ROTARY HEARS DISCUSSION ON GERMANY

TULELAKE—Rev. Frederick C. Wissenbach, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Klamath Falls, guest speaker for the Rotary club this week, gave his audience a comprehensive resume of the Germany of today as he saw it first hand.

Born in Germany, Rev. Wissenbach first came to America in 1912 and in 1931 was recalled to the pastorate of a Berlin church. There at the time of Hitler's rise to power, he saw the effect of the Nazi regime on his homeland.

He predicted that America must fight hard to win this war with Germany and while food conditions were beginning to be critical long before he left, morale of the people was still high.

On returning to America, Rev. Wissenbach shipped his baggage out through Australia while he left Germany by way of Belgium.

The pastor, one of the most versatile speakers to be presented to the Rotary club in many months, was introduced by Clark W. Fensler, program chairman. President P. C. Bergman, presided.

Guests at the luncheon were R. H. Eller, Johnny Johnson and Jack Martin, all of Klamath Falls, Vince Court, Alturas, George Frey and Fred Engle, Tulelake.

Malin

The Helping Hand society meeting this week at the home of Mrs. F. J. Loosley voted to sponsor a bazaar in the near future to help raise funds for the treasury, and voted against joint meetings of the society and the Malin home extension unit.

Members present for the all day meeting and luncheon were Mrs. Perry Haley, Mrs. Clarence Hundley, Mrs. Ima Schultz, Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Jack Ratliff, Mrs. William Graham, Mrs. Charles Hamilton.

Mrs. C. M. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. H. E. Wilson, Mrs. John Bailey, Mrs. Joe Jacobs, Mrs. Jess Z. Smith, Mrs. Joe LaClair, Mrs. A. E. Street, Mrs. Everett Jones, Mrs. Jess Lindsey, Mrs. Dick Henzel, Mrs. John McCully.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baley, who were snowbound for three weeks when drifts from their ranch home were too deep for travel, are again able to travel.

Austin Nisley, who has been ill for some time in a Klamath Falls hospital, is still under observation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Fitzpatrick and daughter Carol, Klamath Falls, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Hab Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson spent the weekend with Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. Fred Gilbert and family at Redding, leaving the children at home with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wilson.

417 Sign for Ration Book 2

TULELAKE—Registration for ration book two has proceeded rapidly with 417 persons signing up on Wednesday, first day for registration here. Following days averaged about the same.

Ten registrars officiated in the grade school. Only four days were devoted to the task here and at Winema school on the west side.

FINISHING TOUCH LEWISTOWN, Mont. (AP)—Elmer E. Loebis ran over a coyote and tossed it into the back of his automobile.

Shortly he heard a scuffling of paws and snarls. It didn't faze him. He dispatched the animal bare-handed and continued his drive.

65 ATTEND LODGE DINNER MONDAY

TULELAKE—Beulah Wiese, district deputy grand worthy matron; Ralph Ganger, junior grand steward of the grand lodge of California and Kenneth Harkness, superintendent of schools at Newell, were speakers at the George Washington birthday dinner given Monday night by Canby Cross Masonic lodge. Chicken dinner was served by the Guild members of the Tulelake Presbyterian church with places marked for 65 guests. Twenty of the guests were from Newell.

Otis Roper, worthy master, presided. Floyd Boyd, George Reiben, Lawrence Hardman and Gilbert Osborne acted as the refreshment committee.

Following the dinner the guests were entertained with a motion picture film and games.

Camp Fire News

By FRANCES L. McMULLEN Do you, as a Camp Fire girl, have all the equipment you need—a Camp Fire sweater, skirt, middie, ceremonial gown, anklets and all the rest of the essentials to make your outfit complete? The Camp Fire Outfitting company in New York has informed your Camp Fire department that government regulations have greatly reduced the variety of items, as well as the quantity, of any one article available.

Because of these facts, the Camp Fire Outfitting company has asked Moe's to discontinue their Camp Fire department for the duration. This means that all Camp Fire merchandise of any sort must be ordered directly from the outfitting company in New York after today.

SPEED DEMON DALLAS (AP)—This homing pigeon's business must be rushing. P. P. Dransfield said a bird released in Omaha at 8 a. m. arrived in Dallas at 6 p. m., an average speed of 56 1/2 miles per hour—as the pigeon files.

Mister-- Are You Interested in Selling So Much Per Week or in Keeping Your Customers ? Customers used to expect that you had more things to sell than they could possibly buy. Now they expect you don't have much they do want to buy. What you do have and can sell is news. Telling the public is an actual service. If your advertising will (1) save customers steps, gas and time in shopping around (2) tell of substitutes and new items to replace what they can't get (3) explain your shortages and shortcomings so they will understand — then, after V-Day, they will look to you for long unfilled wants. They'll be YOUR customers!
