howls around the buildings during a storm.

At this time there are many classes of people here that have come from almost everywhere—service men, government men and women, gamblers, merchants, bankers, aviators, writers—all milling around in the defense centers of Alaska. Many of them are spending their first Christmas away from home; many others are not. Conditions and lack of some modern facilities are trying—laundry three weeks late, shortages of various articles, crowded quarters, high prices, but any physical discomfort resulting from such is alleviated by the healthy perspective that one does and can obtain from living here.

I walk down the streets of Anchorage and attempt to visualize sky-scrapers, street cars, buses, traffic signals and parking meters. Then I think "Leave it as it is, I like it better this way,"—with its dusty streets in the summer, its frame buildings, belated laundry, high prices, various shortages, and its happy, honest, healthy Alaskans.

To the painter Alaska offers beauty unsurpassed; to the author, incentive; to the daring it promises conquest, and to the restless it offers adventure and romance. To all of those who are eternally searching for something they have not found, I recommend Alaska. Even though you may not find it here, you will not regret having come. Had Franz Liszt lived in this country, I am sure he could have composed a rhapsody with chord progressions comparable to those in Liebestraum, and yet containing all the turbulence and dissonance in parts of his second.

Is it any wonder this rich land is coveted by the Japs? If its loss should be any estimate of its value, then I would say that it is worth fighting to keep at any price. The Japs well know its value. How fortunate indeed is the United States to call Alaska a part of itself.

Franklin High Wins Portland Prep Hoop Title

The nation's domestic airlines during October, 1942, smashed all existing monthly records for the amount of air express poundage carried.

is always so when the top leaders talk for publication. His purpose is to terrify our enemies with a clear and confident showing of the irresistibly growing might of our side. At the same time, he must impress their common people with the belief that when we win we'll be fair and decent.

He does a good job.

WILLKIE, addressing a Lincoln Day banquet in Indiana, speaks of the after-the-war necessity for "an enormous multiplication of markets for goods and manufactures of all sorts. . . ."

That's clearly our only way out from under the burden of debt that will rest on our shoulders when the war finally ends. Production on a scale not before dreamed of is the only way to make good the wastage of these years of total war.

After the goods are made, markets must be found for them. The way to make world markets is for the peoples of the earth to SWAP AMONG EACH OTHER as actively as possible.

ONE of the great mistakes of the now thoroughly discredited Versailles peace was laying on the Germans a punitive burden of reparations that they couldn't pay in money (because there wasn't enough gold) and WERENT ALLOWED to pay in trade. Bankruptcy was their only alternative, and German bankruptcy and despair gave Hitler his opportunity.

We mustn't make that foolish mistake again.

NAZIS HIT
LONDON, Feb. 13 (AP)—The great U-boat workshops at Kiel have been so heavily damaged by RAF bombings that the Germans have found it necessary to turn the Skoda Arms Works at Pilsen, in Czecho-Slovakia, to the manufacture of submarine parts, a Zurich dispatch to Reuters said Friday.

U. S. Government To Take Jurisdiction Of Oregon Land

SALEM, Feb. 13 (AP)—The United States government will accept full jurisdiction next Monday over 77,000 acres of Oregon land on which five military installations are located.

The jurisdiction will be taken under a 1909 Oregon law, granting such jurisdiction where outright title has been acquired by the government. State laws will not apply anywhere on the reservations.

Areas removed from state control are Camp Adair in Benton, Linn and Polk counties; Arlington bombing range in Morrow county; Beaver terminal and storage depot in Columbia county; Portland air base in Multnomah county, and Camp White in Jackson county.

An indictment charging the nation's largest food chain, the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company group, with conspiracy to "monopolize a substantial part of trade and commerce in food and food products" was quashed today by Federal Judge W. H. Atwell after he sustained the defendant company's demurrer.

The two-county federal indictment was returned here November 25, naming the parent New York Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company, Inc., 11 subsidiaries, 16 officials of the P. and A. group, Business Organization, Inc., and its president, Carl Byoir of New York, public relations representative of the chain.
