ART EXHIBIT, PROGRAM AT FREMONT PTA

The March meeting of Fre-mont PTA is being held Thurs-day afternoon, March 25, this month, instead of the usual date, and inasmuch as an excellent program will be presented, as well as an interesting art exhibit, it is hoped that a large number of parents and friends will at-tend.

There will also be election of officers for the ensuing year, acofficers for the ensuing year, according to Mrs. George Blanes, president. A meeting of the executive board is scheduled for ecutive board is scheduled for most of them. The frosh the secutive are still in the lead art room on the second floor of Fremont.

The program will consist of the following:

Piano solo: "The Elf and the Fairy," Mollie Cashin.

Beginners' band: "Choral," "Duet," "In the Swing Waltz," "Choral Waltz," "Waltzing the Scale," directed by Lillie Darby. A number by Camp Fire Girls and Bluebirds.

Election of officers.
Tea will be served by mothers of rooms 9 and 12, under the direction of Mrs. Henrietta Clem ens and Orpha Hudson.

VICTORY CONCERT BOOSTS BOND SALE

A "Victory concert" designed to boost the sales of war stamps and bonds here will be held at the high school auditorium on April 23, it was announced Tuesday by Andrew Loney, director of public school music. All high school music groups will participate in this event, in-cluding the string orchestra, the girls' glee club, the mixed chorus and the band.

Admission will be the purchase of at least two 25-cent war stamps, or the purchase of any denomination of bonds, at the auditorium door.

Further arrangements for the evening concert, expected to be one of the outstanding music events of the spring, will be announced later.

FEED SHORTAGE THREATENS MEAT Seven persons died from pneumonia. Other causes of death in the first month of the year here:

PORTLAND, Ore., March 23
(P)—A feed shortage and a late spring in the Pacific northwest threatened today to cut into the United States' already pinched meat supply.

Cancer and tumors, 2; apoplexy, 2; heart disease, 5; digestive diseases, 2; nephritis, 2; miscellaneous, 4. The total for the month was 28.

The health officer's report of communicable diseases for the week ending March 13 shows, in Viewella March 13 shows, Stockmen cannot send cattle and sheep out to graze for grass is not growing, except on shelt-ered ranges. Yet hay supplies, used to feed the stock through winter, are almost exhausted.

Agriculture experts report sheepmen are suffering heavy losses from early lambing, that a few cattlemen are hard hit, but that the situation is not hopeless.

The experts said the next three weeks will determine the outcome. If the cold weather continues, losses will mount. Cattle-men from Idaho, southern and eastern Oregon predicted at mar-ket here that even some range steers would starve.

OPA Rule Violated By Service Charge On Radio Tube Sale

PORTLAND, March 23 (R)—
Stores and repair shops which compel customers to bring in their radios and pay a service charge as a condition for the sale of tubes violate price regulations unless that practice was

We must not return to the in- on the west side Tule lake road equities, the insecurity, the fears of the past, but should move forward to the promise of the future.—President Roosevelt.

When in Medford HOTEL HOLLAND Thoroughly Modern Joe and Anne Earley Proprietors

HIGH SCHOOL

News Notes and Comment

Are you talented? Can you sing, dance, play a musical in-strument or entertain in any way? If you can and you are a student of KUHS, meet in the auditorum, Thursday, March 25, at 4:05, if you want to be in the junior class amateur show. The date of this show has not as yet been revealed. Prizes will be given for the best performers. This annual performance has usually been a great success, so if you possibly can, do your part to help.

cutive board is scheduled for 1:30 o'clock, followed by the regular meeting at 2:30 o'clock in the auditorium.

The art exhibit, arranged by Mrs. Jeanette Brown, instructor, will consist of the year's work of the art classes of Junior high and KUHS, and will be in the 100.

The junior "sweethearts" are 1:30 o'clock in for most of them. The frosh beauties are still in the lead with 17,670 votes. They are Winifred Towne, 1875; Alyce Wells, 6910; Lois Cada, 2390; Sally Mueller, 6315; Grace Johnson, 80, and Virginia Granger, 100.

The junior "sweethearts" are next in lead with 7832 votes altogether. Individually they are: Lettie Linman, 2032; Lois Pence,

Beginners' string class:

"Spring Is Here," "Merrily We
Roll Along," "Now the Day Is Over," Mary Lou Case, accompanist, directed by Lillie Darby.
Violin solo: "Merry Widow
Waltz," Teddy Larsen, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Larsen.
Plane solo: "The Elf and the Plane solo: "The Elf and the
The sophs come in last with

The sophs come in last with 1350 votes for their pretties. They are Shirley Martin, 260; Betty Larvick, 200; Vivian Dirs-chl, 600, and Beverly Bailey,

With all votes combined into one great cause, KUHS has $330.62 in war stamps and bonds.

