

Oregon News Notes

By The Associated Press Lt. Cmdr. John C. Alderman, cited by Adm. Chester Nimitz for bringing the badly damaged destroyer McFarland back to port after sinking a Japanese submarine and downing four enemy dive bombers off Guadalcanal, returned to Dayton for a visit with his parents . . . The First National bank of Portland announced it will keep open until 9 p. m. daily except Sunday to alleviate absenteeism at war plants . . . OPA officials predicted Multnomah county registration for ration book No. 2 will surpass the estimated 450,000 total.

Federal Judge Claude McCulloch at Portland sentenced Ralph de Kuyper, 25, Lebanon, to three years in prison for violating the selective service act . . . The OPA asked a federal court injunction against the Working Man's Friend market, Portland, accused of selling meat above ceiling prices . . . Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Sullivan, Waterloo, Ia., whose five sons were lost on the cruiser

Juneau in the South Pacific, participated in the launching of Oregon Shipbuilding corporation's 140th Liberty freighter, the Nathaniel Wyeth, named for an early-day Oregon trader. Incumbent officials of the Portland AFL Boilermakers union, demurring in circuit court to a suit to oust them filed by officers elected last December, claimed the election was unconstitutional . . . Death took Mrs. Johnson Porter, 66, daughter of the late U. S. Senator Joseph Norton Dolph, at Portland . . . A log rolled off a truck at the Willamette Valley Logging company operation near Black Rock, fatally crushing Arthur Snyder, 50, Portland.

TIME-CLOCK CASUALTY
KANSAS CITY, (AP)—Loine Hollis, 60, a factory fireman, arrived for work in a breathless rush. "I'm twenty minutes late," he gasped, hurrying to the clock and punching his time card. Then he crumpled to the floor. The examining physician said he died of heart disease.

RURAL LIFE—AND DEATH
GREAT FALLS, Mont., (AP)—A farmer offered for sale, through the county agricultural agent: "One farm, complete with heat, light, running water, fine buildings, tillable lands and cemetery."
