District Meeting Held Here Monday

Garden Clubbers Gather at Pelican for No-Host Luncheon Between Programs

A beautiful array of daffodils from valley gardens formed a perfect background for the spring district meeting of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, held Monday all day in this city. The day was presided over by Mrs. L. G. Gentner of Medford, vice president of the Siskiyou district.

Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb of this city, state president, was introduced by Mrs. Gentner and gave a brief report on activities throughout the state, also urging that all club members participate in the planting of Victory gardens.

The session opened in the morning at the small library club rooms with eleven reports of various clubs presented during the hour allotted for that purpose. All clubs turned in excellent reports of Red Cross work and other defense activities. The work of beautifying grounds of Camp White also came in for discussion.

Speakers on the morning program included Mrs. Mabelle Hargrove, assistant field director in charge of the hospital program, American Red Cross station hospital, Camp White, and Miss Percy Margaret Gill, head recreation worker, military and naval welfare service.

Mrs. Hargrove spoke on the work of the garden clubs in relation to their assistance at the hospital, and urged different clubs to adopt fun rooms and furnish these rooms. Plaques would be hung on the walls to name the sponsor club.

Miss Gill used as her topic, "Social and Recreational Welfare" at Camp White and her talk was illustrated with clever little slides which delighted her listeners.

At one o'clock a no-host luncheon was served at the Pelican. Attending were Mrs. E. D. Lamb, state president; Mrs. L. L. Gentner, district president; Mrs. Hargrove, Miss Gill, Camp White; Mrs. Harry O. Smith, Mrs. Harry R. Floyd and Mrs. Blake Miller of the Illinois Valley Garden club; Mrs. J. O. Small, Mrs. Lee McMullen, Mrs. Phil Schroeder, Mrs. J. B. Cashin, Mrs. Don Holloway, Mrs. A. G. Proctor, Mrs. Horace E. Getz, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, president of the local club; Mrs. Neal Stewart, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Mrs. Paul Edwards, Mrs. Andrew Collier, Mrs. J. I. Beard, Mrs. Will Wood, Mrs. W. D. Miller.

The afternoon session was devoted to Mrs. Lamb's greetings and reports, an interesting talk by Mrs. Harry O. Smith, state conservation chairman, Cave Junction; and Mrs. Winnifred Gillen, home demonstration agent, who presented booklets on freezing and dehydration of Victory garden products.

Mrs. Gentner then presented a talk on daffodils, by far one of the best heard here. Mrs. Gentner has some 200 varieties in her own garden, many brought from her Medford home. The various classes were discussed, history of the daffodil family given, and each was illustrated with the flowers which filled the front of the room.

Among those attending from out-of-town were the Illinois Valley Garden club members including Mrs. Harry R. Floyd, president, Holland; Mrs. Harry O. Smith, Mrs. Blake Miller, vice president; Mrs. J. J. Villair, treasurer, and Mrs. John Dow, all of Cave Junction. Mrs. Dow visited here with her sister, Mrs. Ulrich.

DINNER GIVEN BEFORE DANCING PARTY

A dinner was given Saturday evening of last week at the Willard hotel complimenting Frank Peyton, retiring exalted ruler of the Elks lodge, and later the group attended the St. Patrick's dancing party given in the Elks lodge ballroom.

Places at dinner were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peyton, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley, Dr. and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prock, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Linman, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ruger, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Evans, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. England, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Evans, Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Goble, Mr. William G. Houston and Mr. E. B. Hall.

San Francisco Visitor Arrives

Mrs. George Watt of San Francisco, who has been visiting with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Watt and family of Prineville, arrived here Friday evening to spend a couple of weeks with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm of Modoc Point.

Ration Party Slated For April Third

Paper Sack Lunch and Your Own Coffee Is Word Passed Out by Reames Committee

What promises to be one of the gayest parties of the season, with plenty of possibility for fun, is the Ration Party planned by members of Reames Golf and Country club for Saturday evening, April the third, at the clubhouse near town.

All members and their guests are asked to bring their midnight snack in a paper sack, and also two tablespoonsful of coffee—per person. Not per couple. More coffee if you want a second cup, committee members advised.

The affair will not be the usual spring formal dance, the ladies will wear sports clothes and the men will also be comfortable.

This is the first party of the year for Reames members. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers are chairmen of the committee assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sproat, Dr. and Mrs. J. Hardin Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Huson.

Dancing will start at ten o'clock with the paper sack supper at midnight. The affair was originally scheduled for this weekend, but will be held next week, the day after the women open their program for the season.

Program Slated

Musicals To Be Presented by Library Club April 12

The last program of the year for the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club promises to be most delightful with the annual musicale, under the direction of Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, slated for Monday, April the twelfth.

