DALLAS, Tex., March 26 (AP)—The government has undertaken a policy of shipping under-employed farm workers to sections where they can be employed full-time, the farm security administration announced today.

HIGH SCHOOL

News Notes and Comment

The typing classes at the high school are typing 6000 envelopes for the "Buy a Bond—Sell a Bond" campaign. The names and addresses for the envelopes are taken from the entire telephone directory. The people to whom the letters are sent are asked to buy a bond and then sell a bond to a friend or a relative. The money brought in for this drive will buy a sub-chaser. A. M. Collier, chairman of the Klamath County War Bond staff, is the head of this drive. So if you possibly can—save up some more dough and "Buy a Bond—and Sell a Bond! Other cities have been buying bombers, jeeps, tanks and such things. Wouldn't it make a Klamathite proud to live in a city that has bought a sub-chaser for Uncle Sam? Let's all do our part to help.

Today at noon there was a meeting for all girls interested in cosmetics. A national representative from the Charles of the Ritz company demonstrated.

"Sweethearts of KUHS" are really chalking up some high votes. The senior girls are still ahead. Joanne Hamilton has passed Bettie Hopkins' number and gone up to 28,875. Bettie Hopkins has 25,155. Dorothy Davis 15,310, Wanda Shaw 15,150, Betty Lea Daily 10, Joanne Siemens 10, and Dean Hamilton 10.

What's the matter with the juniors? Their "sweethearts" votes have remained almost the same for about two days. Come on juniors, show 'em what you can do! Roberta Tucker has 3750, Lettie Linman 2035, Betty McKinney 2000, and Lois Pierce 650.

The sophs have risen fairly in the last day. Vivian Dirschel is ahead with 2200 votes, Dorothy O'Malley 1470, Beverly Bailey 350, Shirley Martin 260, and Betty Larvick 200.

The frosh have fallen down on the job a little, too. At the beginning of the contest they were in the lead. Don't give up now, frosh. Let's get that sub-chaser! Sally Mueller is still ahead with 12,915 votes, Lois Cada 9400, Alyce Wells 8160, Winifred Towne 1875, Grace Johnson 130, and Virginia Granger 100.

A plea for volunteer help for Saturday morning was issued by Andrew Collier, chairman of war savings bond committee of the Civilian Defense council Friday.

Ten feet of snow, considerably more than is normal for this time, lies on the ground at Diamond lake, according to N. B. Drew and Jack Tavenor, Klamath Falls men who made the 44-mile ski trip into the lake and back this week.

Meat Packing Men Walkout in Protest Over Piecework Plan

SPOKANE, March 26 (AP)—Spokane, already short on meat, faced a possible further curtailment of its supplies today after a walkout of meat packing employees of Armour and company, largest packing plant here.

Pearson, secretary of Packing House union No. 235 of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of America, said 350 workmen, most of them union members, left the job yesterday in protest against gradual installation of an incentive plan of piecework and in an effort to "enforce a ruling" of the regional war labor board at San Francisco.
