

Striking Crane Men Return to Work in Bethlehem Yards

BALTIMORE, March 18 (AP)—Striking men crane operators in the big Bethlehem-Fairchild shipyards' fabricating shop went back to work a second time at the behest of their union, pending an attempt to settle by negotiation differences arising from the employment of women operators. The company produces Liberty ships.

Officials of local 43, Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America (CIO), who said the walkouts yesterday and today were not sanctioned, added they hoped to keep the at their jobs.

Japanese-American Approved by Army As Combat Team

WASHINGTON, March 17 (AP)—A number of Japanese-American citizens of Japanese ancestry, officials disclosed today. Induction of these men into the army may have started, they said, but there are no reports yet that any of them actually are in uniform. However, large numbers have applied for service with the combat team, and the applications are being reviewed as rapidly as possible.
