die reaches of the northern Donets river. Not Large Scale These battles currently are not on a large scale, it was reported, but they start usually with the Germans sporadically attacking the soviet troops who still are entrenched in their positions. There were as yet no indications the Russians had given up the footholds they still have in some places on the western bank of the Donets.

FIGHTER PLANES FIRE JAP VESSEL

P-38, Corsair (Vought F 4 U) fighters attacked the Japanese seaplane base at Faisi in the Shortland island area. Five to seven Japanese planes were set on fire.

(B) Following the attack on Faisi, this same group of fighters carried out a low-level strafing attack on a Japanese destroyer off Alu island (southeast of Shortland island). The attack was carried out at such low altitude that three feet of the wing of one plane was sheared off by the destroyer's mast. The destroyer was left burning.

(C) All U. S. planes returned.

Ruml plan allegedly would benefit.

Publicity Downed The publicity motion, which would open the records of how much of past taxes would be cancelled for each citizen, was offered by Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) of the ways and means committee as an amendment to Rep. Carlson's (R-Kas.) bill embodying the Ruml plan.

It failed on a teller vote of 153 to 121. The republican minority lined up solidly against the proposal. Doughton had declared: "Now, if we're going to vote to abate $10,000,000,000, then I think the public is entitled to know who is going to benefit if we make this raid on the treasury."

FARM HELP TO GET INACTIVE DRAFT STATUS

effective the day after, they will be transferred to an inactive status in the enlisted reserve. This will be done on condition that the man requests such transfer so as to enter an essential industry, including agriculture, and presents a statement from the war manpower commission, which Mr. Roosevelt interpreted as meaning his local draft board, saying his release is desired. He can be recalled to active duty upon request of the WMC.

Of men over 36 in the army, the memorandum said only 500 are listed as dairy farmers or dairy hands, but thousands are designated as farmers or farm workers and could qualify for dairy jobs.

OPA SURVEY SHOWS NO LOCAL PORK

A survey made by the food officials in the local OPA district office on Monday showed Klamath Falls virtually without pork, while other meats were extremely scarce.

Four of seven markets surveyed showed no beef, pork or veal.

Only one market was reported with "plenty of beef and veal." Merchants, asked by the inquirers for comment, were generally hopeful that the situation would improve by April 1 or a few days thereafter, but one or two were distinctly pessimistic so far as the Klamath Falls meat supply is concerned.

Ice Boxes to Be Produced to Meet Civilian Need

WASHINGTON, March 30 (AP)—About 250,000 ice boxes will be produced during the second quarter of this year to meet essential civilian needs, the war production board announced today.

No restrictions have been imposed on retail sales. Production in the second quarter will be 35 per cent over the present quarter, but WPB said the demand remains ahead of supply. Some mechanical refrigerators will be released soon, but the number has not been decided upon nor has eligibility for purchase.

Nazis Want Rommel Appointed Chief of Southern Defenses

NEW YORK, March 30 (AP)—A Tass report recorded by the federal communications commission for the office of war information said today under a Bern, Switzerland, dateline that the German high command had informed Premier Mussolini it wants Field Marshal Erwin Rommel appointed immediately commander-in-chief of the "southern defense area" of Italy and the Mediterranean coast of France.

Jurors Ask to Be Excused of Duty at Murder Trial

Difficulty is being experienced in selecting a jury panel for the Kenneth Wallan trial, which will begin Wednesday, March 31, at 10 a. m. in circuit court. Of the 12 persons drawn last week for jury duty, all but two have asked to be excused. The remaining two are W. V. Whitlatch and R. E. Nicodemus.

Four more names were drawn Monday, Thomas Picard, Harry Goeller, John D. Merritt and William Kunz.

Britain Views Use of Country for Offense Base

LONDON, March 30 (AP)—Anticipating the possible "use of this country as a base for offensive operations," Herbert Morrison, home secretary and minister of home security, announced in the house of commons today that the whole east and south coast to a depth of ten miles would become a restricted area on Thursday, April 1.

Maybe you're one of the people who have found out that hard work is easy when you work hard.

BRITISH PURSUE FLEEING GERMANS

20-mile sack south to the Mareh line.

Panzer Mauled (German "panzer divisions in particular are remarkably mauled and enfeebled," Churchill announced, and he added that the proportion of the Italian 20th and 21st Italian army corps left behind had not been determined.

(A British broadcast recorded in New York by the federal communications commission said Rommel had established new headquarters at El Djem, 40 miles north of Stax.)

Stand Hinted (Declaring that "territory and strong points were yielded in order to maintain the troops' fighting power," Capt. Ludwig Sertorius, German military commentator, in a Berlin broadcast, said "the second phase of the big battle" had ended and hinted that Rommel might attempt a stand somewhere north of Gages with the salt lakes protecting his right flank.

Salts Hamper ("The British eighth army at present has no opportunity for out flanking movements since the salt swamps of the Chotts are still impassable," he said. (Montgomery "must now leave it to his American colleague, Patton, to live up as best he can to the basic strategic plan of allied offensive operations," he said, but added that Patton's forces had been "greatly reinforced by fresh reserves.")

From Netarts—Mrs. Margaret Terry of Netarts on the Oregon coast, cousin of Mrs. A. A. Ward, arrived Tuesday morning to attend Mr. Ward's funeral. Also here for the services Wednesday are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cross of Albany, Calif., old friends, and Mr. and Mrs. Morin B. Ward of Berkeley. Ward is a nephew of A. A. Ward. The four arrived Tuesday morning.
