

SERVICE MEN'S RIOT QUELLED IN VALLEJO

VALLEJO, Calif., March 6 (AP)—Civilian police sent out a riot call early today and with the help of military police quickly put down street fighting among several score service men.

Police Chief Earl Dierking said four men were taken to their military posts for treatment of minor cuts and bruises and three service men were taken in custody by the navy shore patrol.

Chief Dierking said the trouble started shortly after the midnight closing of bars along Vallejo's Georgia street. A negro navy shore patrolman attempted to put a drunken white sailor in a cab to send him back to his post, the chief said. The sailor resisted and part of the estimated 300 service men in the vicinity chose sides and started slugging, Dierking declared. The only negro involved was the shore patrolman.

COMMANDOS PASS TESTS FOR WAACS

Two Klamath Falls Commandos, Jessie Johnson and Jean Watkins, have passed their physical and mental tests at Portland and are awaiting their call to the WAACS.

Jessie Johnson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson, pioneer family of the Henley district. Miss Johnson was born there and graduated from Henley high school. She has been employed as a beautician since her graduation from school. She was a charter member of the Commandos and helped in their establishment. A step-brother, Leland Cheyne, is in the air corps and is stationed at Santa Ana, Calif.

Jean Watkins, who is now employed as laboratory technician at the Klamath county health department, expects to leave Klamath Falls the early part of next week for duty with the WAACS.

Miss Watkins is a graduate of the University of Washington, receiving a B. S. in science. Both her parents served in the first World war.

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 6—National Biscuit company has purchased from Clarence D. Martin, former governor of Washington, the flour milling plant at Cheney, Washington which has operated under the name F. M. Martin Grain and Milling company, according to Jack Watson, local Nabisco representative. Several weeks ago National Biscuit company executives visited Cheney to look over the property. They were impressed by the availability of cheap power and the splendid potential facilities for milling the abundant soft winter wheat of the northwest country.

Martin then came to New York to complete the negotiations. After the sale had been consummated, former Governor Martin said, "In my opinion, this will be a fine thing for the Cheney community and the surrounding area. The great resources of National Biscuit company will mean continuity of management and operation and a permanent outlet for wheat growers in our section of the country."

Fire Department Has Restful Week

The first week in March went by, at least until Saturday noon, without a single alarm, false or otherwise, received by the Klamath Falls fire department. Last call to come in was received February 25, fire ladders said.

LIONS NAME NEW CIVIC COMMITTEE

With Dr. Boyd Sprague as chairman of the day, the Klamath Falls Lions' club had as its speaker at Tuesday's luncheon, Dr. Albert Van Pulling of the U. S. Biological Survey.

Dr. Van Pulling, engaged since November in research at Tule lake, dealt with American wild life generally, touching upon the natural increase and decrease of big game in various sections of the country.

Tuesday's luncheon, brought the announcement by Lion President Gene Hooker of the creation of the club's new committee for civic improvement. Committeemen appointed were M. C. Adams, chairman, Ray Hatfield, Earl Heuvel, Bob Schofield and Clarence Humble. Plans for this committee are extensive and the first meeting is called for 7:30 p. m. Friday, in the office of Police Chief Earl Heuvel.

MRS. WHISENANT RECEIVES LICENSE

Rita Whisenant of Everbody's Drug has received a state license in cosmetology. To get the state license, she passed an examination on study of the structure and conditions of the skin and hair given by the state board of cosmetic therapy.

Mrs. Whisenant also has just returned from Portland where she took the advanced DuBarry course in skin care and make-up. This course was given by V. Gay Ayer of the Richard Hudnut DuBarry salon in New York.

She previously had taken a course in color harmony in make-up at Max Factor's studios in Hollywood, covering the study of facial contours in application of proper make-up coloring.

For care of the hair Mrs. Whisenant took the Ogilvie Sisters' course which qualified her to advise on correction of individual hair problems.

