Library Club To Meet March Eighth

Drama Students To Present "Diabolical Circle" For Pleasure of Membership Monday.

The Little Theatre off Mon Claire street will be the scene the Linue Theatre on Mon Chirary club March meeting of the Riamath Falls Woman's Library club March meeting this coming Monday when the drama students of Mrs. B. B. Blomquist present "The Diabolical Circle" at two o'clock sharp. The part of Cotton Mather, about whom the play evolves, will be taken by George Brown, with Belty, his daughter, played by Patricia Brown. Adonijah Wigglesworth, the villain, is Martin Butz, and Charles Manning, a supporter of the King, is Bruce Wirth. Other Puritan men and women are played by Jack Colvir, Jack Robbins, Dollie Lee, Barbara Moore and Berniece Foster. Costumes and property are in charge of Barbara Schultz assisted by other students of the school. Stage setting is directed by Malcolm Epley, assisted by Ray Schatz members of the cast, and stage lighting is in the hands of William Lofdahl,

"The Diabolical Circle," al-so presented before AAUW members Saturday afternoon, is a picturesque comedy portraying the times and life and characters of early Colonial days. Story concerns famous Cotton Mather and his daughter, Betty, Cotton Ma-ther deems it time that his flaughter married and attempts to select a suitable husband for her. Betty is not satisfied with the choice and many complications arise. icalous suitor accuses pretty Betty of being a witch who is holding him under her spell. It is not until Cotton Mather finds it expedient to make some changes in his views that the story clears up to the happy ending including punishment of the villain in good old fashioned way, a good old fashioned way, the ducking stool. Students have worked dill-gently to create an authentic Colonial background, they have studied the furniture of the times and have gathered some antique pieces which lend a charm to the play. Costumes have been made by students and are copies of those worn during the time of the play. The Little Theatre off Mon

Claire has its own entrance at the back of the high school building and is the small door between large windows and between the two main rear entrances.

Hostesses Monday will be Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck and

Mrs. Arnold Gralapp. Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, mu-sic chairman, will present a group of high school students Monday afternoon during the Monday afternoon during the Library club program, includ-ing Alleen Corneil who will sing Cadman's "At Dawning" and Lohr's "Where My Cara-van Has Rested." At the close Bette Ree Martin will sing, "Goodbye, Sweet Day" by Kate Vannah, and "A Per-fect Day" by Carrie Jacobs Bond with 'cello obligato by Mary Lou Van Riper, Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill will accom-Mary Lou van Aper, and Joseph C. O'Neill will accom-pany Miss Corneil on the vio-lin. These young artists also appeared on the AAUW program. MRS. SCHULZE TO ENTERTAIN THIS EVENING

Mrs. Jack Schulze will entertain this evening at her home on Pacific Terrace as a benefit for the Order of the Amaranth. Dessert will be followed by cards.

Ration Party Planned

Point System to Feature Faculty Wives Dinner Dance

Point rationing was the theme of a clever party plan-ned for tonight, Saturday, in the Pelican party room when the Faculty Wives club will entertain for all members of the Klemeth Union birth the Klamath Union high school leaching staff, their wives and husbands. Dinner will be served at half past seven o'clock and partners will be chosen on the point system. Vegetables, not yet rationed will adorn the one long table where cov-ers will be placed for some fifty-six guests. Music will be provided for an impromptu dance by a fac-ulty "orchestra" and dancing will follow dinner.

Plans for the affair are be-ing made by Mrs. Frank Ramsey and Mrs. Andrew G. Lo-ney, members of the Faculty Wives club.

MISS BRANDT HAS BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK

Marilyn Brandt's seventh birthday anniversary was observed Tuesday after school when her mother, Mrs. A. L. Brandt, invited a group of brandt, invited a group of playmates to their home at 1345 Pacific Terrace. Games were played and a beautifully decorated cake cut at the party table.