At this time Mrs. Zumwalt will present Mrs. Muller, wife of a Camp White army officer, whose delightful voice has thrilled many a Medford resident. Mrs. Muller has consented to sing a group of numbers during the afternoon and those who have heard her are most enthusiastic in their praise. Mrs. C. S. Pettee, also the wife of an army officer at Camp White, will be her accompanist.

The program will be divided into two sections, one devoted to the younger artists, all attending school here, the second those who have appeared as more seasoned performers.

Miss Madelon Adler and Miss Jean Underwood will play piano numbers, Miss Joy Kent, Miss Wanda Shaw and Miss Mary Louise Sexton will sing, accompanied by Mrs. Zumwalt. Miss Lillie Darby's junior high school girls' chorus will present numbers.

In the second group piano numbers will be presented by Miss Virginia Tyrrell and Mr. A. E. Woodruff, with Mrs. David Burgoyne and Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill playing violin numbers. Mrs. Muller, with Mrs. Pettee, will complete the program.

The May program will be devoted to election of officers and a flower exhibit.

PLANS MADE FOR SHOW APRIL 13TH

An interesting Lenten affair is the Arts and Crafts show to be given by the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church on Tuesday, April thirteenth, at the parish hall. Treasures of many countries will be on display.

Té de Yerba Mate, the poor man's tea of the Argentine, tea from Ceylon, British style, will add international flavor to the affair. Hot spiced Russian tea will be served during the afternoon and evening hours. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. George H. Rogers has charge of the exhibits and persons having articles to show are asked to call phone 5690. Assisting will be Mrs. John Schubert, Mrs. Roy Lee, Mrs. Van Evans.

Receiving the guests will be Mrs. Raymond Reeves, Mrs. Lane Warren, Mrs. Joseph Piland, Mrs. James Swanson and Mrs. P. D. Schroeder. Pouring during the tea hours will be Mrs. Frederick Wissenbach, Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe and Mrs. Catlin.

A NUMBER OF out-of-town visitors were in Klamath Falls Monday to attend the all-day session of Siskiyou district of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs. Center, Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb, state president, and Mrs. L. G. Gentner, (right), Medford, vice president of the district. Mrs. Gentner brought the lovely daffodils used in her lecture. Left, Mrs. Horace E. Getz, (left), and Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton wrapping Michaelmas daisy and chrysanthemum plants given as favors. Mrs. Getz is president-elect. Mrs. Hamilton, president, of the local club. Right, Mrs. Mabelle Hargrove, seated, assistant field director in charge of hospital program, American Red Cross station hospital, Camp White, and Miss Percy Margaret Gill, head recreation worker, military and naval welfare service, also from Camp White, who spoke during the morning session. Their uniforms with the Red Cross insignia, are most attractive and worn with a dash. —Kathleen Livingston.

ALTAMONT WOMEN PLAN PROJECT WORK

Women of the Altamont district are urged to attend a meeting Wednesday afternoon at half past one o'clock in Altamont Junior high school to discuss the organization of a surgical dressings project.

Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney Sr., chairman of the project in Klamath county, will conduct the meeting. All interested are asked to be present. For further information, call Mrs. Richard Ballantine, 8767, or residence, 4444 Boardman avenue.

MISS CLEGHORN RECEIVES COMMISSION

Miss Elizabeth Cleghorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cleghorn of 219 High street Klamath Falls, has recently been commissioned second lieutenant in the Hospital Dietician corps of the army of the United States. The corps was established by act of congress, December 22, 1942.

Miss Cleghorn was graduated from Klamath Union high school, and from Oregon State college, and took her dietetics internship at the Scripps Metabolic clinic, La Jolla, California.

Wedding In North

Former Klamath Girl Weds in Portland Church

Of interest to Klamath folks is announcement of the wedding of Miss Mary Martha Glover, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Glover of Portland, to Dr. Neil Andrews. The service was read at ten o'clock Saturday morning, March the twentieth, in Trinity Episcopal church.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in Mrs. Glover's apartment and the young couple left for a stay at Cannon beach.

Mrs. Andrews was graduated from Multnomah county hospital recently with the spring nursing class. Dr. Andrews has completed his work at the University of Oregon school of medicine and within a month leaves for Maryland to complete his internship.

DALE SMITH OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Dale Smith, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith of Tulelake, observed her thirteenth birthday anniversary Friday but on Saturday afternoon her mother invited a group of friends to the theatre with tea later at the Pelican.

Dale's guests were Mary Lou Case, Marian McIntyre, Sally Barnhisel, Jean Henderson and Marcella and Rosemary Murray.

BOX SOCIAL PLANNED FOR THIS EVENING

This evening Elks and their ladies will enjoy a box social and dancing party in the Elks ballroom. The women have been asked to wear house frocks or slacks and the men will wear overalls.

