

Plans Made For Prom

Malin High Students Sate Dancing Party April Third

MALIN—"Moonlight Mood," an entrancing theme, has been chosen for the background of the annual junior-senior prom to be held in the gymnasium of the Malin high school, April third.

Norman Jacobs, president of the senior class, and Merle Woodley, president of the junior class, with decorating, advertising and ticket sales committees, will be responsible for all the arrangements. Classes of the high school will compete in a ticket sales contest.

The affair will be semi formal and the public is invited to attend. A. E. Street is advisor for the graduating class and Mrs. Anne Paygr for the juniors. Dancing will be from nine until one o'clock.

PARTIES GIVEN IN KENO DISTRICT

KENO—Mrs. Walter S. Foster of 2035 Arthur street, Klamath Falls, was guest of honor at a shower given at the home of Mrs. Joe H. Foster of Keno last week. As each guest arrived she was given a "bit of sewing" to do for the guest of honor. Refreshments were served to Mrs. George Ager and three little daughters, Mrs. Alvin Clark, Mrs. E. H. Frost, Mrs. Lee Heublein, Mrs. H. Howard, Mrs. Lloyd Howard and son, Mrs. C. C. Huskinson, Mrs. L. E. Lummus and baby daughter, Mrs. K. E. Puckett, Mrs. Leonard Ramsey, Mrs. Dan Scherer, Mrs. E. J. Scherer and little daughter, Mrs. Ross Simmers, Mrs. Charles Snowgoose, Mrs. Ivan Taylor, all of Keno; Mrs. Clark Brown and Mrs. Walter S. Foster and little nephew, of Klamath Falls.

The high school play, "Here Comes Charlie," is getting a good start. The cast has been chosen by Mrs. Helen Hoffman and the lineup is as follows: Larry Elliot, a promising young business man; Larry's ward, Lena Parsons, Ted Hartley; his friend, Warren Pritchard; Mrs. Fanny Farnham, his aunt; June Matchett; Vivian Smythe-Kersey, his fiancée; Mary Ridgeway; Mrs. Caroline Smythe-Kersey, a society crasher; Marjorie Huskinson; Mortimer Smythe-Kersey, her son; Harold Ogle; Nora Malone, the maid; Monnette Calmes; Tim McGrill, her "feller"; Kenneth Puckett; Uncle Alec, Sam McKeen.

The stage scenery is being rebuilt, newly covered and painted. Ben Kerns and Alfred Burton are stage managers.

Glee club and novelty numbers are being prepared for interludes between acts. "Here Comes Charlie," is a rollicking comedy drama written by Jay Tobias. It will be presented April the second in the high school gymnasium.

CANDIDATE INITIATED AT MERRILL

Women of the Moose, Merrill Chapter No. 18, met in regular session with Leta Stolt presiding for Esther Sevey, senior regent. There were twenty-two members present, and one candidate initiated; Lillian Briley. On March eleventh, Dora Myers will lead the ladies to the home of Nora Shuck for an afternoon of cards.

Several of our members with their husbands visited the Eugene chapter recently and gave some interesting details of this visit. Those enjoying the trip were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reeder, Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Winebarger, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Icebnie and Mr. and Mrs. John Stolt, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Van Meter.

Reports of the various committees were given including publicity, and the War Relief chairman reporting the activities of the chapter in that work. Members of the chapter signed up for as many hours as they could for the Red Cross work which is soon to start in Merrill.

At the close of the session the ladies were entertained in the lodge hall of the Loyal Order of Moose, where refreshments were served.

Ingeborg Wilkerson was hostess to the Thimble club of the Neighbors of Woodcraft at her home at 1124 Monclair street on Wednesday, March the third, at eight o'clock in the evening. Mary McGoran was the assisting hostess. After the business meeting pinocchle was played, Stella Dryden holding high score, Mrs. Roy Boock the second, and the door prize going to Mrs. Balkman. After cards the hostesses served refreshments.

Gail Clapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Clapp of 2210 Garden avenue, will become the bride of Leo Woodruff, in a church ceremony to be read March fourteenth at the First Christian church.

