PIONEER NEW PINE CREEK MAN DIES

At the age of 73, George Harry Aldridge, well-known character in community activities here since the beginning of the century, died around 4 o'clock last Monday afternoon in the Lakeview hospital after a brief illness.

Harry was born February 23, 1870 near Woodlands Iren Bridge, Shropshire, England where he lived until he was 18 years old. Then securing a steership ticket on a steamer he sailed for Canada where he lived for one year, working on a ranch for $10 per month. He came to Portland, Oregon, and caught a ride with ranchers who were bringing a harvester to Summer Lake in 1899. There he worked on several ranches and finally went into the sheep business on shares. Later his brother Herb joined him and they bought a ranch, going into the sheep business on a larger partnership basis.

He became acquainted with Eva Smith whom he married in 1897. Together they lived at Summer Lake until 1902 when Harry purchased his present ranch from Robert Kelly and moved his family to New Pine Creek.

Harry was a great lover of music and played the accordion by ear. For years he was floor manager at Wendt's hall and called germinas, Virginia Reels and square dances. In connection with his ranch where he specialized in thoroughbred New Hampshire sheep, he clerked at the H. M. Fleming store for over 25 years, until four years ago when he bought the store stock and became full proprietor. He renamed the store the State Line grocery.

Harry is survived by his wife Eva, two sons, Delbert and Cecil and one daughter, Lena Smith of Napa, Calif., and six grandchildren, and by his brother Herb of Ustick, Idaho.

Rhea Dunn has resigned his position as assistant superintendent for the Ewauna Logging company. As yet no one has been named to take his place.

Mrs. E. McMurren and daughter, Phyllis Ann, have gone to Glendale, Ore., to visit Mrs. Bob Jones. Mrs. Jones is the former Maxine McMurren.

Ruth Davis entertained the Pinochle club this week with a luncheon. Vera Real was a guest of the club. Cards were played in the afternoon with Peggy Barnes getting high score.

Rex Eastman spent a few days last week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Davis, Mary Hertzog, Vera Real and Mrs. Peggy Barnes and son, motored to Klamath Falls Friday. Mrs. Barnes remained at Olene for the weekend visiting at the Marion Barnes' home.

Gene Olson has returned to Eugene to continue his studies at the University of Oregon. Olson has been visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Olson for the past few weeks.

Newcomers to Quartz mountain are Mr. and Mrs. Turpin and son. They came from Medford, Ore., and Turpin is to be employed by the Ewauna Logging company.

Word has been received that LeRoy Real has been promoted to the rank of private first class. Real is stationed at Camp Adair, Ore., and has just completed his basic training.

Roy McKaib was a visitor in Quartz mountain last week to arrange for the removal of the equipment of the Sam Orino Construction company. Sam Orino has six miles of highway on the Klamath Falls-Lakeview highway under construction and does not plan to complete it this year.

Lt. Albert Smith Missing In Action

CASCADE SUMMIT—Word has just been received that Lieutenant Albert Smith, nephew of R. L. Porier, is reported missing in action in northern Africa. Lieutenant Smith is a graduate of Oregon State college where he received his military training.

The family is hoping that he is a prisoner of war.

A baby boy was born to PFC and Mrs. Rodney Cochran at the Lakeview hospital on March 13. This makes the fifth generation living on the mother's side of the family. Rodney arrived home on furlough the same day as the birth of his child.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dawson and daughter, and Marjorie Hickerson of Alturas were weekend visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dick and Mr. and Mrs. Wait Cambron and family.

Word has been received by Mrs. Faye Keller through her daughter Bernice, that Margaret Green has joined the Spars of the coast guard and is leaving for New York on March 19. She is the daughter of Bill Green of Lakeview.

Lee Perdue of Alturas has purchased the local mail Star route from Mrs. Charlie Neil. He plans to combine a freight service with the mail job as soon as final arrangements can be made. Carroll "Pep" Pepperdine, who will be in the marines March 29, is temporarily running the stage for Mrs. Neil and Mr. Perdue until the transfer is completed.

Cliff Turpin had the misfortune of breaking his right thumb in two places last Saturday afternoon while doing some repair work on his car.

Mrs. Charlie Cook was in the hospital Monday and Tuesday while a menacing growth was removed from under her arm.

Leroy Daniels is still limping with his foot which he hurt when a horse fell with him March 2. He is working for Raymond Fisher and lives with his family on the old Follette place. Mr. Daniels also had a siege of the mumps along with his injured foot.

The New Pine Creek Pinochle club met at the home of Mrs. Faye Keller last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Edna Ayres acting as hostess. Mrs. Alpha Smith won high prize and Mrs. Ethyl Cudiff low. Delicious chicken salad was served for refreshments with wafers and coffee.

A stork shower was held for

Mrs. Lola Turpin at the home of Mrs. Cora Cook last Friday afternoon. Thirteen adults and seven children were present. Many nice and useful gifts were received. Jello, whip cream, cookies and punch was served for dessert.

The 4-H Sewing club met last Saturday with Susan Faris. Five children and Mrs. Martin Hamersley were present. Ice cream and cookies were served for refreshments.

The Needle club met at the home of Mrs. Sadie Keller last Saturday afternoon with Leola Lee acting as hostess.

Mrs. Lee Bernard entertained at a pinochle party last Saturday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Snider, Hershel Fleming, Mrs. Bessie Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin L. Faris and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard. Mr. Faris won high score, a jar of jam, and Mrs. Bessie Woods won low prize, a lovely picture of a Scotty dog. Bessie is fond of dogs so the gift was quite appropriate. A particularly tasty midnight lunch of creamed chicken, shamrock salad, olives, potato chips, refrigerator rolls, butter, whipped cream sherbet and coffee was served.
