

SOCIETY

By Lois Stewart

Commandos Plan Dance for Tonight

Public Urged to Support Affair in Klamath Falls Armory With Excellent Floor Show Slated

"The situation is well in hand" to quote one of those Marine corps expressions, classics in their own right, with Klamath Falls Commandos and the whole town, for that matter, playing the role of host to six handsome Marines from the Mare Island naval hospital.

Tonight is the Commando dance at the armory and it should be a command that every person in Klamath Falls turn out for the affair or else buy a ticket even if they can't get there to see a bang-up floor show and pay tribute to the six young fighting men from Uncle Sam's armed forces.

The boys are guests at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reed and Mrs. Rose Poole. It's a toss-up. The hosts are having just as good a time as their leather-neck guests.

All proceeds from tonight's dance go into a Commando fund maintained for the purpose of bringing to this city wounded young service men, back from the fighting fronts. The more tickets sold for the dance, the more soldiers, sailors or marines, that are given a chance to enjoy Klamath Falls' hospitality.

Here until next week are Sergeant W. H. MacDowell of Tulsa, Oklahoma; Sergeant L. H. Morgan, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; PFC T. J. Curry, Jamaica, Long Island; Corporal W. T. Morehead, Baltimore, Maryland; PFC R. J. Moriarty, Brooklyn, New York; and Corporal G. H. Haryan, Syracuse, New York.

A dinner party will be given for the Marines by the Commandos at five o'clock Sunday evening in the Pellican party room.

On Thursday evening a convoy of 120 officers and men, Camp White, were guests at a dance given by the Commandos at the service center on Main street.

Mrs. Hiram F. Murdoch and Mrs. Lloyd J. Goble have returned from Portland where they spent several days during the past week. While in the north they were guests at the Heathman.

FIFTEENTH BIRTHDAY IS OBSERVED

Miss Carol Vanderwall, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wilson of 312 Michigan avenue, was honored by her parents Friday evening on the occasion of her fifteenth birthday anniversary.

Members of the younger set who enjoyed the affair were Mary Griffith, Britta Lion, Nancy Humble, Margaret Flock, Erlene Wheeler, Lois Cada, June Bosworth, Effie Botens, Marian Matthews, Jeannine Selby, Lola Marie Whisenant, Sharon Moore, Joan O'Neill, Betty Westlin, Rose Oss and Minnie Thomas.

MRS. REYMERS GUEST AT SWANSON HOME

Mrs. Martin Swanson asked a few friends in Friday afternoon to greet Mrs. Mahr Reymers and her young son, Gary, who are visiting here for a week from King City, California.

Guests included Mrs. Robert A. Thompson and daughter, Sue, Mrs. John H. Houston and Jon, Mrs. John Shaw and two little daughters, Betty and Suzanne, Mrs. John Coppage and Johnny, Mrs. Theodore Durnant, and the young Swansons, Barbara and Richard.

LEMIRE TO LEAVE CITY FOR SOUTH

It is with regret that friends have learned of the plans of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lemire who leave Klamath Falls soon to reside in San Francisco.

A number of informal affairs are being planned for Mrs. Lemire's pleasure prior to her departure.

Mrs. John Coppage and son, Johnny, will leave Tuesday for Portland where they will spend several days as guests of Mrs. Frank P. Drew and young David. They plan to return Friday.

Surgical Dressings

Armed with painters' caps, thirty-eight Klamath Falls men scrubbed their paws and sat down to do a good job of folding surgical dressings in the Red Cross rooms last Monday night. This is one time when the old adage, "nothing new under the sun," failed. At least it was the first time in our town's experience. The boys will work next Monday night and would like a few more of their friends to appear.

Center, the photographer takes a close-up of a pair of husky hands. Upper right, Mrs. F. R. McElroy watches the three at her table, left to right, Herb Barry, Glenn Evans and Lynn Skillington. Upper left, Bert Hall, standing, watches Harry Goeller, left, and Malcolm Epley. Seated is Mrs. W. O. Smith, instructor. Lower left, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houston. Right, Mrs. Leslie L. Pope instructs at her table where the following are working, left to right, Gary Cozad, Lloyd Prock, John Fowler and in the corner, Fred Heilbronner. Center, Mrs. A. J. Lyle shows Amil Paul just how the work goes.

—Guderian.

Men Turn Out for Surgical Dressings

Blanket Invitation Issued to Residents To Work Monday Night at Red Cross Rooms

Horny hands of two-fisted males turned in a nice piece of work last Monday night in the surgical dressings project rooms of the Red Cross and next Monday night all the fellows who were down there want to see more of their kind folding away on the sheer little pieces of gauze.

