THE CHAMP
RATON, N. M. (AP)—Everyone got into the spirit of the auction at the war bond dinner. The prize, free extraction of two teeth, offered by a local dentist, was sold to the high bidder who bought $3100 in war bonds. And he hasn't a single tooth.

Lion in Boarding House Basement Enters Circus

KANSAS CITY, March 31 (AP)—The lion in the boarding house basement finally was trapped today into his first step toward a circus career.

After a day's effort of trying to entice the 600-pound lion, Speck, he was lured into his feeding pen by the landlady, Mrs. Mary Pratt, with a large piece of fresh meat. She then dropped a sliding door behind him.

Police and others spent yesterday trying to get him out of his basement den into the feeding chute but the only response they got from Speck was a mighty roar that shook the boarding house where he has lived since Mrs. Pratt bought him as a cub five years ago for $50.

Meat rationing, plus the fact that Speck eats 18 to 22 pounds a day, persuaded Mrs. Pratt to give Speck to Clyde Beatty, wild animal trainer. Beatty sent a man from Memphis to get the beast.

You got to take your time learning to milk or you'll ruin a good cow. Learning to milk comes hard with some people, but it sure is a lot harder on the cow.—George Simmons, farmer and instructor at Farmingdale, N. Y., agricultural institute.

"Pussyfoot" Says Prohibition Will Return, of Course

SMITHVILLE PLATS, N. Y., March 31 (AP)—William A. ("Pussyfoot") Johnson, dry crusader, predicted today in an interview "prohibition will come back, of course."

One of the leaders in the campaign leading to enactment of the 18th amendment, since repealed, Johnson said he would support any "national movement looking to the abolition of booze."

If prohibition returns, he asserted, administration of the law would be improved by the lessons "learned during the first attempt." Eighty-one years of age last Thursday, he is in retirement here.
