

The Pelicans are tensely waiting for their meeting on the hardwood with the Eugene Axemen in Salem for hoop honors. The game is clocked for 3 p. m. and people wishing for the score may phone this office after 5 p. m. for the results.

BOB BARRY MATERIAL
A meeting with Red Sanders, an old timer in baseball history of Klamath Falls and the manager of Mecca Billiards, ended up in a very interesting confab on local color of Klamath's history in baseball.

Red kinda wondered where all of the gang had gone and that brought to his mind some vivid memories.

Hank Atkin . . . assistant fire chief in Klamath Falls . . . here was a gentleman and a real first baseman and a dandy hitter . . . Dr. Noel . . . local dentist. Doc was a smart ball player and a teams man, and he still loves the game.

Then there was Ed Clark who played with many local clubs. Ed is working for Copco down by Dunsmuir . . . Gunner Peterson was another swell catcher; Gunner is building defense plants up north . . . Andy Street the old under hand chucker, is principal of Malin high school. Andy was a good pitcher and was and still is a real fellow.

Jack Franey is the deputy sheriff . . . Red gave a few details on some embarrassing moments . . . about 20 years ago, Jack was with his room mate on a semi-pro ball club in Montana. They were walking along a dark street one night when some one fired a shot gun right near them. Jack's roomie had a couple of bad legs and was also a catcher and could run all day on a dime. Franey could do a hundred yard those days in ten seconds . . . They took off when the gun exploded in their ears . . . when Jack got home his roomie was in bed.

Another day Jack was with a club playing at a little town in Montana. All the money in Jack's town was bet. It was the 11th inning and no runs yet. Jack tripled in the 12th to drive home a run. The boys filled a couple ten gallon hats with money for him and Jack set them on the bench.

Last of the 12th the home club scored two runs. When Jack looked for his money, hats and all were gone.

Bob Barry, head of the big show at Camp Newell, would like to see these boys pitch in and help with the "equipment for the soldiers" drive which is to be held Sunday with the public invited.

Catholic Holds Hoop Tournament

EUGENE, March 11 (AP)—Finalists in the Catholic high school basketball league will battle for the state title at Mount Angel Sunday, Father Francis P. Leipzig, tournament chairman, said today.

Sacred Heart of Klamath Falls and Sacred Heart of Tillamook have qualified as B class entries.

A play-off this week between Central Catholic of Portland, Columbia Prep and St. Marys of The Dalles will determine one of the A class finalists. St. Marys of Eugene and Sacred Heart of Salem will fight it out here tomorrow night for the other position.

Nine Swimmers to Receive Varsity Letters by Ducks

EUGENE, March 11 (AP)—Nine swimmers have been recommended varsity letters by University of Oregon coach, Mike Hoyman. Members of the Oregon Tank team that won three of four dual meets and placed second in the northern division championships who will receive varsity awards are: Dick Allen and Chuck Nelson, both of Portland; Dick Smith, Jim Gautier and Ralph Huestis, all of Eugene; Bob Prowell, Parkdale; Herb Hoffman, Salem; Tom Houston, Burlingame, Calif.; Jack McAuliffe, Compton, Calif.

Huskies Approved For Trip

Faculty Approves for Washington's Entry In Hoop Race Back East

SEATTLE, March 11 (AP)—Just over the horizon for the University of Washington Huskies—if they have what it takes to beat Southern California—is a chance to play in the western national intercollegiate basketball tournament at Kansas City March 26-27.

The faculty athletic committee yesterday approved Washington's entry in the tournament provided the Huskies defeat the USC Trojans in the Pacific Coast conference two-out-of-three play-off series opening here tomorrow night.

With this opportunity for national fame in mind, Husky supporters concentrated their attention on Bill Morris and his ailing knee, hoping it would be sufficiently knit since last Saturday to carry the star guard through the whirlwind pace of a championship series.

Morris took his first workout yesterday and distinctly favored the hurt knee, although it didn't seem to bother him in straightaway running.

U. S. Wants Baseball Despite War

SPOKANE, March 11 (AP)—America wants to enjoy its national game despite the war, a survey of sentiment on the continuation of professional baseball conducted by the Athletic Roundtable would seem to show.

The ART has reached 12,000 so far, with more than 95 per cent voting a loud "aye" for continuance. Particularly fervent are service men. Mass response favoring pro-baseball has come from the Pasco naval air station and the Hastings, Neb., ammunition depot.

Col. George S. Clarke, Spokane, one of the last men to get safely off Bataan, wrote from Atlanta Ga., expressing hope the game would continue.

Among other supporters was Bill Zmrzal, former public golf links performer now blind, who said he could readily understand the playing of baseball as a morale builder inasmuch as he finds it heartening to follow and play golf since he lost his eyesight.

Blind Man Grapples With Best

PHILADELPHIA, March 11 (AP)—The University of Pennsylvania's sightless Samson—a blind man who'd rather wrestle than eat—enters the tournament of champions tomorrow—for the first big test of his so-far sensational career.

Blind Fred Barkovitch, undefeated in 55 consecutive scholastic and intercollegiate bouts, moves into the two-day, 39th annual eastern intercollegiate wrestling tournament, to grapple with the best men from nine big-time colleges and try to prove that Ex-Star Bob Allman, now a Philadelphia lawyer, isn't the only Penn man who can grapple and win in the eastern without the help of vision.

Barkovitch, a 128-pounder who won 48 at the Overbrook school for the blind and seven in this, his first collegiate season, had weak vision at birth. Then, when he was an innocent bystander in a stone fight during his childhood in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., his right eye was put out by a stone. He still can see very dimly from the left, but has to have his lessons read to him. Despite his handicap, he hopes to be a physical instructor and wrestling coach.

Tully Marshall, Screen Actor, Dies At Suburban Home

HOLLYWOOD, March 11 (AP)—Tully Marshall, 79, screen character actor, died early today at his home in suburban Encino. Marshall, his physician said, had been confined to bed for 10 days. He was attended by his wife, Mrs. Marian Marshall. The veteran actor left the stage in 1916 to enter motion pictures under the guidance of D. W. Griffith.
