

Affairs Highlight Week for Lemires

Well Known Klamath Falls Couple Say Goodbyes Prior to Their Departure Sunday

Hardly a week goes by in Klamath Falls that handkerchiefs aren't waved in farewell to one or two well known couples. This time it is Virginia and Clem Lemire who are leaving and several informal affairs were given during the past week for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemire will go to Portland Sunday morning and Mrs. Lemire will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Yarnes, formerly of this city, and also hopes for a weekend with Mrs. Charles Hovey who is teaching at Yamhill but gets to Portland frequently. Mr. Lemire will enter the procurement division of the United States navy. Later Mrs. Lemire will go to San Francisco for the duration. Both hope to return to Klamath Falls after the war.

On Wednesday Mrs. Lemire, accompanied by Mrs. Walter Eschebeck, motored to Medford to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Pick and while there Mrs. Pick entertained for her daughter. Mrs. Eschebeck visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reavis. Mrs. James Busch and Jamie accompanied them back to Klamath Falls and Mrs. Busch is remaining for the weekend with friends.

Mrs. Lemire has been active in social and club affairs here and served as president of AAUW one year.

On Tuesday at one o'clock Mrs. Robert A. Thompson entertained at luncheon for Mrs. Lemire at the Pelican and guests included Mrs. J. Truman Runyan, Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., Mrs. Dick Reeder, Mrs. Mahr Reymers, Mrs. James Busch, Miss Mary Jane Jenkins, Miss Katherine Walton. The honor guest received a going away gift.

During the week informal affairs have been given by Mr. and Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eschebeck and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Mushen.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Lemire said goodbye to a group of close friends at their home in the Roosevelt apartments.

ENVIABLE RECORD SET BY SOJOURNERS

Sojourners met February twenty-fourth at the Willard hotel for the regular fortnightly meeting. Members have turned in 230 hours of work for Klamath chapter of the American Red Cross and it was noted that 90 per cent of the members are doing Red Cross work which is indeed an enviable record.

Mrs. James Lang was a guest of the afternoon. Bridge was played with high score held by Mrs. E. A. Jaquette, high; Mrs. W. D. Miller, second, and Mrs. Harvey Lohr, low. The next meeting will be held March the tenth with Mrs. Glenn Jones and Mrs. Lohr as hostesses.

BIRTHDAY PARTY ON THURSDAY

A delightful party of last week was the one given by Mrs. J. K. McAndrews for her young daughter, Margaret, whose twelfth anniversary fell on February the eighteenth. Guests were invited for six o'clock dinner and found their places marked with lovely little lace frilled bouquets.

BOOK REVIEW GIVEN AT BETHANY CIRCLE MEETING

An interesting review on a book on South America was given by Mrs. Jacob Heid during the program hour at the meeting of Bethany circle of the First Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon when a one o'clock luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. E. D. Hamacher on Pacific Terrace.

About twenty-four were present for the meeting. Assisting Mrs. Hamacher as hostesses were Mrs. Charles Gilbert, Mrs. O. R. Holloway and Mrs. J. H. Poppy.

Mrs. Delbert Addison will present the review at the AAUW afternoon book section meeting slated for Tuesday at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Clarence Humble, 1320 Pacific Terrace.

Students Have Club

Sophomore Group Dances Each Friday At Stone Home

A group of sophomore students of Klamath Union high school are having a great deal of fun on Friday afternoons when they attend a dancing class held each week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Stone, 1503 Canby street.

Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Bert Call Thomas are sponsors for the group. Mr. Clifford Rowe is instructor. It is hoped by those who have arranged for the group of young people, that other mothers will become interested in similar projects.

KLAMATH GIRL NAMED AT STEPHENS

Miss Dorothea Ellingson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson, 820 Pacific Terrace, was named junior representative to her residence hall council at Stephens College for Women in Columbia, Missouri, last week.

The purpose behind the position now held by Miss Ellingson is to give junior, as well as senior girls living in a dormitory, direct representation on their house council. Executive offices are held by seniors, but as a junior representative, Miss Ellingson will attend all meetings and obtain practical experience in leadership.

MISS MEAD COMPLIMENTED ON BIRTHDAY

Miss Gwen Mead was complimented on the occasion of her birthday last Saturday evening when Miss Ann Otey entertained at a seven o'clock dinner at her home, 2331 Garden avenue.

Covers were laid for Miss Mead, Miss Shirley Katzymer, Talbot Sehorn, Alvin Davis, Don Bridge and the hostess.

ON HER BIRTHDAY

Carol Vanderwall, attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wilson of 312 Michigan avenue, was fifteen last Friday evening, February nineteenth, and fittingly observed the occasion with a party for the younger set.

Last of Concert Programs Planned

Lovely Helen Jepson to Sing at Pelican Theatre Friday Evening, March Fifth

Important on next Friday night's program is the concert to be presented by the Klamath Community Concert association with lovely Helen Jepson as guest artist. The program starts promptly at eight o'clock at the Pelican theatre. Those wishing to renew their memberships are asked to pay them at this time in order to save workers the use of gas and tires.