Mrs. Henry Perkins, Mar-ilyn's teacher, called for a cup of tea, and Mrs. Brandt was asof tea, and Mrs. Brandt was as sisted by several mothers, Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, Mrs. Jack Schulze and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg.

Guests included Ruth and Virginia Lois Roenicke, Ann Henderson, Karen Porter, Cecile Vandenberg, Mary Kay Snyder, Laura May Courtney, Susan Schofield, Carol Dennison, Annette Jacobs, Betty Lou Tripp, Joanne Ling, Virginia Johnston, Sandra Ben-ton, Beverly Lassett and Lillian Mahan. LUNCHEON HONORS WAAC VISITOR

Honoring Auxiliary Nina M. Keeney, lunchcon was en-joyed at one o'clock Friday at the Willard hotel by a group interested in WAAC recruiting. Guests included Auxiliary

Los Angeles after an ovation which few artists have re-ceived in Klamath Falls. Keency, Mrs. C. Jester, Klam-ath county WAAC recruiting The Metropolitan Opera star, leading soprano of that great institution, chose a proofficer and members of her American Legion auxiliary committee including Mrs. Paul Otterbein, Mrs. Carl Schu-bert, Mrs. Fred LaForge, Mrs. gram which was definitely on the artistic side. But she sang encore after encore and balher program s Grace B. Wells, Mrs. Fred Hellbronner and Mrs. Ed Sha. fully that the well blended numbers produced an evening é.

HELEN JEPSON

Helen Jepson Sings for Klamath Falls Audience

Beautiful Metropolitan Star Pleases With Delightful Program Friday Night

Lavish with her encores, beautiful to look at, thrilling to hear, Helen Jepson sang and sang and sang last night at the Pelican to members and guests of the Klamath Community Concert association. She probably did more to aid the mem-bership drive which opens Monday, than all the publicity which could be given such a campaign. Miss Jepson, wearing a luscious pink concoction, long sleeved, full skirt ending in a generous train with deeper pink and crystal sequin trim outlining the slit, was glamour personified as she stepped on the stage. Her lovely blonde hair of lovely music. One of the was dressed in a pompadour favorites of the audience, takand when she sang the second group including the little "Screnade," she held a book ing the applause as evidence, was Franz Schubert's "Wiegenlied," his beloved cradle song lied," his beloved cradie song and the one that carries that haunting line, "Sleep, my child, angel voices sing thee to innocent slumber." bound in the matching pink with a sequin scroll repeating Miss Jepson left early Sat-urday morning by train for

beauti

The Maurice Ravel number, "Vocalise," a Spanish haban-era sung on one syllable, is one of Miss Jepson's own fav-orites and one which she includes in most of her programs which are planned before she leaves New York.

The formal program was ended with G. O'Connor Morris' thrilling "Alleluia," a joy-

Betrothal Made Known Phyllis Aubrey To Wed Sgt. Robert Abbey in

Early Spring The engagement of Miss

Phyllis Aubrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Aubrey, was made known at a prettily appointed party given Thursday evening in the Pelican party room when Mrs. Au-brey entertained for her daughter.

As guests arrived they were presented with corsages and little scrolls on which the word of the betrothal was made known. Miss Aubrey will become the bride of Serwill become the bride of Ser-geant Robert F. Abbey, son of Mrs. Lois Abbey, in early spring. Sergeant Abbey of this city is now stationed at Fort Canby, Washington.

Dessert was served at a late hour to Mrs. Abbey, Mrs. James Johnston, Mrs. Ruth Brooks, Miss Aubrey, Miss Patty Schupp, Miss Jean Brooks, Miss Aubrey, Miss Patty Schupp, Miss Jean Aubrey, Miss Virginia Ellen Smith, Miss Bondell Aubrey, Miss Marcell Newman, Miss Mitty Lehto, Miss Ethel Mc-Nulty and Miss Helen Mc-Nulty. * * *

RECEPTION PLANS MADE FOR SUNDAY

A reception honoring Rev. and Mrs. Frederick C. Wissenbach will be held Sunday from three to five o'clock in the parish house of St. Paul's Episcopal church. An invitation has been issued to pastors of other churches and their congregations, to call during those hours.

