Evangelist Speaks Of Great Battle Of Armageddon

Speaking Sunday afternoon to the largest congregation in the history of the Free Methodist church, Ninth and Plum streets, Evangelist Elmer McKay declared that "the great battle of Armageddon seems to be drawing near."

He said that the great and decisive battle to be waged by the church in the near future will doubtless be a conflict between faith and unbelief regarding those vital trusts of the doctrine and ministry of the Holy Ghost.

Rev. McCormick, pastor of the church, said: "Many are yielding to the appeals of the Greenville, Ill., evangelist." Rev. McKay's topic Monday night will be "The Conquering Weapon." The campaign closes April 4.
