works. Hit hard by Rommel, WE fell back to a new line in Tunisia, and from this new line we counter-attacked and DROVE ROMMEL BACK.

THIS is the point:

The Germans aren't licked yet. They won't be licked until they're driven to the point where they no longer have either the will to fight or the men and the weapons to fight with. In a war to the death, we simply MUST be realistic in our thinking.