Asked to pour are officers of the Klamath Falls Council of Church Women, including Mrs. John Yadon, president; Mrs. Samuel D. Earhart, vice president; Mrs. Bert Schultz, secretary, and Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe, treasurer.

Members of St. Paul's vestry and their wives will assist during the afternoon and in-troduce the visitors.

troduce the visitors. In charge of the reception are members of St. Paul's rep-resenting the various organi-zations and including Miss Hazel Morrison, chairman; Mrs. Ralph S. Hopkins, Mrs. Robert Elliott, Mrs. Phil Schroeder, Mrs. Harold Shaf-fer, Mrs. Raymond Reeves and Mr. Wyatt Padgett of the vestry. vestry.

WEDNESDAY. CLUB HAS

Wednesday club of St. Paul's Episcopal church en-joyed their last social party of the season before Lent on Wednesday evening in the parish house with Mrs. Glenn Smeed, Mrs. Freida Ellis and Miss Olive Wilson as hostesses.

The St. Patrick's theme was used in decorations and favors and bridge honors went to Mrs. George Rogers, high, Mrs. Harold Shaffer, travel-ing, and Mrs. Donald F. Me-Kay, low. Five tables were in play.

Eulalona Chapter Hears Mrs. Preston

March Program Is Varied as DAR Entertained at D. V. Kuykendall Home

Mrs. Naomi Preston who taught in the college at Santiago, Chile, for five years and returned to this country just two Chile, for five years and returned to this country just two years ago, was the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Cali-fornia avenue. Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg and Miss Jean Whitney were assisting hostesses. Mrs. Preston told about the customs of Chileans, their religious festivals, the great hold the Catholic religion has upon the lives of the people, and how fortunate the teachers feit they were to enjoy over forty feast days when all schools are closed and everybody celebrates.

The speaker talked about tions, established in this coun-itry to benefit the whole world. Also, she brought out the fact that Germany is well entrenched in that part of South America, has estab-... lished scientific and technical colleges cimilar to M L T wealth and also great poverty is to be seen, and that music

Ja to be seen, and that international part. In their educational system. Mrs. Z. W. Dixon, regent, ⇒ presided during the business meeting. Miss Jean Whitney.

was welcomed as a new mem-ber of the chapter, by the regent. Mrs. Harry Goeller, chairman of Correct Use of the Flag, reported that 89 flags and manuals have been given to naturalized citizens given to naturalized citizens during the past year. Mrs.²¹ Goeiler also called the atten-9 tion of members to the new method of giving the flag salute; the right hand is placed to over the heart and left there, a Mrs. Wattenburg, chapter chairman of Red Cross, re-ported 4019 hours of service given by members since Pearl Harbor. Mrs. Arlene Williamnarbor, Mrs. Ariene William son reported that a ten dollar prize is to be awarded to the outstanding girl in homemaker activities at KUHS. Mrs. Vida

Hanson reported on home-maker club work at Altamont high school, and that a pin is to be awarded to the out-standing girl in this work in the county. Miss Virginia West, chairman of DAR Good, not pointing to the flag.

Spring Party the many benefits that have been brought to that country Saturday through the Rockefeller, Gug-genheim and other founda-tions, established in this coun-

Matrons Entertained With Luncheon at Konschot Home

A delightful affair of this lished scientific and technical colleges similar to M. I. T. and other colleges in this country. The life expectancy of women of Santiago is-forty years, according to Mra. Preston, and she attributes this to bad eating habits, too much food at too late hours. She mentioned that great wealth and also great poyerty afternoon was the one o'clock luncheon over which Mrs. Otto F. Konschot and Mrs. Jerry Ricker presided at the Konschot home, 1834 Melrose street.

Bowls of daffodils and acacia centered the tables with bridge enjoyed later.

