Joyce Leech Bride In Church Ceremony

All White Chosen for Her Wedding by Klamath Falls Girl on April the Third

In a candlelight service read Saturday, April the third, at eight o'clock in the evening, Joyce Audrey Leech, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Leech, exchanged vows with Richard Franklin Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Miller of Bend, before a number of friends and relatives in the First Christian church. The officiating minister was the Rev. Arthur Charles Bates.

All white was chosen by the bride for her wedding back ground. White lilies, stock and snapdragons, with many tall white candles, decorated the church. Just before the ceremony Mrs. Mary Hayden played at the organ, "In the Garden

Birthdays

Remembered

Nile Votes Fund to

Plans May Project

Portland Hospital;

March and April birthday

remembrances provided the feature at the monthly meeting of the Klamath Falls Nile club when a one o'clock luncheon was served at the Pelican party room Tuesday

sented with the special birth-day gift for this meeting.

the club voted to send a hundred dollars to the Shrine hospital for crippled children in Portland, and it was an-nounced that Nile members will furnish cookies during the month of May for the Commando room, with Mrs. George Adler as chairman for Awards at the close of bridge were received by Mrs. C. S. Elliot, Mrs. E. W. Swartz and Mrs. Wilbur A.

Mrs. L. A. Murphy enter-tained for her daughter, Jacky

May, on the occasion of her sixth birthday anniversary, April the eighth, Thursday

The guests enjoyed games, a fish pond, and then the birthday cake and ice cream served at a table made pretty with a bowl of spring flowers. Honoring Jacky May were

Susan Lee Brown, Margaret, Marilyn and Sylvia Gerber, Judy Clark, Suellen Clark, Joanne Lamareaux, Yvonne Lamareaux, Jennine O'Con-nor, Sandra Rea Linville, Pat Murphy, Eddie Metcalf, David

Landis, Michael Murphy, Dick Piland, and June Marie Mur-

Miss Betty Buchanan left

Thursday evening by train for Berkeley where she will re-main. Miss Buchanan has visited here with her par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J.

MISS CAROL MOORE

Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore of Tulelake and observed her ninth birth-day anniversary on March thirty-first.

ANNIVERSARY

PARTY ON

THURSDAY

the project.

During the business hour

Mrs. Frank Hamblet.

of Tomorrow," and Patty Brown sang, "I Love You

As the bride entered on her father's arm little Gwen Ty-son, in a long white dress, son, in a long white dress, scattered flower petals along the aisle. Her wedding gown was of white embroidered marquisette with Chantilly lace made with a long train, long sleeves and a V neckline. She wore a cap of pearls, and the state of the state o her long veil edged with lace, and she carried a single or-chid surrounded by white freesias and a frille of tulle.

Mrs. William Tyson, the matron of honor, wore white satin, and the maid of honor, Catherine Johnson, and the bridesmaid, Jeannette Fitz-patrick were dressed in pale blue and yellow gowns of organdie, made alike with full skirts, sweetheart necklines and short puffed sleeves. They carried Colonial bouquets of white flowers.

Four Commandos, of which group the bride is a member, acted as ushers, Bethel Hutch-inson, Gladys Walland, Bar-bara Sellers and Mary Truelove, and all were dressed in white. The best man was William Tyson, the groom's brother-in-law.

Mrs. Leech, the bride's Mrs. Leech, the bride's mother, wore navy blue, a two-tone blue hat, and Mrs. Merle Miller, mother of the groom, was also in navy blue with light pink accents and a matching hat. Both had corsages of white gardenias.

About one hundred guests attended the wedding, and forty were present at the reception which was held immediately afterward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leech. The rooms were attractive with spring flowers in pastel bander. The learneyward tashades. The lace-covered ta-ble was centered with a threetiered bride's cake bearing a miniature bride and groom, and Mrs. George Casper presided over the silver coffee service, Mrs. Dale Mattoon served the punch, and after the bride had cut the first piece of cake Mrs. Paul Ed-wards presided and Mrs. Clarence Robertson served.

Out-of-town guests were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merie Miller of Bend, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Miller, an uncle, Harold Miller, his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Tyson and their two daughters, Gwen and Gail, Mr. and Mrs. B. Bazley and Mr. and Mrs. Carey Stearns, all from Bend.