TO WED SOON

SPRAGUE RIVER — Miss Ruth Seright was honored with a delightful bridal shower, Sunday, February the twenty-first, at the home of Mrs. C. C. Heidrick, with Mrs. D. C. Kircher and Mrs. Lewis Croly as hostesses. The house was decorated with narcissus and pink candles. Six tables were set and dessert served at five o'clock. Games were played, with Mrs. Byron Welch winning the award.

Miss Seright opened her many beautiful gifts. Those attending were Mrs. C. A. Fuller, Mrs. T. W. Zadow, Mrs. C. D. Ough, Mrs. Paul Eden, Mrs. William Tompkins, Mrs. Robert Passolt Sr., Mrs. Byron Welch, Mrs. Dewey Thurman, Mrs. Ivan Pankey, Mrs. B. E. Wolford, Mrs. Jack Nelson, Mrs. Grace Reynolds, Mrs. Ione Linzi, Mrs. Rollo Moore, Mrs. W. F. Grob, Mrs. John Goddard, Mrs. Owen Ludwick and Mrs. Charles Burroughs.

Miss Seright will marry Staff Sergeant Clifford Welch some time in March. Sergeant Welch is stationed in Alabama. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Welch of Sprague River.

GIRL SCOUT LEADER HONORED GUEST RECENTLY

SPRAGUE RIVER — Mrs. Joe Young, Girl Scout leader, was surprised February the twenty-fourth by the Girl Scouts, in honor of her birthday. The girls presented her with gifts. The Girl Scouts are Myra Chandler, Melda Chandler, Norma Brandenburg, Marine Brandenburg, Sally Zadow, Beulah Santerri, Joanne Fuller, Velma Lee Pool and Daisy Kridder.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Wylie were hosts to the Ladies Sewing club pinocchle party, Saturday evening, February the twenty-seventh. High score for ladies went to Mrs. Harley McWilliams and for men to Harley McWilliams. Low score for ladies went to Mrs. Galen Wilcox and for men to Byrd Tompkins.

Refreshments were served to the following, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bruner, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Galen Wilcox and son, Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Tompkins and son, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Harley McWilliams and Mrs. William Tompkins.

MIDLAND CLUB ENTERTAINED TUESDAY

MIDLAND—Mrs. J. B. Burnett entertained the Home Economics club at her home Tuesday afternoon. A business meeting was followed by cards and at "500" high score was held by Emma Lamb, second by Nellie Molschenbacher.

Guests were Mildred Largent, Coral Dolan, Erma Pienelli, Anna Sutton, Emma Lamb, Rosa Burnett, Muriel Folsom, Catherine Stewart, Angelo Malina, Nellie Molschenbacher, Amy Crapo, Gertrude Huff, Laura Taylor, Catherine Burnett, Anna Hickman, Pauline Stewart and the hostess, Mrs. Burnett, who received a handkerchief shower. The next meeting will be held April sixth at the home of Amy Crapo.

MALIN SCHOOL DRIVER RESIGNS

MALIN — Charles Kenyon, who since 1927, has piloted a school bus for the Malin schools, has resigned and this weekend is returning to his farm near Malin. With Mrs. Kenyon he has been responsible for care of the elementary school building, and in 16 years with 150,000 miles of driving to his credit, he has never had an accident nor injured passenger.

At the time he began his route, Klamath county boasted only two school buses. One was in use in the Malin area. He had at that time a 25-mile route. At present he makes two trips into the country each morning and evening. That was in the days of flocks of Model T cars and Kenyon says he had never driven a gear shift car until he handled the bus which was a streamlined vehicle for those days.

Shortly after he took the route, two small schools, Shasta View, north of Malin and Libby at the D. E. Alexander corner west of Malin were consolidated with the Malin district. Prior to that time students walked to school.

The school building contained 5 rooms in which eight grades were taught. Since that date five rooms have been added and the building modernized.

In 1936, Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon bought an 80-acre ranch engaging in the dairy business, but continued with their school duties. Now the sons in the family are scattered, the youngest one, Lowell, was recently called into service. Now the Kenyons will devote their entire time to farming. James Rodgers, janitor at the high school, will succeed Kenyon.