Guests included Mrs. Sam Roberts, Mrs. Lafayette Ste-phens, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, Mrs. Fred Grant of Modoc Point, Mrs. Charles or modoc Point, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, Mrs. John Pop-py, Mrs. O. R. Holloway, Mrs. C. S. Elliot, Mrs. Carl Stein-seifer, Mrs. Chesleigh O. Moore, Mrs. Harry Peltz Sr., Mrs. Lloyd D. Gass, Mrs. Vic-for Palmar. tor Palmer.

Mrs. James Bishop Foster, Mrs. James Bishop Foster, Mrs. Emil Albrecht, Mrs. Wil-bur Arnold, Mrs. Harry Wayne, Mrs. Clarence Hum-ble, Mrs. Arthur Schaupp, Mrs. Elmer H. Balsiger, Mrs. H. A. Hagman, Mrs. L. E. Mead and Mrs. William Spang-lar. ler.

* * * "GREMLIN" PARTY AT

BRIXNER HOME

Mrs. Phil Brixner entertained at her home on Lakeshore drive Wednesday evening with a "Gremlin" party. Guests were asked to bring stories about the little people and the table naming the highest number of such folk was given an award. Seated at this table were Mrs. Mar-tha McCollum, Mrs. Earl Gardner, Mrs. Brixner and Miss Gertrude Tolle, Awards were defense stamps. Gremlins graced tallies and West, chairman of DAR Good, Pilgrimage, reported that no girls will go to Continental Congress this year, due to war conditions, but a $100 bond will be awarded to the winner in each state. Mrs. Irene Foster, chapter regis-trar, reported fifty-seven mem-bers in good standing on the honors in bridge went to Mrs. McCollum, Mrs. A. C. Bac-kes who will entertain in a fortnight, and low to Mrs. Le-Bac Contest bers in good standing on the chapter rolls, and nine new additions this year. Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchelmore, 3 Roy Carter. member of Mt. Ashland chap-ter, now living at Altamont, was a special guest. The DAR state conference will convene-in Portland, March the six-teenth and seventeenth, and there delay

. . .

Mrs. Andrew G. Loney, ac-companied by her daughter, Mary, left Friday morning for San Diego to spend a short time with friends. Mary is on vacation from the University of Oregon and will return to complete her senior year in mid-March.

On Thursday afternoon, February the twenty-fifth, thirty-five members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church and theat forende met Mrs. Dixon and other dele-gates expect to attend.

+ + +

MRS. GEARY

icently done by Miss Jepson who seemed to be thrilled her-self in singing the hymn. + + + Miss Jepson's accompanist, Stevenson Barrett, played Chopin and Debussy numbers and responded with a delight-ful encore, a "little waltz" by EVENING PARTY

a little known Russian com-* * * ANW CLUB ENTERTAINED AT JONES' HOME

Members of the Art Needle Members of the Art Needle Work club gathered at the home of Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones on High street Wednes-day afternoon, for the regu-lar bi-monthly meeting. An hour or more of sewing, con-versation, and good fellow-ship, was followed by re-freshments served to the fol-lowing: lowing:

Mrs. Z. J. Powell, president, Mrs. J. F. Goeller, Mrs. George Hurn, Mrs. Harold M. George Hurn, Mrs. Harold M. Brown, Mrs. Susanne Homes Carter, Mrs. Marion Hanks, Mrs. Calvin Hunt, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, Mrs. W. P.

followed by cards. Her guests will be Mrs. George S. Stephenson, Mrs. Melvin Solberg, Mrs. L. E. Mead, Mrs. Harvey D. Park, Mrs. Ralph Howard, Mrs. Roland Oakes, Mrs. Allan Fletcher and Mrs. G. E. Wil-son.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED AT BOIVIN'S

Robert Boivin's sixth birthday was observed Thursday afternoon when his mother, Mrs. Harry D. Boivin, invited Mrs. Harry D. Bolvin, invited a group of neighborhood chil-dren to their home on Wash-ington street. Birthday cake and ice cream followed games. Rob-ert was assisted by his young inter Wathlem Mrs W P sister, Kathleen. Mrs. W. P. McCauley assisted Mrs. Bolvin with the young guests,

MISS HOWARD CANDIDATE AT OREGON

Virginia Howard, Klamath Falls, is a candidate for the Oregon Daily Emerald cover girl. Winner of the contest will be a candidate for the National Collegiate Bond contest, as well as cover girl of the Emerald, it was announced from the University of Oregon.

