In the glistening waters of the Bismarck Sea this Victory sign appeared as wake of a dodging Jap destroyer merged with oil slick (lower left) to form a V. Note bomb bursts at top of photo.

Where Tunisia Battle Rages

Swiftly moving forces are attacking and counter-attacking in a climactic battle for southern Tunisia. Along the Nazi-held Mareth Line, Axis counter-blows have beaten back the British Eighth Army, which had made a break-through between Mareth and the Guif of Gabes, while at the lower end a sweeping British movement threatened to encircle the enemy as it turned toward Gabes, south of El Hamma. In the central sector two American drives continued against Mezzouna and Gabes deapite increasing pressure of German and Italian units.