Common Property Bill to Governor

SALEM, March 6 (AP)—The senate passed, 17 to 13, yesterday and sent to the governor a bill to permit husband and wife to choose to hold their property in common, enabling them to file separate federal income tax returns and thus save them about $9,000,000 a year in federal taxes.

The bill, however, would have little effect on couples with an income of less than $10,000 a year.

The bill adopts a community property system similar to those of Washington and California.

OUR MEN IN SERVICE

to the University of Montana, where he will study for several weeks, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenyon. Censorship prevented the young man from sending word to his parents of his trip through Klamath county. He is a graduate of the Malin high school.

LAKEVIEW, Ore.—It was a joyous reunion for two Lake county boys recently when Capt. Robert L. Weir of Crooked Creek and Sgt. J. J. Supple of Lakeview, met one day in far-off Africa. In civilian life back home, Sgt. Supple worked for Capt. Weir for 14 years before the two entered the service. Capt. Weir is a member of the field artillery, and Sgt. Supple is with an armored tank division. And if that doesn't add weight to the old saying, "It's a small world," we might add that the boys anticipate a visit with First Lieut. William Weir, another son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Weir, of Crooked Creek, who has just recently arrived in Africa where the two Lake county boys are stationed.

DORRIS—Josiah W. Mather, former Dorris police chief, has been promoted to the rank of private first class at Camp Howze, Tex. At the same camp are Hudson Moak, Oly Rigo, Pete Visconte and David Ewing, all of Dorris.

Aubrey Avery received orders last weekend to report to an army air force training center at Lincoln, Neb. He left Dorris Sunday by train. His father, O. S. Avery, was born and reared near Lincoln, where many relatives still live.

Lt. V. C. Shaw, stationed in England, cabled his wife, Mrs. Lorene Shaw, of his promotion to rank of captain. Capt. Shaw was a former officer in a CCC camp at Leaf.

TULELAKE—George Birt-whistle, in service in the navy since last June, spent a few days here this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Birt-whistle. This was his first visit home since he enlisted. He is en route to Bremerton, Wash., after being stationed at San Diego.

Harry A. Wiechmann, for many years oil burner service man employed by Fred H. Heilbronner, writes an interesting letter from somewhere in the South Pacific. He says everything is okeh except for the millions of flies, ants and lizards, the latter having a peculiar habit of crawling in bed with you at night. It is awful hot down there, but the coconut trees offer a little shade, he says.

He also stated that he had heard there are some Klamath Falls boys in the next camp, and plans to visit them as soon as possible. He was 40 days at sea and Christmas mail and packages are just now catching up with his outfit. In his letter he included $190 to buy more bonds. The Herald and News would look good too, if you can send it, he wrote. Harry is now with the "Seabees."

MALIN—Private Lowell Kenyon, who left here February 5 for induction in the army air corps at Fresno, passed through Klamath Falls recently en route showing last night by winning, 48-29 over Grants Pass. Tonight they will play the winner of the North Bend-Medford game. Good luck, boys.

NEWS from HOME

Editor's Note—The following is a weekly feature, providing a clipping which can be sent to men in the service from the Klamath country. It is the hope of this newspaper that this feature will stimulate weekly writing to men in the service.

Well, fellas, this eating business has the folks at home in quite an uproar. Most of the news of the week has to do with victuals.

In the first place, point rationing went into effect this week. Each civilian has been allotted 48 points a month, and each purchase of canned or processed food takes some of those points. Four or five ordinary cans will just about exhaust the month's supply of points per individual.

Naturally enough, a lot of folks are planning to put in victory gardens, and that started a new ruckus here this week. The city council, with an eye to protecting gardens, proposed an ordinance requiring dog owners to tie up their pets for six months. A roar of protest was heard and it will be settled soon.

