meaning that somehow they won't have to file returns and make payments on March 15. The sad truth is that nothing has happened to change the situation. No congressional action could alter it now, so far as the March 15 filing is concerned. Bill Owsley, deputy collector of internal revenue here, emphasized that again

EPLEY today, stating that every taxpayer is required to file a return and make least a quarterly payment on March 15which, unhappy friends, is next Monday.

Recent news items regarding an extension of time in rare cases, Mr. Owsley said, have to do with those extraordinary instances in which taxpayers are unable to prepare and file a return by March 15, for some such exceptional and highly legitimate reason as serious illness,

And in those cases, only the collector of internal revenue for this district can grant the extension. He is James W. Maloney, Portland, and forms are available for application at the local office. The conditions under which an extension can be granted are so exceptional, said Mr. Owsley, that the provision doesn't mean a thing to the ordinary taxpayer.

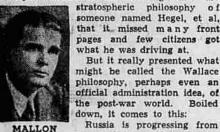

That's the story from the best local authority. Best thing for all of us to do is to get the return filed. Once that first payment is off our chests, we'll feel better.

Taxpayers have until the close of business on March 15 to file returns. Any return, in an envelope postmarked March 15, is not delinquent. But if the postmark is March 16, the filing is delinquent. That's an important detail. To help out locally, the revenue office in the federal building will be open until midnight on March 15 to accept returns.

News Behind the News By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, March 12 - Vice President Wallace's erudite speech to the Ohio Wesleyan conference flew so high into the stratospheric philosophy of that it missed many front pages and few citizens got what he was driving at. But it really presented what might be called the Wallace philosophy, perhaps even an official administration idea, of the post-war world. Boiled down, it comes to this: Russia is progressing from communism toward democracy. Our democracy is progressing in the opposite direction toward communism. We should meet at a place called "X"-and on that spot, a post war world should be built.

Now, do not immediately conclude that this is a strained simplification of the Wallace philosophy, or that it is altogether unreason-able. It is true, for instance, that Stalin has been working away from Marxian communism. The Russian system today is more of a socialist than a communist state.

On the other hand, the New Deal has proudly proclaimed its mild advance from democracy, as we used to know it, toward socialism (Tennessee valley authority and various government enterprises of ownership and operation, and, to a lesser degree, the collectivist socialist philosophy of the taxation policies, AAA, NYA, social security, etc.)

Nor can there be any question about Mr.

March 12, 1943

Back in the old days, when this valley was just cutting its eye teeth on new emigrants, the dances were held in homes up and down the valley. But the crowds increased and of later years the big affair has been held in the community hall in Mer-rill where again this year sponsors of the dance hope to greet young and old.

The dance is non profit and those who have kept alive in their minds memories of those first dances are inviting every-one to come. Dancing will be from 10 until 3 if your feet hold out that long and luncheon will be served in the Legion dining room around midnight by the Altar society of St. Augustine's church. Pappy Gordon's dance band will furnish the music.
