SEWING UNIT HAS POTLUCK LUNCH

The Turner Center sewing unit met for their usual meeting at the home of Mrs. R. A. Johnston on Thursday, March 11. A potluck lunch was enjoyed at noon.

During February and March this group, aided by some of the Keno ladies, has cut and made up 224 yards of material into 62 women's dresses. Most of the cutting has been done by Mrs. Guy Moore and Mrs. Ross Simmers of Keno.

They have been meeting and sewing every week at the different members' homes, and many have worked between times on these garments.

Those present at the Johnston home were Zylphia Herrick, Anna Zaroski, Bea Gallasp, Gladys Pritchard, Clara Kerns, Mable Huskinson, Ruth Parsons, Emma Viola Dow, Ellamie Dow, Grace Ramsey, Ruth Helderer, Virgie Denison, Edna Lilly, Cleona Hurlbut, Esther Johnston and Gussie Frain.

The next meeting will be held next Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Dow. Potluck lunch at noon.

Forest Service Man Transferred To Guayule Project

LAKEVIEW, Ore. (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Sim E. Jarvi left late last week for Los Angeles, where Jarvi has been transferred to the guayule rubber project under the supervision of the United States forest service. Jarvi has been associated with the Fremont National forest in Lakeview for the last few years as administrative assistant.

Keno

Bobo, the magician, and Mrs. Bobo gave a most entertaining performance on Wednesday morning, March 10. The entire school attended and enjoyed the usual quota of sleight-of-hand tricks in a routine, especially suited to younger groups. On Friday morning the regular singing assembly was held. Preceding the music, Mr. Sharpe announced that school would take up fifteen minutes earlier with forty-five minutes for lunch. From now on no excuses will be accepted except for illness. The modified flag salute using only the hand over the heart, as adopted by congress last year, was given by Betty House.

Art Cooper, who is resigning soon as bus driver to go to work in the woods, will be succeeded by Mrs. Tom Tenney of Weyerhaeuser camp, who is teaching math and science.

Mrs. Henderson, county music supervisor, visited school Thursday morning. All the glee clubs were reviewed, separately and in unison, and plans were made for commencement music.

Alfred Burton and Ben Kerns are busy overhauling the stage scenery. The student body bought the material which was sewed by Miss Bloom and is being sized and kalsomined this week. Following the play this equipment will be stored carefully so as to remain permanent.

Merrill Boy Home On Furlough From Alaska Engineers

Pvt. Lloyd C. Thomas, son of Mrs. Lillian Thomas of Merrill, is home on furlough from the Yukon, where he is with the engineer's division of the army working on the Alcan highway. On his way home Pvt. Thomas stopped a few days in Portland visiting with his fiancée, Carvel Gibson, and her parents. Miss Gibson came to Merrill to be with him during his furlough, and is a guest of his mother.

Several parties have been held for him during the week. Saturday evening he was guest at a dinner party, the guests including Miss Gibson, Pvt. Thomas, John Guimond, W. Gleim, Mr. and Mrs. S. Tedrick and Mrs. Lillian Thomas.

Sunday Mrs. Thomas entertained at dinner for some of their friends, the guests including Mr. and Mrs. George Flowers and daughter, Georgia Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Frances Flowers and son, Frank, all of Midland, Miss Gibson and Pvt. Thomas.

Rationing Forces Lakeview Coffee Shop From Business

LAKEVIEW, Ore. (Special)—Due to the food rationing now in effect and the impending rationing of meats and butter, it was announced here that the Coffee Shop, in connection with Hotel Lakeview, would discontinue meals after the first of the month. Announcements were made at both the Rotary and Lions clubs that after April 1 the management could no longer serve these organizations at their weekly meetings. What action is to be taken by these two organizations will be determined at directors' meetings in the next few days.

Forgotten Cache Gives Cemetery Fund $455.89

A forgotten cache of $455.89 was brought to light at Monday night's city council meeting, and today the Linkville cemetery funds are just that much richer. The money comes from the estate of the late Rufus Moore, pioneer business man. Upon his death, he left $1000 for the Linkville cemetery, it was recalled by Mrs. Ruth Bathiany, city treasurer.

She remembered that Ed W. Vannice, former Klamath business man now living in Mt. Vernon, Wash., was a member of the association, and she wrote to him. Mrs. Hazel Van Ripper and E. A. Dunham were other members.

Vannice came here this week, the group got together. It was decided to turn the money over to the city to be used for the cemetery in accordance with Mr. Moore's wishes.