Honoring them, faculty members of both Malin schools gathered March 1 at the grade school, presenting the guests of honor with a picture. Present for the affair were Principal and Mrs. A. E. Street, Principal and Mrs. Joe LaClair, Mr. and Mrs. James Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Toffel, Mr. and Mrs. C. Kraft, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paygr, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Jelinek, Mrs. Claudia Cleveland, Miss Ann Dolezal and Miss Bertha Compton.

Lakeview Dentist Once Missing Now Reported Prisoner

LAKEVIEW, Ore. — Major Michael C. Sult, former Lakeview dentist, who was reported missing in action since May 7, 1942, is alive and a prisoner of war of the Japanese government in the Philippine islands, according to a telegram received last Wednesday at Eugene by Mrs. Sult. The last message Mrs. Sult received from her husband was from Bataan on April 7, 1942. Then on June 1 she was advised that he was missing in action since May 7. Nothing more was heard of him until the telegram arrived last week. While it is not pleasant to think of Major Sult as prisoner of war, it is good news to his family and his many friends here to know that he is alive.

New Pine Creek

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith and young son spent a few days visiting here from Tionesta, Calif., with Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Smith. They returned home Saturday morning.

Mrs. Eva Schamel, local restaurant operator, returned last Thursday evening from Bend, where she visited for a week with friends and relatives. While she was gone she purchased two thoroughbred buck rabbits for her pens. She says that rabbits are getting harder to get all the time. The pelts seem to be in big demand, as they are being used to line aviators' clothing.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen McGrew and children and Mr. and Mrs. Art Altenburg and daughter, came down from Prineville, for a week's visit with relatives here.

Robert Berle Mahan is the name of the new son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mahan, born February 26, at Woodland, Calif. This makes Mr. and Mrs. Earl Butler grandparents all over again.

Donald Bussey is confined to his bed with chicken pox. Kenneth Butler is home with the mumps. Susan Faris came home from school Monday afternoon indisposed with a headache and sore throat.

The Juveniles of the Neighbors of Woodcraft held a regular meeting in the KC hall Monday afternoon, March the first, at four o'clock. Following the business meeting, games were played and refreshments served, the committee in charge being Patsy Clark, Louise Barnhart and Margaret Redkey. For the next meeting, March the fifteenth, Dickie Weed, Philip Clark and Buddy Eberman will be in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Lynn Zimmerman of Seattle, former resident of this city, left Friday for her home and plans to visit a short time in Portland en route north.

NEWS OF THE THEATRES

Columbia's "You Were Never Lovelier" brings a new and even more beautiful Rita Hayworth to the Esquire theatre screen. Fred Astaire is co-starred in the tuneful Jerome Kern musical, which features Adolphe Menjou and Xavier Cugat and his orchestra.

ADORATION—Henry Fonda makes a touching love offering to Lucille Ball in RKO Radio's "The Big Street," produced by Damon Runyon from his famous story, "Little Pinks," the romance of an humble bus boy and a crippled but inconsiderate dancing girl. The picture opens today at the Pelican.

Bonita Granville and Tim Holt are the two principals in the story of a boy and girl who get entangled in a web of Nazism in "Hitler's Children." Currently breaking records at the Pine Tree.

Roy Rogers heads the big double bill at the Tower theatre Sunday in "Heart of the Golden West." The companion feature, "Texas to Bataan" features John King. Both are first run features.

Chiloquin Schools Change Hours Again

CHILOQUIN, Ore.— Because of the daylight saving time which was put in effect last year, the school schedule last winter was changed from 9 to 3:30 to 10 to 4:30.

This schedule eliminated the hazards of darkness during the early hours.

At present, with the lengthening days, the schedule has been changed to 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Keno

KENO—The Keno Irrigation district started its drainage pump for the first time this season. Powered by a 200 H. P. electric motor, it pumps 25,000 gallons of water a minute. B. E. Kerns is overseer of the plant.

Mrs. Tom Calmes left for San Francisco Wednesday. While there she will be a guest at the home of her father, Alfred Carr.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clark, formerly of Ashland, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Foster one evening this week. Clark, who is in the army air corps, was returning to his training camp after a furlough, which he had spent visiting relatives and friends in Ashland and vicinity. Both Mr. and Mrs. Clark are former classmates of Warren Foster at SOCE. Foster is also in the army service, in the signal corps. He is now located at Camp Young, Indio, Calif.