Mrs. Miller's traveling suit was of light blue with navy blue accessories and a navy blue hat with a small veil. With it she wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet, and the surrounding bouquet was mando ushers, Barbara Sell-

The groom is an aviation radio technician third class, and is stationed at Alameda, Calif., where Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their home for the present.

MISS MOORE HONOR GUEST ON BIRTHDAY

TULELAKE - A theatre party, refreshments, games and gifts all came in one afternoon for Carol Moore, who celebrated her ninth birthday last Saturday although her birthday anniversary was March thirty-first.

After seeing a picture at

After seeing a picture at the Marcha theatre her guests were taken to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore, where refreshments were served from a prettily decorated table. Easter motifs in pastel shades were used as a central note and in the

Included in the party were Gay Bergman, Lois Roper, Shirley Crane, Carolee Cud-dy, Julienne Mercy, Novelle Dahle, Helene Fisher and the young hostess.

Home from school is Barbara Osborn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dean H. Osborn of and Mrs. Death II. Social 2104 Lawrence street, who arrived early Saturday morning from Tacoma, Washington, where she is a student of Angelia and Michael 2104 Lawrence Michael 2104 Lawrence Michael 2104 Lawrence nie Wright seminary. Miss Osborn was accompanied by Norma Ainsworth of Gig Harbor, Washington, also a stu-dent at the seminary. They will remain for one week.

WEDS IN CHURCH

Joyce Audrey Leech, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Leech, became the bride of Richard Frank-lin Miller in a ceremony read April third in the First Christian church.

Committee Heads

Plans Under Way for Annual Easter Monday Bridge Tea Slated April 26th

Named for Party

The largest social affair of early spring is the annual Easter Monday bridge tea which is slated for April twenty-sixth in the ballroom of the Willard hotel by the women of the Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Despite war time restrictions the party will be given this year and although there is no theme as in years past, there with he a fint of rationing in the party awards and prizes. Mrs. Ralph S. Hopkins, Guild president, has named Mrs. R. Henry Anderson as general chairman.

will be a hint of rationing in

Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin will be in charge of reserva-tions and refreshments chairman is Mrs. Thomas Hamp-ton. Mrs. Raymond H. Reeves is in charge of reservations.

The door committee will be Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby and Mrs. Carl Michelson. All women of St. Paul's are asked Bridge will start at half past one o'clock and there will be no program. Tea will be poured at four o'clock. Complete committees will be announced next week and all women of the city are asked to

MRS. RAMSBY HOSTESS TO ANW CLUB

Mrs. Carey Ramsby was hostess to members of the Art Needle Work club, Wednesday afternoon. Special guests were Mrs. R. H. Anderson, sister of the hostess, and Mrs. Fred Houston. Miss Marcia Mills, granddaughter of Mrs. L. O. Mills, and Miss Sue Ramsby, granddaughter of Mrs. Ramsby, were interest-ing guests.

ing guests.
Yellow daffodils and lighted candles added much to the beauty of the tables during the tea hour. A low bowl of lovely hyacinths grown and arranged by Mrs. George Wirtz was greatly admired. Twenty-two members and guests enjoyed Mrs. Ramsby's hospitality.

Mrs. George Wirtz will entertain the club Wednesday afternoon, April the twenty-first, at her home on Jefferson street. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Green Brown of Dalton, Georgia plan to leave Tuesday for Los Angeles where they will visit Angeles where they will visit with another daughter before returning to their home in the east. They will be accompanied as far as the California city by their daughter. Mrs. Warren Whitlock, and their young granddaughter.

Delta Gamma chapter of Delphian will meet Tuesday, April thirteenth, at a quarter to ten o'clock at the home of Mrs. Don Zumwalt on South Riverside, The topic will be, "Music as a Social Art" and the leader, Mrs. C. E. Morri-

Joan Campbell will leave this weekend for Mills college after spending spring vaca-tion here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Camp-

State Report Announced

Delegates From DAR Conference Report On Monday

According to the report from the Oregon state confer-ence, Daughters of the Ameri-can Revolution, Oregon Daughters have contributed Red Cross, have purchased bonds in the sum of $347,730, have served 22,870 hours in civilian defense duties, have given $259 for blood donation services, and have given many donations of blood to the blood banks of the state during the past year.

A contribution of especial historical interest is the microfilming of Oregon census records from 1850 to 1880, which the state society is preparing to send to the National Library, Washington, D. C. Also, ninety-two per cent of all permanent markers on the dependence, Missouri to Ore-gon, have been placed by DAR societies in the United States, This interesting report was brought by Mrs. Irene Foster who, with Mrs. Z. W., Dixon, regent, represented Eulalona chapter at the state conference, held in Portland, in March.

