

NEW YORK, March 23 (P)— The appointment of Tad Wie-man, Princeton football coach, man, Princeton football coach, as civilian director of physical training for the army's specialized training program doesn't mean that the army has changed its attitude toward big-time football... Just look at Princeton's record since the Fritz Crisler Princeton won't hire a record since the Fritz Crisier era . . . Princeton won't hire a replacement for Tad until the prospects for next fall are clarified, but there's still a pretty good candidate on hand in Harry Mahnken, whose 150-pound teams have been practically unbestable . And, speaking of coaches, don't be surprised if Dutch Clark, who found it quite a task to resign his Cleveland job, turns up as assistant to Gus Dorais of the Detroit Lions.