The winner and her mother are to have all expenses paid to attend the christening and launching of a ship in the Kaiser shipyards in Portland.

Periods were shortened yesterday for an assembly. Ralph "Baldy" Foster presented a basketball to Jim Bocchi, to be au-tographed by the team. "Slim" Jim Bocchi then gave the state trophy to George Proctor, student body president. Speaker Lee Smith told the students that the champs were invited to a banquet to be held in the near future. John Houston led the students in a yell.

A Victory dance was held after the assembly, in which Robert Mann was found to be quite a dancer. I think that is a new step, Robert! Or should I say a whole new dance?

PNEUMONIA LEADS IN DEATH CAUSES

Pneumonia took more lives in Klamath county in January than any other cause of death, the state health officer reported in a bulletin received Monday.

Tuberculosis, 2; syphilis, 1; cancer and tumors, 2; apoplexy,

in Klamath county:

Measles, 27; pneumonia, 1; chicken pox, 1; mumps, 3; syph-

Seditionist Held in Washington After Escape From Fort

SEATTLE, March 23 (A)-The Seattle Times said today it was informed that military authorities in Washington, D. C., were holding Joseph A. Poli, 22, for-mer army lieutenant from San Francisco, who had surrendered after escaping from Fort Lewis Wash., January 12. Poli had been in custody at Fort Lewis pending trial on sedition accusations.

Evacuees Moved From Jail Here

Two Japanese evacuees, held in the county jail for the last week, were removed Monday by WRA authorities to the WRA settlement at Tule lake, Sheriff Lloyd Low said.

WRA officials have moved lations unless that practice was in vogue during March of last jail here for temporary detention. Most of those who were held here are now under guard held here are now under guard in the old Tulelake CCC camp

Always read the classified ads

LEARN THE TRUTH ABOUT BOWEL WORMS

Local Navy Office Can Still Enlist Men in Seabees

It has been noted that a few to Portland to apply for enlist- had they gone at their own ex- ice. Full instructions as to necment. It is pointed out that pense. Applications are being essary steps to be taken to get men applying at the navy re-cruiting sub-station in the post-age and those over 38. into this branch can be had by men, not in draft age, desiring and enlisted there in the same are still being taken for the needed, it was said.

office building, will be sent to Portland at government expense and enlisted there in the same are still being taken (18-38)

age and those over 38.

Men with construction trades station in the PO building.

Many construction trades are

Tots Believed Lost

near their homes on Ninth street, were picked up by a good hearted woman who thought they were lost. City police re-Two three-year-olds, playing to enlist in the navy have gone rate they would have received Seabees through selective serv- Woman Picks Up Two ceived a call from a local pool hall, recognized the tots and took them home. All this happened before

MONTGOMERY WARD

14.98

A shelland-type all wool in nude or soft pastels. Wards styles are so right for all occasions—and for seasons to come! Whether I want a Chesterfield, a boy coat or a fitted style, I know I can choose from many. They're all here in sizes 12 to 20.

See our other fine casuals at only 19.98

I WANT A SHEER RAYON I)

CAN WEAR EVERYWHERE

A classic navy and white . . . an easy to wear shirtwalst prettied up for Easter . . . or a frilly pastel. Whatever type I want, I'll find it at Wards among their budget rayon romaines, rayon crepes, rayon jerseys. And best of all, I won't have to spend more than 4.981 Sizes 9 to 15, 12 to 30 and 38 to 44.

Many other dressy rayons for just-7.98

I WANT A FRIVOLOUS HAT FOR

MY PRACTICAL CLOTHES

Perhaps a dressy sallor . . . a becoming calot . . . or a flattering forward-tilt brim. Wards have such gay styles for such a small price. ws, beitings, braids in all colors easily afford two-a dressy hat and a casuall

I WANT A HANDBAG TO GO

WITH EVERYTHING! 1.69

And I know I'll find it in Wards wonderful new Spring collection! They have lots of simulated leathers, simple but effectively draped. They have smart fabric bags, too, in dressy rayons er sporty cottons. All shapes and sizes . . . in a choice of color that's truly amazing todayl

AND CLASSIC GLOVES FOR THE

FINISHING TOUCH! 69c-1.00

I honestly expected to pay twice as much for my new gloves this Spring . . . but here are the neat slip-ons I want for so much less at Words! Why, at this price I can afford one pair in white and one in a costume color! Fine rayon er cotton fabrics, ell washable. Sizes 6 to 81/2

Pontgomery Ward

Pine at Ninth

Telephone 3188