These reports were given Monday evening at the regu-lar meeting of Eulalona chapter, at the home of Mrs. Louis R. Mann. Mrs. Mann was as-sisted by Mrs. H. E. Morris and Miss Virginia West.

The chapter voted to send a note of appreciation to Mr. C. G. Woodhouse of the KUHS faculty, and to his class, and to radio station KFJI, for the splendid programs on conservation which have been given during the past six weeks under the sponsorship of Eulalona chapter.

Mrs. Dixon represents the local DAR on the Siskiyou Camp and Hospital council, a branch of the national organization of Camp and Hospital councils, and gave an interesting talk about the needs and undertakings of this unit of war service. The chapter voted to supply drapes for a sun room at Camp White hospital. Mrs. Dixon is also a corporal in the Oregon Woman's Ambulance corps of Klamath Falls. Elected to serve on the Elected to serve on the nominating committee for offlicers for the coming chapter year were: Mrs. B. W. Zollman, chairman, Mrs. Irene Foster and Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm. This committee will report at the May meeting, when officers will be elected and installed. and installed.

Mrs. William C. Orton,

member of Silver Bow chap-ter, Butte, Montana, and mother of Mrs. Mann, was a guest. Also Mrs. Hugh T. Michelmore, member of Mt, Ashland chapter, now living in Altamont, who is trans-ferring to Eulalona chapter, was a visitor.

CIRCLE TO MEET THURSDAY AT BLOHM RESIDENCE

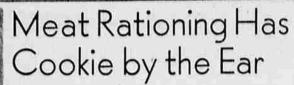

The Bethany circle of the First Presbyterian church will meet on Thursday afternoon, April the fifteenth, at the home of Mrs. G. C. Blohm on Pacific Terrace. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Kinsaid, Mrs. Robert McGhehey said, Mrs. Robert and Mrs. Arnold Gralapp.

served by the hostesses. Members are asked to bring their own sandwiches.

NOW TWO!

This is little Patty Jo Detroit who observed her second birthday anniversary on March twenty-sixth. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Detroit, 633 East Main street.

Lo! The Poor Butcher Observes Shopper Interested in Red Ticket Spending

Launching out with a couple o' other million housewives Launching out with a couple of other million housewives these past two weeks on the nation-wide experience of using the little red gadgets in War Book Two, produced a far bigger ripple on our amusement sea than did the tearing off of the first, second and third A, B and C tickets.

Standing much like a lady should stand at the butcher counter with the books clutched tightly in the left paw, we waited for a full half hour and water the following charges.

Plans Made

made the following observa-

A. That price is no object! It's the amount of tickets you have that makes the butcher lift his eyebrow in admiration. Not your pompadour or a fetching hat line-but how many red tickets, lady, how many red tickets!

B. That the butcher's pa-tience must be on the ragged edge by six o'clock as he weighs out several hunks of cow or piggy and carefully puts them back in the case when the buyer moans, "Put it back and give me something else. I haven't got 18 points ning, April the seventeenth, when the annual inaugural ball will be held in the Elks temple. The affair honors the newly elected officers of the C. That more people are go-In keeping with wartime re-strictions, the 1943 inaugural ball will be streamlined and fuss and feathers will go by than things that walk! D. That hamburger is rap idly replacing the sirloin steak and that "come over and tear a herring" is going to be more truth than poetry one of formal and at one o'clock there will be a supper. Dancing will start at ten bancing will start at ten clock, opening with the grand march led by the newly elected exalted ruler and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley, and the other new offiin sight.

The committee in charge in-ludes Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Van cludes Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Van Doren, chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reading, and Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Padgett.

ALOHA OES TO MEET TUESDAY

cers of the lodge.

For Ball

urday

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Lavin of 426 North Seventh street, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Lorna Katherine, to Cadet James S. Caras of Missoula, Mon-

Bride-Elect

Honor Guest

Swea Swanson Compli-

en Friday Evening

mented at Party Giv-

Swea Swanson, attractive bride-elect, was complimented at half past seven o'clock Friday evening when Mrs. Axel

Johnson and Mrs. Jonas Wat-din of Tulelake, entertained at the Johnson home, 429 Pa-

Daffodils and other spring flowers were used about the rooms. Games were played with coffee served at a late hour. Mrs. Stewart Patty assisted in serving. Miss Swan-son was presented with gifts

thur Lind, Mrs. Swan Olson,

Mrs. Arthur Oberg, Mrs. Otto Erlandson, Mrs. Stewart Pat-ty, Mrs. Fred Lekberg, Mrs.

