

Men Take Over at Dressings Project

The Boys Decide to Work at Project in Red Cross Rooms Starting Monday Night

It isn't so bad when a woman steps in, rolls up her sleeve and tackles a man's job. But it definitely irks the ladies when the men have to take over the work that has been cut out for the fairer sex. We are referring to the surgical dressings project to which a number of our women have responded but nevertheless they have not responded in the quantity that is needed.

Time after time this section of The Herald and News has urged the women to get out and enroll in the surgical dressings project at Red Cross headquarters. To the ladies that have given many hours to this work, these words are not addressed. It is to those who have not responded in any way to war work and they are legion.

Through Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney Sr., project chairman, word came that an additional, mark the word, additional 180,000,000 surgical dressings must be made and soon. Inasmuch as the quota has never been met here, this staggering sum completely overwhelmed the local workers. The men got wind of it and before twenty-four hours had elapsed took Monday night as their special time to go to the work rooms on Main street and make the dressings which will be sent to our theaters of war in the South Pacific, the frozen north, and to Africa.

So far, men from the Elks club and the Kiwanis club have volunteered their services. It serves a double purpose, if we might be so bold. It gives the men a chance to do their bit and gives them an extra night out! It wouldn't surprise the ladies any if their husbands grabbed their hats right after dinner to save the honor of their special service club racing with another organization to get out the first 10,000 dressings.

If this won't make the girls get out and work, nothing will.

ALL AMERICAN PARTY GIVEN AT ROBERTSON'S

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shields Robertson entertained at their home on Lincoln street last Friday evening with an "All American" party in honor of their daughter and son, Mrs. John Sandmeyer and Bob Bobby Robertson whose birthdays fall within the same week.

Decorations and favors were in keeping with the red, white and blue motif and the buffet table was gay with flowers in the three colors, tall candles and red carnations used in the living room. Refreshments were served on individual tables centered with candles.

SOJOURNERS PUT IN MANY RED CROSS HOURS

Members of Sojourners club met at the Willard hotel on Wednesday for the regular meeting with Mrs. R. W. Rockholt and Mrs. H. M. Rayner as hostesses.

During the business meeting it was announced that 282 hours had been put in by Sojourners as work for the Klamath chapter of the American Red Cross.

Bridge was played with high score held by Mrs. Ned Mars, second by Mrs. Ray Coulam, and low by Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton.

Next meeting of Sojourners will be held February twenty-fourth with Mrs. H. M. Shapleigh and Mrs. J. R. McLellan as hostesses. Newcomers to Klamath Falls are cordially invited to attend.

VOLUNTEERS MEET TO SEW ON DRAPERIES

A volunteer committee of the Parents and Patrons club of Klamath Union high school met February the ninth at one o'clock to complete draperies for the Little Theatre off Mon Claire street. Workers included Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. Harry Goeller, Mrs. Charles King, Mrs. Clyde Turner, Mrs. L. L. Palmerton, Mrs. Arnold Gralapp and Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm.

Workers will meet again next Tuesday and it is hoped that others in the Parents and Patrons club will find time to assist in the work of dressing the stage.

At the last meeting of the Parents and Patrons club which was held in the Little Theatre, a number of members seeing that many of the draperies were unfinished offered their assistance in completing the work. Draperies are being made for the windows, lobby and stage. Although the girls of the home economics classes hung the main curtain, they have not had time to complete all the others. The work was nearly at a standstill until the Parents and Patrons club took over the job this week. The students were much pleased, for all the draperies will be hung in time for this month's productions and they appreciate especially the work of these volunteers, because they realize the difficulties presented by gas-rationing, war work, and lack of help at home.

Home Baked Bread Dresses Up Lunches

More and More Housewives Turning Out Nice Brown Loaves to Grace the Family Table

Whether the ladies have turned just plain ordinary domestic, or whether they have decided if they are going to slice their bread they'll slice their own, we haven't quite decided but during the lunch hour at The Herald and News one day this week, we counted exactly nine lunches in which home made bread was "packed".

There were three varieties, too. Dark bread made with a special Graham flour which one ambitious bread maker gets from Eugene, another dark bread made with molasses and rye flour which has a grand, even texture, and then good old plain white bread with plenty of substance and fashioned into small loaves neat for sandwich making.

Prowling around a bit we found the breadmakers a bit divided on the type of yeast they use. (Or you might pronounce it "east as Grandma used to do") Some swear by the moist cake type, others do just as well with the granular kind that keeps mighty well on the kitchen shelf.

"Home baked" bread! Does that bring back memories that you'll never forget? Those days when the odor of fresh bread baking in your mother's old-fashioned oven could call you home from any game, more urgently than any parental command ever could? And then the "end" or "heel" which was your special reward for hanging under the kitchen and getting underfoot, waiting until the loaves were golden brown and done just right. Those wonderful end pieces hot, buttered, and covered with a plentiful helping of peach or strawberry jam.

