SUIT FOR DAMAGES FILED HERE MONDAY
A suit for damages amounting to $25,000 was filed in circuit court Monday by Lettie L. Bigby against the Pelican Bay Lumber company.

Belief that warts are caused by toads comes from the fact that these amphibians have warts themselves.

BEER at its BEST
The suit arose from injuries and subsequent death of her son, George Stephen Bigby, in December, 1942. Bigby, who was employed as fireman's helper, was allegedly assisting in hoisting steel plates weighing 920 pounds when the hoist slipped and he was pinned under the steel.

Mrs. Bigby charges that the company was careless and negligent in the matter of providing proper hoists and safeguards, and that her son's death resulted. Fred O. Small is attorney for the plaintiff.