Andrew Persson, Mrs. David Reinoldson, Mrs. John Stern-

er, Mrs. Eugene Werner, Mrs. Carl Lindbergh, Mrs. Victor

Orling, Mrs. John Berg, Mrs. Vergil Nelson, Mrs. Mabel Hollander, Mrs. Charles Cizek, Mrs. Pete Strid, Mrs. Emerick Hult, Mrs. Peter Eastman, Mrs.

Tony Olson, Mrs. A. Mirratta, Mrs. Axel Jacobson, Mrs. Earl

Jacobson, Mrs. John Berglund, Mrs. Henry Fagrell, Mrs. Oscar Anderson, Mrs. Axel John-son, Mrs. Valery Sauerburg, Miss Norma Waldin, Miss Eva

Rae Jacobson, the hostesses, Mrs. Axel Johnson and Mrs.

Jonas Waldin, and the guest of honor, Miss Swea Swanson.

Three cars filled with Klam-ath folks drove to Malin

Thursday evening to attend the Eastern Star meeting in the Masonic temple where Mrs. Hazel Kalina, as worthy matron, and Mr. Joe Halou-sek, as worthy patron, with degrees of the order in a very Supper was served to the group and to the guests from

Klamath Falls including Ex-ene Humble, Viola Dixon, Betty Hunter, Clara Sherman, Charlotte Martin, Helen Spik-

tie McDaniels, Alpha Phelps,

Lawrence Phelps and Arthur

KLAMATH

FOLKS VISIT

MALIN OES

pleasing manner.

MISS LeROY

AT PARTY

Le Roy.

HONOR GUEST

Ethelmae Skinner of Girl

From four to six o'clock the girls played games and

Scout troop number 2 gave a handkerchief shower at her

Mrs. Carl Swanson, Mrs. Ar-

by the following guests:

cific Terrace.

Elks Inaugural Party

Slated for Next Sat-

For members of the Elks lodge and their ladies, the highlight of the social year will arrive next Saturday eve-the board. The committee has announced the party as semi-

Aloha chapter, No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet in regular session.
Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, in the Masonic temple, Klamath avenue. The date is April the thirteenth.

Mrs. Clarence A. Humble, worthy matron, and Mr. Lawrence K. Phelps, worthy patron, extend to all mem-bers and visiting members a the meeting. cordial invitation to attend

The verse group will meet on May the third at the home of Mrs. Ralph Porter at 825 Lincoln street. The April meeting was postponed due to Mrs. Porter's absence in Salem where she was called by the illness of her sister, Mrs. George Kanz.

Shopping in town Thursday were Merrill residents, Mrs. W. J. Grove, Mrs. Clifford Shuck and Mrs. F. E. Trotman. left!"

these days soon.

E. That the girls that figured they'd outsmart OPA by having chicken one Sunday and save up for a leg of lamb found themselves on a limb this weekend with no chickens

F That the broiler pan is going to be put on the top shelf along with the favorite butter cookic recipes until the present unpleasantness is over.
G. That at the end of a haif hour you are no longer stand-ing like a lady at any butcher's counter, but leaning on the case and wishing you knew how to cook pig ears so that the family would eat them. The French chef that cooked the shoe in such delec-table fashion, really had some thing!

LECTURE PLANNED FOR WEDNESDAY

Mrs. F. O. Small will give an illustrated lecture on Birds of Klamath county, Wednes-day, April fourteenth, at eight o'clock, at the Community Congregational church, for the members of the Junior circle and their guests, the Senior circle and Laymen Fellowship.

The colored slides used for Illustration are loaned by Dr. W. A. Eliot, president of the Oregon Audubon society. These slides were made from original paintings by R. Bruce Horsfall which were made to illustrate Dr. Eliot's book, "Birds of the Oregon Coast." Mrs. Small will also ex-hibit the Horizon Camp Fire

Girls' collection of bird nests

Phone 5669 611 S. 6th Refrigeration Service Ward Arnold, Serviceman MERIT WASHING MACHINE SERVICE

