

Col. Whittaker Named to Deputy Command in Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Feb. 18 (P)—Col. Frank L. Whittaker was designated today as deputy commander of the Alaska defense command by Maj. Gen. Simon B. Buckner, Jr., commanding general. He was born in New Hampshire and graduated from Norwich university in Vermont in 1915. He was a member of the Massachusetts national guard before receiving a commission as a second lieutenant in the cavalry in 1916.

Brown Turns Down Portland Request For Rent Increase

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 (P)—OPA Director Prentiss M. Brown

says that rents cannot be increased "until price rises are translated into increases in the landlord's actual expenditures." His statement was in reply to Portland area landlords who complained to Senator McNary and Representative Angell that federally regulated rents do not compensate for increased operation costs. Brown said however that more efficient operation of rental properties and elimination of competitive replacements of fixtures and utilities were compensating factors.

NO PIANO

FRESNO, Calif. (P)—Mrs. Gertrude Holmes' will—and two sewing machine drawers—were filed for probate. The will was pencilled neatly on the bottoms of the drawers.
