REVERSES IN TUNISIA SET MARKET BACK

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Feb. 18 (AP)—American battle reverses in Tunisia received the principal blame for a sell-off in today's stock market with other factors more or less contributory.

Large trades in low-priced issues, the majority of which were unchanged or easier, put volume above the 1,000,000-share figure for the eleventh 1943 session.

Liveliest performer was United Corporation which conceded a 1/4 of a point at 1 on a single sale of 43,000 shares.

Profits were cashed and commitments trimmed not only on the North African news but because of the feeling that a sizeable correctional reaction was in the offing.

WHEAT
CHICAGO, Feb. 18 (AP)—An early upturn in wheat was lost today when a moderate amount of selling from houses with elevator connections, entered the market. The selling was believed to have come from the southwest and to represent hedging.

Other grains were up early, with rye moving to new seasonal highs, but weakened later with the bread cereal. Although all corn contracts were at ceilings for most of the session, the May contract eased fractionally below its maximum on several occasions.

At the close wheat was down 1-1/2c, May $1.41 1/2, July $1.41 1/2, corn was unchanged 99-1/2c, oats slumped 1-1/2c, rye dropped 1-1/2c and May soybeans closed 1/2c above yesterday's final bid quotations.

Grains received early support from a report that the farm bloc and administration forces were considering a compromise on agricultural prices.