Then the police arrested a Chinese, Lee Hing, and charged him with keeping more than two adult dogs in the city. He had eight of them at his house. Officers also found a dog's tail (and no dog with it) in Lee Hing's yard. They remembered he had said that dogs make good eating. And they're wondering about that tail.

Another eating situation developed at the county jail. Sheriff Lloyd Low is having troubles with the rationing officials, because current food allotments for the jail are based on what was used in December. In December, the jail was darn near empty. Now the sheriff has 37 prisoners, including 11 evacuees from the Tulelake Japanese relocation camp. He'll probably get some help from the OPA in ironing out the problem.

A dozen or so evacuees from the Tulelake project were taken to Alturas, where they were sentenced on riot charges in connection with disturbances over registration for military service and job clearance. Situation at the WRA camp seems to be more quiet now.

The Pelican basketballers are playing in a district tourney at Ashland this weekend. If they win, they go to the state meet. They defeated Grants Pass in the first game of the Ashland tourney, 48 to 29.

Moe's store is the second business establishment to report 100 per cent contribution to the Red Cross, according to Les Offield, in charge of business district war fund drive.

The store itself doubled last year's contribution, while employees are giving 100 per cent. Total of employees' contribution is about three times that of last year, Offield stated.

Income Tax, Sales Tax Bill Introduced

SALEM, March 6 (AP)—Rep. John Hall, Portland, introduced two bills today to reduce income taxes, but the measure would take effect only if the people approve a 3 per cent sales tax at the next election.

The personal income tax rates now are from 2 to 8 per cent. Hall's bill would have no tax on earnings up to $4000, 3 per cent from $4000 to $10,000, 4 per cent from $10,000 to $20,000, and 5 per cent on all over $20,000.

The corporation income rate would be cut from 8 to 5 per cent.

Weyerhaeuser Kidnapper Seeks Prison Release

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6 (AP)—William Dainard, alias William Mahan, convicted of the 1934 kidnaping of George Weyerhaeuser in Tacoma, sought release from Alcatraz prison today by filing a petition for a writ of habeas corpus in federal court here.

He alleged his plea of guilty was inspired by threats of officers to shoot him and say he attempted to escape, unless he made a confession.

MINIMUM SALARY UP

SALEM, March 6 (AP)—The senate passed and sent to the governor yesterday a bill to increase the minimum monthly salary for school teachers from $85 to $133.

You had better get that Income Tax fixed out before they start rationing brains or "deducts" will get you. Yours Forever, Wm. F. B. Chase, 203 Odd Fellows Building, Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Committee to Eye Milk Prices

SALEM, March 6 (AP)—The house completed legislative action today on a resolution to allow the governor to appoint a five-man committee to investigate Oregon's milk prices. Another resolution sent to the governor would compel him to appoint a three-man committee to investigate the state training schools for boys and girls.

MOVING MANPOWER

That's Our War Job!

TO MILITARY CENTERS

TO WAR PLANTS

TO SHIP YARD

TO BUSINESS CENTERS

TO RURAL COMMUNITIES

The nation's highways have gone to war. Over them the bus lines are moving vital manpower—military personnel on important missions—selectees to induction centers—farmers on their "must" trips—workers to war plants and shipyards—business men and women on their essential activities

Greyhound is concentrating on this wartime job, keeping its buses rolling over a vast network of routes. At the same time we are saving precious rubber, fuel and steel by mass transportation of war travelers and by expert maintenance and operating efficiency.

We are putting everything we have into the war effort... glad that our broad experience, widespread facilities and skilled personnel are available for the vital job of moving manpower.

With your cooperation, we shall continue to keep the highways at work for Victory.

WARTIME TRAVEL SUGGESTIONS

You will help the war effort and will have a better trip if you will follow these suggestions:

1. Consult your Greyhound agent in advance for useful travel information.
2. Avoid delay by purchasing your ticket well ahead of time.
3. Travel in mid-week, rather than on week-ends.
4. Carry as little baggage as you conveniently can.
