King of Hearts Dick Hicks

A huge red heart, through which the King of Hearts and four Knights stepped, was one of the big events of the week for the younger set when Daughters of Job entertained Friday evening in the Masonic temple at their annual King of Hearts Dance.

King this year was Dick Hicks, and Sir Knights were Jim Bocchi, Richard Hunter, Dick Cada, and Jimmy Noel. The crowning ceremony took place at half past ten o'clock with Miss Joy Kent, Honored Queen of Jobs Daughters, escorting and crowning the King. Knights and their escorts were Mr. Bocchi and Miss Letty Linman, Mr. Hunter and Miss Maxine Liskey, Mr. Cada and Miss Marjorie Schultz, Mr. Noel and Miss Patricia Benoist.

Patrons and patronesses for the party were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Listoe, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schaupp, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kent and Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm.

The ballroom was attractive with an all-white ceiling, with immense red hearts on either side of the room. A punch bowl was presided over by Jobs Daughters. The crowning took place in the lodge room.

Miss Bette Ree Martin was chairman of the affair, one of the most successful given by the organization this year. —Kennell-Ellis.
