Pro Football Men Finish Draft Meet

Doubt Remains Whether Any of Drafted Men Will Be Available to Compete

By DAVE HOFF

CHICAGO, April 8 (P)—Na-tional Football league club own-ers and coaches stuffed their briefcases today with long lists of soon-to-graduate college gridders to whom they hoped to draw title at the draft session, closing task of their three-day meeting

However, there was consider able doubt whether many or any of these young players would be available next season, all this uncertainty adding an ominous tone to hints still more teams may drop out of the league before fall. With the "duration" exit of

Cleveland Rams, the mag nates appeared for awhile to be lieve nine clubs would go this year, but as any special plan for alleviating the manpower shortage failed to materialize, the atmosphere again became

This feeling was apparent last night when a hastily-revised 45game schedule failed to please the delegates. Commissioner Elmer Layden then was asked to prepare another chart for submission to a mail vote later.

Foster, Vaillancour Named To Head High School Squad For Rogue River Relays

Co-captains for the 1943 KUHS track team were chosen the other day by Coach Paul in the recent intra-class meet. They were Dick Vaillancour and "Baldy" Foster,

Foster was high point man of the meet and will therefore be awarded a special medal from Coach Deller.

Bocchi won the most firsts of the meet.

The track team leaves Friday for Medford where they will participate in the Rogue river relays. This meet will officially open the regular track season. Deller says the boys are in fine shape and predicts a fair open-ing meet in the valley.

Paul Lewis Hits Bernie Cardenas For Knockout

OAKLAND, Calif., April (P)-Paul Lewis, Oakland mid-dleweight, battered Bernie Cardenas of Mexico City all around the ring before knocking him out in the second round of their 10-round main event fight last night. Lewis weighed 154 and Cardenas, 162.

Lewis, younger brother of former world light-heavyweight champion, John Henry Lewis, floored the Mexican with a right to the jaw.

Bobby Berger, 147, Chicago, won an unpopular decision over Al Walker, 142, Oakland, in an-other 10-rounder.

College Try Bows Rainier Men to WSC

LEWISTON, Ida., April 8 (47) The old "college try" by Washington State was too much for the Scattle Rainiers yesterday, and the Coast League club bowed 7-4 to the collegians.

Wally Kramer got into frequent trouble in going the route for the Cougars but his mates, Deller from the two men who particularly the infield which finished with the most points pulled off three double plays, backed him up neatly in the tight spots.

Matheson, Rainier shortstop. got the Coast leaguers' only extra-base hit, a ninth inning triple scoring one after two were out.

George Davidson of WSC parked a homer over the right field fence in the fifth, scoring one ahead of him, and Kramer and Brannigan hit doubles for the collegians. Elliott and Moli-tor for Scattle gave up 12 hits.