The Red Cross drive at Keno was begun this week. Several volunteer solicitors are calling on local families. The local quota is $200 and every effort will be made through the schools and other agencies to top this amount.

Bob Swanson, former student at Keno high school, visited school Wednesday morning. He is now attending school in Coquille.

Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Simmers went to Klamath Falls Wednesday. June Matchett, Lena Parsons and Mrs. Rogers served dinner in the cafeteria.

Jim Brown, home from the navy, and his brother, Howard Brown, visited school Tuesday.

Miss Edna Bloom went to Klamath Falls on business Saturday.

Jack Miller was absent from school with ear trouble the first of the week.

The Red Cross sewing group has been very active recently. The blue and brown material for dresses has been distributed among the workers. Most of the ladies are adding bright buttons and belts and doing saddle stitching on the collars. The group meets regularly on Thursdays.

Dorothy Wilcox has been released from the hospital and is recuperating at home.

Everett Hotchkiss returned Monday from a prolonged trip to New York, where he visited friends and relatives.

Kenneth Puckett spent last weekend in Portland.

Bob Grimes returned to school after a week's absence in Portland, where he entered the air corps as a flying cadet. He will remain to graduate and will leave for camp some time in May.

Sam McKeen and Kenneth Ramsey went to Klamath on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Zarusinski and Ray were in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tenny motored to Medford Tuesday evening. They report that the country on the other side shows evidence of an early spring.

Lena Parson and June Matchett rode into town with Mrs. Hoffman, Monday and Tuesday evenings.

H. C. Sharpe attended the principals' and coaches' meeting at the Pelican cafe Tuesday evening.

PLENTY BUSY

PITTSBURGH—The air raid wardens didn't protest when they found out why the lights were gleaming brightly in the home of Mrs. Elvira Kenneweg during a blackout.

An eight-pound daughter was born to Mrs. Kenneweg's daughter, Mrs. Bernice Abbott, 10 minutes before the blackout started. As no physician was present, Mrs. Kenneweg explained to the wardens she was "plenty busy" and needed all the light she could get.

MALIN SENIORS GRADUATE EARLIER

MALIN — The graduating class of the Malin high school will receive diplomas earlier this year than in many years past with the date for commencement exercises set for Thursday, May 6. Girls hold the limelight this year with eight girls and three boys to complete their work.

Social events and other pre-graduation activities will be perhaps more streamlined this year than before but otherwise the usual round of events are on the calendar.

"Moonlight Mood," theme of the junior-senior prom April 3 will start the end of the year affairs rolling. Baldy Evans' band will play and the party is invited. Dancing, according to the committee, will be from 9 p. m. until 1 a. m. Plans are also under way for a junior-senior banquet, possibly to be an event of the same evening.

Seniors will be permitted a sneak day too, but outside of that there is to be "no fooling around," according to Principal A. E. Street.

Time being made up by Saturday school and longer days of study comes out just even for the closing date, May 7. Two days of the month were lost last fall during the potato harvest.

Diplomas will be received by Rose Van Meter, Barbara Nihart, Margie Gant, Melba Holbrook, Blanche Spolek, Helen Smith, Ruby Rice, Della Martin, Norman Jacob, James Ottoman and Otto Derra.

Lakeview

It was learned in Lakeview this week that two local boys, Sgt. J. J. Supple of an armored tank division and Capt. Burt Frizzel of the field artillery, were on the honor guard for President Roosevelt during the recent historic Casablanca conference.

With $9000 left to go in the closing week of February bond sales, an intensive campaign was carried out during the last few days to bring Lake county again over the top. Lake county's quota for February was $33,000, and citizens over-subscribed this by $1075. Exclusive of series E bonds, February sales were series F, $3718 and tax series $100.80. There were no G bonds sold during the past month.

A 15-man advisory committee on western pine lumber was announced yesterday by the office of price administration. Among the Oregon men named was L. D. Ohlson of the Lakeview Lumber company. Members of the committee will assist and advise OPA in formulating price actions on western pine and associated species.
