AAU Women Test Water For Matches

Nation's Top Feminine Swimmers Participate in Senior Tank Championships

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO, April 9 (AP)—In true feminine fashion, 75 of the nation's best women swimmers tested the water in the Medinah club pool with their toes today, found the temperature satisfactory, then plunged in to begin the three-day national senior women's AAU swimming and diving championships.

Preliminaries in the 100-yard freestyle and 300-yard individual medley were scheduled this afternoon, with finals in the two races, plus the one-meter diving, concluding the opening program tonight.

About one half the field entered the 100-yard freestyle trials seeking to qualify for five places in the title competition.

The race, one of the features of the entire meet, featured such stars as Marilyn Sahner, the defending champion from the women's swimming association of New York, Suzanne Zimmerman, national 100 meter queen, and Brenda Helsler, 220-yard American record holder, both of the Multnomah club at Portland, Ore.; Bernice Looney, Louisa Clark and Katherine Breen, a trio of national junior Betty Bemis, the WAVE from Hunter college, N. Y., representing the Indianapolis Riviera club.

FIGURING IT OUT
Hilligan also reports that the "limestone league" did all right at the gate with a couple of crowds around 4000 for early exhibitions. . . . "Chicago writers say," he adds, "that the White Sox haven't had an exhibition crowd like 3900 in years." . . . Teams in the east have been drawing even better, and if they get some real baseball weather when they begin to hit their home towns they'll probably make a bit of dough. . . . Incidentally, Tom Stephenson, who has been plugging the "limestone league" label for the Indiana camps, agrees that the "long underwear" league ought to cover the whole circuit—"if they stretch as well as they etch."

SPORTPOURRI

The summer outdoor fight program here likely will start with a Henry Armstrong-Sammy Angott bout, the winner to meet the survivor of the Beau Jack-Bob Montgomery fust. . . . During the war season of 1918, the International league turned up seven pitchers who tossed both games of doubleheaders and Ernie Lanigan wouldn't be surprised to see Montreal's James Willard Ramsdell join the iron man group this year. Ramsdell has worked 909 innings in the past three seasons.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Jesse A. Linticum, Baltimore Sun: "Tuesday night the Canadian Angel meets the French Angel in the coliseum. . . . Gosh, when Angel meets Angel on the mat there will be the devil to play."

Light Heavyweight Tommy Tucker is in his second month of training as an aviation cadet at the North Carolina pre-flight school. . . . And Tommy's kid brother, E. S., is 160-pound regimental champ at the Georgia pre-flight school though he never boxed before joining the navy. . . . Sam Stassi, former Yuba county (Calif.) Junior college athlete, is a "four-letter man" at Mather field. He's on the baseball team now; last winter he represented the field in basketball and golf, then took up boxing with good results.

HIP, HIP, SURREY
Wonder how many of the hoss experts at Jamaica yesterday could identify the vehicle the judge rode in? . . . We're told it's a surrey.

TRAINING COMPLETED

PASCO, April 9 (AP)—Three former University of Washington athletes have completed their primary training at the naval air station here and have been transferred to Corpus Christi, Texas for advanced flight training. They are Earl Younglove, star end in football; Dwight Smith of Seattle, a halfback, and Tom Taylor, Tacoma, No. 7 man on the crew.

Possible Good Fishing Slated For Rogue River

PORTLAND, April 9 (AP)—Rogue river may provide good fishing this weekend, the state game commission said today, but prospects were poor for other western Oregon streams.

All counties except Curry reported unfavorable conditions for stream fishing but the Rogue was expected to be right for good takes of spring-run chinook salmon and cut-throat trout.

Rainiers Lack Bat Strength, Bolster Mound

LEWISTON, Idaho, April 9 (AP)—Although they still haven't a first class behind-the-bat performer, the Seattle Rainiers last night strengthened their mound staff with the purchase of Byron Speece, who won nine and lost six for the Portland Beavers last year.

