

REFRIGERATORS WILL BE MADE FOR CIVILIANS

WASHINGTON, March 19 (AP)—WPB Chairman Donald M. Nelson said today some civilian items whose production has been halted "for the duration" would be brought back into production to supply essential civilian needs.

Household refrigerators probably will be among the items, Nelson told a press conference, because the food shortage demands additional refrigeration facilities. The war production board is reviewing the whole field of consumer goods with manufacturers and sellers, he added, to learn which other items are most urgently needed.

"We believe it is important that the things which are essential to a sound but lean civilian economy be provided," the WPB chief said. "Added emphasis has to be given to the production of things which contribute to civilian health, communication and transportation. We are studying to find the proper methods of providing those things."

As part of its program, WPB expects to strengthen its office of civilian supply and make it "a strong claimant for the needs of the civilian economy," Nelson said.

He described as untrue, however, reports that WPB had offered the directorship of the civilian supply office either to Willard Thorp, trustee of the Associated Gas and Electric company, or Emil Schram, president of the New York stock exchange.

SENATE APPROVES SELLING OF WHEAT

WASHINGTON, March 19 (AP)—Legislation to permit the sale of 100,000,000 bushels of government-held wheat to be used as feed by livestock, poultry and milk producers was passed today by the senate and sent to the White House.

Not a protest was raised when Senator Smith (D-S. C.) asked unanimous consent for consideration of the legislation and Sen. McNary (R-Ore.), the minority leader, joined in the request for immediate passage.

A reported crisis in the livestock, poultry and dairy industries precipitated the quick action.

Test of a Good Faller Proved by Two Bend Loggers

BEND, March 19 (AP)—Harry Fuller and Fred Campbell proved the old woods adage that a good faller can drive a stake with the trunk of a falling tree.

They felled a big pine tree which had become unsafe in a residential block. They had to lay it down between a tavern and the residence of Dr. J. C. Vandervert with a 10-15-foot margin for error.

After taking off the heaviest branches they felled the big pine without so much as brushing either structure.

SLIGHT EXAGGERATION

VANCOUVER, Wash., March 19 (AP)—Frank McManus and 150 other big-hearted shipyard guards at Kaiser yard here should have remembered what Mark Twain said about slight exaggeration. They took up a collection for the widow of Guard Ernest Boock, who, somebody said, had died of pneumonia. McManus, it was revealed today, was counting the $160 cash in a pleasant glow of good-deed-done feeling a couple of nights ago when Boock walked in, recovered and ready for duty.

WASHINGTON, March 19 (AP)—Lieutenant General Henry H. Arnold, commander of the Army air forces, was nominated by President Roosevelt today for promotion to the rank of full general.

Arnold holds the permanent rank of major general, and he will rank as a full general temporarily, during the period of the war.

KEEP 'EM ROLLIN'

EFFINGHAM, Ill. (AP)—Burglars who broke into Effingham high school cracked the safe and stole money and war stamps, but they missed the big loot—the school's "Jeep fund."

Students had collected $600 to buy a Jeep for the army, then matched their patriotism with prudence, put the money in the bank.

Being broke is no joke—yet it's something to write home about.

Lust to "Kill and Kill" Kindled in Allied Fliers

PORTLAND, March 19 (AP)—The lust to "kill and kill and kill" has been kindled in American aviators in Africa. Lt. William R. Young, Portland flier who was cited for bravery after the Kasserine pass battle, wrote his mother.

"Tonight not all of us are returned to await a new day," he wrote his mother, Mrs. Charles Fletcher, "but by God's right there are a hundred filthy Germans for each of us. We did a good job today. I find myself cold with the urge to kill and kill and kill. . . Nothing more important."

Elsewhere the flier wrote: "Perhaps a bullet or a piece of flak has my name on it, and some German will laugh as my plane falls, but by the skill I am rapidly acquiring, his kind will have paid tenfold for my death."

OSC Prexy Pleased With Albany as Laboratory Site

CORVALLIS, March 19 (AP)—President A. L. Strand and other officials at Oregon State college expressed gratification today at the selection of the old Albany college site as the location for the new U. S. Bureau of Mines laboratory. Proximity of the college with its engineering laboratories and its technical library is known to have been an important factor in the selection.

Medals Authorized For Hurricane Heros

VICTORIA, Tex., March 19 (AP)—President Roosevelt has authorized the awarding of the Soldier's Medal to 11 volunteers who remained on Matagorda island last August to brave the fury of a hurricane and guard government property.

Tentative plans call for the medals to be presented to Major Curtis W. Handley and 10 enlisted men next Saturday on the island.

The youth of the nation are doing a grand job in the fighting forces, and I think today the one question we have got to ask ourselves is: Are we going to be worthy of those boys who are out there fighting.—WPB Chairman Donald M. Nelson.

S. marshals here Thursday. City Police Inspector Hobart Kiggins declared today.

U. S. Bombers Hit Naples Twice With Unobserved Results

CAIRO, March 19 (AP)—Liberator bombers of the ninth United States air force attacked Naples twice yesterday, once during daylight and again after darkness fell, an American communiqué announced today.

"Results of both attacks were unobserved due to solid cloud cover over the target," the war bulletin said.

(The Italian high command said "enemy planes dropped bombs on the outskirts and on the neighborhood of Naples and in Syracuse province without causing casualties.")
