RAIL STOCKS REGAIN THEIR EQUILIBRIUM

NEW YORK, March 20 (AP)—Rail stocks regained their equilibrium in today's market, after a further early decline, and selling dried up appreciably elsewhere.
Friday's setback was extended by fractions to a point or more at the opening but offerings were notably slack and prices soon began to stiffen in most categories.
It was one of the slowest sessions of the year to date, transfers running to around 500,000 shares.
Bonds and commodities were a trifle uneven.