A practice doubleheader between the Coast leaguers and Washington State college was cancelled yesterday because of the weather and both teams worked out in the college field house before the Rainiers went back to Lewiston. The teams are scheduled to tangle again Monday here, just before the Rainiers leave for the south. Seattle will meet the Geiger Field Bombers Sunday afternoon in Spokane.

Whitman College Baseball Squad Gets Idaho Win

MOSCOW, Idaho, April 9 (AP)—A fifth inning rally which netted three runs gave Whitman college a 4-3 baseball victory yesterday over the University of Idaho. A second game was cancelled because of ground conditions.

It was Whitman's sixth victory in seven games with the Vandals. Idaho outhit the winners seven to three, but Whitman got two of its three blows in the fifth, and coupled with a Vandal outfield error, they were enough for the ball game.

Pro-Grid Draft Finished, But Army Got There First

Owners Get Legal Rights to College Football Men, But How Many Are 4-F?

By DAVE HOFF
CHICAGO, April 9 (AP)—The National Football league members have acquired their legal rights to the cream of the graduating college grid crop, and now all they have to do is go out and find how many of the boys are 4-F in the draft so they can play next season.

The Detroit Lions are heirs to two of last fall's college players, Frank Sinkwich of Georgia and Dave Schreiner, but their chances of using either until after the war are remote. Sinkwich already is on active duty with the marines and Schreiner is reported facing induction into the armed forces.

That's the way it reads in most cases, but there was the slim hope that possibly 5 per cent of the 300 collegians drafted last night may be available for the 1943 season.

Breaking up the three-day meeting, the magnates threw the names on the suspended Cleveland Rams' roster up for grabs last night with the Chicago Bears getting the best of the blind lottery. They drew out Dante Magnani and Jim Benton, two of the Rams' aces, and aren't too hard up for players anyway.

With an eye on the future more than next season, the Bears picked their collegians carefully, drawing five linemen in their first eight choices and also bagging fullbacks Bob Steuber of Missouri, Fred (Dippy) Evans of Notre Dame and Jim Jurkovich of California.

The championship Washington Redskins also drew a neat assortment including Jack Jenkins, Vanderbilt fullback, and William Dutton, Pittsburgh halfback, plus three well-regarded Notre Dame men: End Bob Dove, Center Walter Ziemba and Tackle Lou Rynkus.

Sinkwich, Georgia's all-America halfback and record-breaking star on total offense last season, was the first man selected in yesterday's draft. Joe Mula of VMI went next to the Philadelphia Eagles. The Chicago Cardinals claimed Glenn Dobbs, Tulsa halfback; Brooklyn took Paul Governali, Columbia's peerless passer; the Cleveland Rams picked mighty Mike Holovac, Boston college fullback, and the New York Giants grabbed Steve Filipowicz, the Fordham plunger.

Pittsburgh's No. 1 choice was Minnesota's Bill Daley while another Gopher, Tackle Dick Wildung, was first pick of the Green Bay Packers. The Bears took Steuber first time around and the Redskins got Jenkins.

San Diego Gets Five Errors in Losing to Marines

SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 9 (AP)—San Diego got five errors out of its system yesterday and hopes that will end the matter. The Pacific Coast Baseball league team made them in losing a 6 to 4 game to the Marine Air Base group 11 team—a warm-up affair for the Padres preparatory to meeting Los Angeles in a weekend exhibition series. Former Main, formerly with the Idaho Falls club, allowed nine hits in pitching for the winners, one more than losing Pitcher Nick Ellis.

CONFERENCE STARTS

CORVALLIS, Ore., April 9 (AP)—Oregon and Oregon State baseball teams will open their Pacific coast conference season here today.

Oregon, defending champions in the northern division, boasts a veteran infield, while Oregon State, though lacking in experience, has a strong pitching staff.

FIGHT TONIGHT

PORTLAND, April 9 (AP)—Jimmy Garrison of Kansas City and Jackie Burke of Ogden, Utah, will meet here tonight in a 10-round welterweight main event of a National Boxing club card.
