

City Briefs

Arrive Here—Sgt. James J. Lyle, U. S. army air corps, arrived here Tuesday from Jacksonville, Fla., to spend an 18-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Ruby Lyle of Hillside hospital. Sgt. Lyle is a Link Trainer instructor at the Jacksonville air base where he will return after his visit here. Sgt. Lyle flew part of the way, the remainder of the trip home made by train. This is his first visit in Klamath Falls in nine months. Also here with her mother is Mrs. Howard Davis, (Alice Lyle), and young son, "Buddy." Mrs. Davis, whose husband is now in the engineering department at Lockheed Aircraft, Glendale, Calif., flew to Medford and was met there by Mrs. Lyle.

Accepts Position—Betty Lee Smith, who has been employed in the war savings department of the First National bank, has accepted a position with Groesbeck and Maxwell, attorneys. Jean Acteson is now at the war savings desk.

In Alturas—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ward spent Tuesday in Alturas on business, returning that night.