The party will be repeated if it is a success, those in charge stated. This is in keeping with the food rationing program.

Mrs. Charles Bailey, (Patricia Woodruff), and young son, Rolland Charles, have left Hillside hospital and are now at the R. C. Woodruff home on Auburn and Mesa streets.

Mrs. Ruth Turner is spending this week in San Diego, enjoying a visit with her son, Private Larry Ray of the United States marine corps, who returned recently after long service in the South Pacific. Larry will be at the naval hospital for several weeks before coming home for a visit with his mother and grandmother, Mrs. Clara Shaw.

Greeted in Klamath Falls this week were Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Williams of Salem, who spent Monday and Tuesday here combining business with pleasure.

Officers of OWAC Pay Visit to City

Four From Portland Headquarters Attend Formal Presentation of New Ambulance by Elks Lodge

Four officers of Portland headquarters of the Oregon Women's Ambulance corps were distinguished guests in the city Thursday, coming here for the formal presentation of the new ambulance by the Elks lodge to the Klamath platoon of the corps on Thursday evening.

Here from Portland for the event were Major Helen Rinaudo, Captain Elizabeth Robinson, Captain Ann Bridge and Lieutenant Marguerite Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Chase of Klamath Falls.

The four officers were met at the train early Thursday morning and were guests at breakfast at the Elk hotel of Captain Kathleen Livingston of Company L, Lieutenant Berdena Reeder and Sergeant Esther Lawler, after which they inspected the ambulance and gave it a trial run. Later, they were taken on a scenic trip along Upper Klamath lake.

A luncheon was given at noon at the Pelican cafe honoring the visitors, and besides the Portland guests, covers were laid for Captain Livingston, Lieutenant Reeder, Sergeant Esther Lawler, Sergeant Gladys Lofdahl, Corporals Mona Dixon, Louise Borton, Ella Mullen, Myrtle Donelson, and Privates Betty Costel, Dorothea Beckwith, Marjorie Evans, Amelia Evatt and Veneta Larson.

The first appearance of the ambulance corps' dress uniforms was seen here Thursday with several of the officers wearing their natty blue suits and trench caps. The khaki slacks and shirts in which the Klamath platoon have appeared on several occasions comprise the field uniforms.

In the afternoon, the visitors were taken to the Japanese relocation center near Tulelake where they were guests of administration personnel on an inspection of the project, including the hospital, the school and newspaper.

Returning to Klamath Falls, they were guests of the Elks at a dinner at half past six o'clock when the keys to the ambulance were formally presented by Exalted Ruler Frank Peyton. They left by train late Thursday night for the north.

While here Captain Bridge of Portland enjoyed a short visit with her cousin, Sergeant E. W. Tichenor of the state police.

Klamath Maid Weds In Texas Church

Betty Ann Prudhomme and Corporal Ralph Crawford to Reside in Southern City.

Of interest to their many friends in Klamath Falls is announcement of the marriage of Betty Ann Prudhomme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Prudhomme of this city, and Corporal Ralph J. Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crawford of Crescent avenue.

The ceremony was read at eleven o'clock Sunday morning, March the fourteenth, in the Monahans, Texas, Catholic church.

The bride was attractive in a dusty blue frock with matching accessories and a corsage of rosebuds. Her attendant was Mrs. Betty Cuel, and Mr. James Crosse was the best man.

Immediately after the ceremony there was a wedding breakfast attended by the young couple and their guests. Corp. and Mrs. Crawford will be at home in Monahans.

The bride is a well known Klamath Falls girl, a charter member of the Klamath Com-

Plant Sale On Schedule

Garden Club Will Sponsor Auction in Late April

With the town Victory garden minded to the point where even parkings may see an out-cropping of potato vines this summer, the plant auction planned by the Klamath Falls garden club is of interest. At the present time the date has been set for Monday, April the twenty-sixth.

Mrs. Will Wood is chairman of the plant auction which will be held in the afternoon at the small library club rooms.

Mrs. J. O. Small will present a program on "Birds" and will use fifty-four hand painted slides by Horsfall from the collection of Dr. W. A. Elliott, head of the Pittcock bird sanctuary in Portland. Dr. Elliott has used these same pictures to illustrate his book, "Birds of the Pacific Coast," found in many bird enthusiasts' libraries here.

HOME FROM STANFORD FOR SPRING WEEK

Home from school this past week were Winifred Lamm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm of Modoc Point, and Rose Macartney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney Sr., of Washington street. Both attend Stanford university and were to leave this evening, Saturday, to resume their studies.

The vacation period was not the usual round of fun and parties as the town is mainly interested in war work, an interest participated in to a high degree by mothers of the two students.