One thing which you can do to whet your family's appetite for necessary repetitions in menus is to learn to bake. To prove that it's easy, here are two recipes which are guaranteed to bring the family to the table in a hurry

WHITE BREAD

2 tablespoons shortening
2 tablespoons sugar
2 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 cup salted milk
1 cup boiling water
1 cake fresh or dry granular yeast dissolved in 1/4 cup lukewarm water
6 cups sifted bread flour.
Put shortening, sugar, and salt in large bowl. Add liquid. When lukewarm, add dissolved yeast and 3 cups flour. Mix thoroughly with knife or spoon. Add 2 cups flour, mix with knife, and add remaining flour gradually, using just enough to prevent sticking.

Turn on floured board or cloth. Knead until mixture is smooth and elastic. Return to bowl, cover with clean cloth and let rise until double in bulk. Toss on slightly floured board, knead, shape, and place in greased pans, having pans nearly half full. Cover, let rise to double in bulk. Bake 15 minutes in hot oven (425 degrees Fahrenheit), then reduce to moderately hot (375 degrees Fahrenheit) and bake 30 to 35 minutes longer. Makes two medium loaves.

WHOLE-WHEAT BREAD

1 cup milk
5 tablespoons molasses or dark brown sugar
4 teaspoons salt
1 cake fresh or dry granular yeast
1 cup lukewarm water
5 cups whole-wheat flour
1 cup sifted white flour
3 tablespoons melted shortening.
Scald milk; add molasses or sugar and salt; cool until lukewarm. Dissolve yeast in lukewarm water and add to lukewarm milk. Add half the flour and beat until smooth. Add melted shortening and remaining flour, or enough to make easily handled dough. Knead thoroughly, and place dough in greased bowl, cover and set in warm place, free from draft. Let rise until doubled in bulk, about 1 1/2 hours. Punch dough down in bowl and let rise again until about 3/4 as high as first rise, about 1/2 hour. When light, divide into 2 equal portions and shape into balls. Let rest 10 to 15 minutes. Shape into loaves and place in greased bread pans. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in hot oven at 400 degrees Fahrenheit about 1 hour. Makes 2 loaves.

To add an extra amount of nourishment mix 2 cups of raisins with the dough after first rising.

Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall will be hostess to members of the Art Needle Work club Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, February the seventh, at her home at 646 California avenue.

Hildebrand Girl Bride

Barbara Pool Weds in Rites Sunday, February the Seventh

Miss Barbara Clara Pool, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Pool of Hildebrand, became the bride of PFC Billy Kenneth Nygren, son of Mrs. Pearl Nygren and Mr. James A. Nygren of Klamath Falls, in a quiet ring ceremony read Sunday, February the seventh, at six o'clock in the evening in the Williamson River Methodist church. The service was recited by the Rev. B. V. Bradshaw.

The altar, lighted by many tall white candles, was decorated with white lilies. A large American flag was used as the background.

Just before the service Mrs. Bradshaw sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and she also played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white taffeta with a full skirt, snug bodice with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves puffed at the shoulder. Her veil was caught at the head by a cluster of orange blossoms and she carried Talisman roses and gardenias.

Mrs. Jimmy Nygren was the matron of honor and wore a blue taffeta gown fashioned after that of the bride. She carried calla lilies.

Mr. Ervin Pool, Jr., of Hildebrand was the best man.

A reception followed at the J. W. Wolff home near Algoma. Mrs. Nygren was assisted by Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. A. Ring and Mrs. Henry LaBarge in serving the wedding cakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Nygren left for the north that evening, he to return to his post at Fort Stevens where he has been stationed since September, 1940, with the National Guard. Mrs. Nygren will live near the post.

Guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stiles of Quartz Mountain, J. W. Wolff of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Hugo Gunther of Medford, Mrs. Elizabeth Lang of Albama, Mr. and Mrs. Henry LaBarge of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Buell and daughter, Pat, of Williamson River, Mrs. A. Ring and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Brumlee of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Henry Wolff and Mrs. Andrew Flury of Chiloquin, and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Wolff of Medford and parents of the young couple.

While the bread is still piping hot:

"WALLY" RETURNS TO HIS HOME

To our desk this week came a very nice note on blue paper and decorated with three very fat, chubby pink polka-dot ducks, thanking us for a story written about "Wally," a pet Pitt bulldog owned by Beth Lee Bunch.

Both Lee, and we, too, are happy to announce that "Wally" is safe at home. A kind lady on Tunnel street called the Bunch residence and said she had a dog there which greatly resembled "Wally." There was a very happy reunion within a short time. Thank you for the nice letter, Beth Lee.