Mrs. Martin Swanson will serve as this year's membership chairman assisted by Mrs. F. Cecil Adams and Mrs. George Myers as co-chairmen. The drive starts with the workers' meeting and dinner Sunday, March seventh.

As for Helen Jepson, Klamath music lovers have a rare treat in store for them. They will see a beautiful woman with a perfectly beautiful voice and a combination like that is hard to beat. This is what they say about Jepson in New York:

"A glorious voice, a vital intelligence, a winning charm... that is the rare trilogy of gifts represented in the radiant person of lovely Helen Jepson. The life story of a Cinderella tale of a brilliant talent which has grown into fame. Pennsylvania born, Miss Jepson was reared in Akron, Ohio, and all through her girlhood, her one working goal was to be a singer. One summer, she sang for a director of the Curtis Institute of Music, who advised her to try for a scholarship there, which she did—winning three in a row! In the year of her graduation, she also made a successful debut with the Philadelphia Opera Company. Then followed a trying period of opportunity-hunting. One day discerning ears selected her for a solo part on a leading radio program... she so distinguished herself that she was quickly signed and made its 'star.' Not long after, the great impresario Gatti-Casazza heard one of her broadcasts, became impressed with her beautiful voice, summoned her to his office, and awarded her a Metropolitan opera contract."

"Helen Jepson's debut opposite Lawrence Tibbett brought to the Metropolitan a figure that was the personification of youthful charm—blessed with a beautiful voice—and a spontaneous flair for the stage. Audiences are touched and moved by her performances in 'La Boheme,' 'Faust,' 'Manon,' 'Martha,' 'Othello'; she is ravishing in 'Travita,' a wistful and lovely 'Melisande,' and a glamorous 'Thais.' To the concert stage as well she carries the beauty, the warmth and the quality of human sympathy which distinguish her, charming the eye even before she conquers the ear with her fresh and lovely voice. Hers is a gift of radiance... hers the power to move every listener to homage to this glowing young goddess of song."

Because it's war time, because we need a morale lifter, because music is the keynote to a successful community, right now, the membership drive will get under way early next month. If you have enjoyed this year's programs, join!

SHARPES TO VISIT IN KLAMATH FALLS

Major and Mrs. F. Douglas Sharpe, accompanied by their little daughter, Enid Patricia, are expected here sometime Sunday for a brief stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren, 746 California avenue. Mrs. Sharpe will be remembered as the former Enid Winningham of this city.

Major Sharpe has just returned from long service with the United States army air corps in India and has been detailed to Columbia, South Carolina, where he will instruct at the air base there. During his absence Mrs. Sharpe and daughter have been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mylius P. Winningham, who have made their home in Portland since leaving here.

Commandos Attend Member Sunday

Ann Kulm to Wed Soldier in Rites Planned for Sunday with reception at Unit

Miss Ann Kulm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Dawson of Sisseton, North Dakota, will become the bride of Technical Sergeant Bert Styckel, son of Mrs. Alma Styckel of Richmond, California, in a ceremony to be read by the Rev. Victor Phillips in the chapel of the First Methodist church at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, February twenty-eighth.

Attending the wedding in full dress uniform will be the Commandos of which Miss Kulm is a charter member.

The bride, to be given in marriage by Mr. John H. Houston, has chosen a pastel blue wool tulle with a small blue feather pill box hat and she will carry a white prayer book and single green orchid.

The service, to be read before a fireplace banked with greens and spring flowers and many tall white candles, will be attended by close friends of the young couple. Maid of honor will be Pat Butler and bridesmaids, all wearing the Commando uniform, will be Mary Beth Hammond, Dorothy Constable, Evelyn Peterson and Phyllis Smith. Miss Gail Blewer will sing, "I Love You Truly" with Mrs. George Hillis at the piano.

Mr. Pat Malloy will be the best man.

Greeting wedding guests at the door will be Faith Hunziker, and Dorothy Gilchrist and ushers will be Commandos Bernie Heidemann, Bon-dell Aubrey, Mary Trulove, Marcell Newman, Barbara Sellers, Elenora Karspeck, Joyce Leech and Gladys Wal-land. All are charter members of the unit.

When the young couple leave the chapel they will walk under an arch of white ribbons held by Commandos. At five o'clock a reception will be given at the Commando unit, first wedding reception to be held there. The bride will cut her cake and Mrs. Louis Serruys, Commando mother, will serve. Others of the unit will assist.

The bride has been active in work of the unit here and will be greatly missed. The groom is now stationed with the United States army at Camp Haan, California, and following a wedding trip in the north the couple will return south and make their home at Riverside, near the camp.

Birthday greetings to Frederick Roenicke, five years old today. From papa, Lt. Albert O. Roenicke at Farragut, Idaho, came a very fine dump truck.
