Pittsburgh Pirates Cook Offensive Against Seven National League Entries

By DAVE HOFF MUNCIE, Ind., April 2 (AP) There's a suspicion brewing in this north central Indiana com-munity that "Onkle Franz" Frisch's 1943 Pittsburgh Pirates are cooking up an old-fashioned scuttling act to be applied against the seven other National league entries this season.

The optimism is not the mere outgrowth of the fact the Buccaneers have scored 24 runs to none for the two opponents they have encountered so far. The Ball State Teachers nine and a local factory array—not the ut-most in competition—but still

Henry to Hit Beau Jack in Garden Fight

Armstrong to Go for Ten Rounds or Less to Cut Up Some Old Touches Tonight

By SID FEDER NEW YORK, April 2 (AP)— Henry Armstrong, the original buzzsaw, and bouncing Beau Jack, the "reasonable facsimile thereof," cut up some old touches —and each other—for ten rounds or less in Madison Square Gar-den tonight, and it figures to be quite a party.

As a matter of fact, it looks like so entertaining a taffy-pull that Promoter Mike Jacobs expects some 18,000 of the folks to parade into the big Eighth avshow, which features the return of hammerin' Henry to New York for the first time since the "smarties" wrote his obituary after Fritzie Zivic punched him around for the second time about 14 months ago.

The big-hearted betting boys, The big-hearted betting boys, who are always willing to share a bankroll with you—provided it's your bankroll—figure the Jumping Jack a 5 to 9 shot to take care of the little brown fighting machine who taught Beau more than one-and-one about the business of busting beaks.

This corner likes Armstrong This corner likes Armstrong to make a handsome bowl of applesauce out of all the pretty red apples in the cart in this one, simply because Henry is the original buzzsaw and the Jumping Jack is just a good imitation.