Miss Howard, freshman in the school of architecture and allied arts at Oregon, is the daughter of Mrs. Bonnie How-ard of this city.

the decor of her gown.

MAPPING THE MEMBERSHIP campaign of this year's Community Concert drive, these four met during the week to complete details. Left to right, Mrs. Martin Swanson, membership chairman; Mrs. George A. Myers and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, co-chairmen, and Mrs. Claude H. Davis, secretary of the association. Headquarters will be in the Willard hotel. Kathleen Livingston.

ous Easter hymn of the seven-teenth century, and magnif-McMillan, Mrs. Lyle O. Mills, Mrs. Rufus Moore, Mrs. J. J. Parker, Mrs. C. H. Under-wood, Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, Mrs. Carey Ramsby, and poser.

Mrs. George Wirtz. Mrs. Wattenburg will be hostess to the club March the seventeenth, St. Patrick's day, at her home on Pine street. PAST MATRON

CLUB MEETS IN TEMPLE

Members of Aloha Past Matron club met Friday for a one o'clock luncheon and afternoon of cards, at the afternoon of cards, at the Masonic temple on Klamath avenue. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, Mrs. Glenn Kent, Mrs. George Hurn, and Mrs. Jacob Heid. Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, president, presided dur-ing the business meeting. Mrs. C. G. Reymers, vice-president, who is moving to California, tendered her resignation. which was accepted with re-gret. Mrs. Elizabeth Norris of the Henley district was elect-ed vice-president to succeed Mrs. Reymers. Mrs. Jacob Heid was appointed to call on the sick during the month of March. Mrs. Marion Hanks received guest award and the bridge score was held by Mrs. Fred Cofer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peltz Sr. have returned to their home at the Audley apartments here following a two months' stay in San Francisco.

PRESIDENT OF THE KLAMATH Community Concert association is Dr. F. Cecil Adams, who has directed a most successful year despite the exodus of many Klamath Falls families from the city: Dr. Adams will preside at the dinner given for workers Sunday night at six o'clock at the Willard hotel. -Kennell-Ellis, church and their friends met or for their regular monthly meeting in the church parlors at North Tenth and High streets.

Mrs. Victor Phillips was in charge of the devotional per-iod. Special musical numbers charge of the devolutional per-iod. Special musical numbers were presented by Mrs. Earl Redman, planist, and Mrs. Winnifred Gillen, contraito soloist, Mrs. Redman played two numbers by Chopin, "Waltz in C sharp Minor" and "Polonaise Militaire." Mrs. Gillen, accompanied at the plano by Mrs. T. B. Powers, sang "In My Garden" by Ida-bell Firestone and "I Heard A Forest Praying" by D. Rose. Mrs. L. K. Phelps, president of the group, presided at a short business meeting, after which Mrs. J. K. Reno, pro-gram chairman, Introduced the guest speaker of the after-noon, Mrs. E. A. Geary, study leader of the League of Wo-men Voters, Mrs. Geary's sub-ject was "Post War Peace." She explained why a lasting-peace was impossible after World war 1 and outlined the steps that must be taken after steps that must be taken after steps that must be taken after the present conflict in order to attain and maintain a just and durable peace. Mrs. Geary stated that when enough individuals talk peace and really want peace, then we will have peace. An informal discussion of the subject by the audience followed Mrs. Geary's ad-dress, after which ladles of Circle One served tea from a table attractively decorated in honor of George Washington's birthday.

0