LOCAL MASONS WILL OBSERVE FEBRUARY 22

Local Masons will again observe the anniversary of the birthday of George Washington, statesman, soldier, Mason, American, by attending the morning service at the First Methodist church at North Tenth and High streets. The minister, Rev. Victor Phillips, will give the sermon, the subject of which will be, "Patriotism Without Service." This subject was suggested by Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, who used the phrase in a recent address.

Mrs. S. Meade Badger will sing a solo at the service and the choir under the direction of Andrew Loney, Jr., will sing special music. Klamath Lodge, AF&AM, Dr. George Adler, Worshipful Master, voted unanimously at its last meeting to observe Washington's birthday in this way and members and visiting brethren are cordially invited to attend, as well as the public. The service will commence at 11 a. m. Places will be reserved members of the Masonic order.
