Advertising Messages

By EARL WHITLOCK

I don't know whether you realize it or not but some of the advertising which is being printed these days, belongs in any one's anthology of great essays. One such recently appeared over the signature of the Northwestern National Life Insurance Co. You'll appreciate it, as I do.

A Civilian's Prayer
Help me, almighty God, to be the only kind of a hero I can ever be.

Help me to see how important it is that I go gladly and energetically about the humdrum business of saving my tires and my fuel, of spending less and saving more, of eating less and working harder, of asking less and giving more.

Help me to see that while the war may be won, no matter what I do, the light we fight to keep alive may go out because of what I prove myself to be. Help me to realize that not to create freedom and opportunity for the ruthless and the greedy, but to make it possible for kind men, men of integrity, responsible men, to work in peace and to work for the common good. Help me realize that these fighting men—indeed, the good men and women of the whole world—are waiting now for one small but all-important sign from me.

They know I can't join them in the blood and the dirt. But they want to see if I will seek responsibility. They wait now to see if I need merely to be led to do my part, or if I must be driven. For that will tell them if their spirit is also my spirit and their purpose mine. Help me not to fail them. Amen.

An additional 1800 acres in the rich Tulelake area north of Stronghold, will be planted in potatoes if lessees agree to certain conditions outlined by the U. S. bureau of reclamation which gave lessees the privilege of planting the land in potatoes for the first time this year.

Members of Triple A boards of Siskiyou and Modoc counties met with B. E. Hayden, reclamation head, to discuss the arrangement. The bureau stresses that the land, put in potatoes this year, must be put in legumes, such as alfalfa, clover or peas, in 1944. Replies are expected within several days, Hayden said.