Protests that it was a woman's work, failed to daunt the men who turned out thirty-eight strong to fold the surgical dressings much to the delight of Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney Sr., project chairman, and the instructors. These women, the instructors, found the men apt students and consider the class an excellent one.

All men in the city, regardless of lodge or club affiliations, are asked to report to the project Monday night. This is not a group sponsored by any one organization but is made up of men who want to see the quota set for Klamath Falls made up to the last dressing.

Those who reported last Monday night were, F. L. Houston, S. Benson, L. F. Kirkpatrick, Carl K. Cook, Malcolm Epley, G. W. Sample, H. H. Williams, George W. McIntyre, Fred LaForge, Harry Goeller, Fred Fleet, E. Skillington, H. E. Barry, Ray Ruger, Ralph Howard, F. E. Drake, N. H. Jones, H. D. Park.

G. B. Cozad, Glen F. Evans, H. O. Brandenburg, A. F. Glover, F. A. Glover, John Fowler, Lloyd Prock, F. M. Hooton, A. L. Paul, H. T. Bunch, E. B. Hall, Frank Peyton, J. E. Reading, J. H. Brown, B. E. Coles, S. R. Hunter, W. A. Palmer, H. R. Harrison, Fred Heilbronner and Dr. J. C. Hunt.

VISITOR FROM SOUTH GREET FRIENDS

Mrs. Mahr Reymers and young son Gary, were greeted by their many friends upon their arrival here this week from King City, California, where they have made their home for the past year.

Several small informal affairs were given for Mrs. Reymers this past week.

Mrs. C. G. Reymers, who has been in California with Mr. Reymers for the past several weeks, accompanied her daughter-in-law here and will dispose of her home on Huron street. The Reymers have taken a house in King City where they will reside.

ANW CLUB MEETS AT KUYKENDALL'S

Special guests of the hostess were Mrs. M. J. Carter, Mrs. G. C. Stevens, Mrs. George Ulrich and Mrs. J. F. Kimball, when members of the Art Needle Work club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall on California avenue. Eighteen club members were present.

Mrs. Carter, the first named guest, was born in Ashland, Oregon, in 1857, daughter of the late A. D. Helman, who settled in Ashland in 1852, and who had the honor of naming the new settlement for his home town in Ashland, Ohio, and whose residence was the third building erected in the southern Oregon town. Mrs. Carter now lives with her daughter, Mrs. Carter, on Pacific Terrace, Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones will be hostess to the club at the next regular meeting, Wednesday afternoon, March the third, at her home at 203 High street.

Miss Josephine Koppes of Medford, affiliated with the Jackson county health unit, is spending this weekend at the home of Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., on Conger avenue.

Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver has returned from a visit in San Francisco.

February Tea Is Saturday Event

Mrs. Frederick C. Wissenbach Honored at Affair Given at Padgett Home

One of the loveliest of early spring parties was the tea given Saturday afternoon of this week complimenting Mrs. Frederick C. Wissenbach, newcomer to Klamath Falls. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Wyatt Padgett on Summers lane. Guests called between the hours of two and six o'clock.

Hostesses at this afternoon's party were Mrs. Padgett, Mrs. Phil Schroeder, Mrs. Percy B. Webb, and Mrs. John Schubert.

The tea table was especially lovely with tall white candles on either side of the bowl of red roses. Bowls of roses were used in the living room.

Receiving with the hostesses was Mrs. Wissenbach who wore a gown of black with white accents and a corsage of red roses.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett, Mrs. Bert Schultz, Mrs. J. F. Ferguson and Mrs. Richard Hibbs.

Pouring the first hour was Mrs. Victor E. Newman, the second hour, Mrs. Ralph S. Hopkins, and from four to five, Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver poured with Mrs. Francis Robert Olds presiding during the last hour of the afternoon.

Invitations were issued to one hundred maids and matrons in the city to greet Mrs. Wissenbach.

ST. PAUL'S GUILD TO MEET THURSDAY

The Guild of St. Paul's will meet at twelve o'clock noon for luncheon in the parish house on Thursday of this coming week, it was announced by Mrs. Ralph S. Hopkins, president.

The luncheon will be prepared and a small charge made. Mrs. R. Henry Anderson is in charge. Mrs. W. B. Hendrickson will be in charge of the program during the afternoon. There will also be a business meeting.