NEW YORK, April 12 (AP)—War is h— Dept.: Breeders of gamecocks are complaining over the high cost (in cash and points) of beef extract. . . They say it's needed to get the birds in condition for the big mains. . . Wait until they try to buy a new set of steel spurs for the battlers. . . Although fewer than half of them are likely to start May 1, 35 Kentucky Derby eligibles already have checked in at Churchill Downs. . . Lou Little, Columbia football coach, has been ordered to keep absolutely silent for two weeks because he strained his voice. The strain on Lou has been even greater than the one on his vocal chords.

HONESTY PAYS
 Fred Mersch, Georgetown U. baseballer, has been looking behind the bushes for Dodger scouts ever since the Hoyas played Catholic U. last week. . . It seems that when Mersch found himself on second base, he decided to steal third, and did. . . Only trouble was that third already was occupied by his teammate, Jim Gilroy. . . In the confusion Gilroy stepped off the bag and was tagged, then Mersch decided to go back to second but couldn't make it.

 Lou Ambers will put on the gloves for a boxing bout tonight for the first time since he retired in 1941. He'll step through a three round exhibition with his cousin and coast guard-mate, Marty Servo, at Holleran hospital on Staten island. . . By cancelling its national championships last summer, the U. # Indians Get Increase in Outfielders

Holdout Jeff Heath Leaves War Plant To Open Season With Cleveland Team

INDIANAPOLIS, April 12 (AP)—Twenty-four hours ago Roy Cullenbine and Rookie Hank Edwards were the only outfielders in the Cleveland Indians' camp and Manager Lou Boudreau had disclosed he would open the American league season with a pitcher in left field if necessary. He had decided that Al Milnar, Allie Reynolds and Steve Gromek would alternate, depending on whether a left or right-handed hurler was facing the tribe.

Today Boudreau could boast of four fly-chasers—a situation which, in the case of the Indians, virtually amounts to an over-abundance of manpower.

First came the announcement that Holdout Jeff Heath had left a Seattle shipyard for the ball-yard. The hard-hitting gardener agreed to terms in a long distance telephone conversation with Vice President Roger Peckinpaugh.

Peckinpaugh indicated the management had increased its salary offer, but that the figure agreed upon represented a compromise. It was believed to be $12,000 as compared to the $15,000 Jeff received last year.

The tribe official said Heath probably would join the team in Dayton, O., Thursday, or earlier if he could obtain an airline reservation.

Jeff told Peckinpaugh he is in good shape and has been getting plenty of batting practice through a private spring training program.

The next development was Oris Hockett's return to camp. Hockett returned last night after jumping the team Saturday, but refused to divulge any reasons for departure to his home in Dayton, O.

He said he had planned to return Saturday night but that the illness of his father, whom he said had double pneumonia, forced him to stay.

"I'm anxious to play ball," was Hockett's only comment as he came back.

Boudreau evidently plans no disciplinary measures for he announced that Hockett would be in left field today when the tribe meets the Cincinnati Reds at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

Leading Fielder Asked To Report For Maritime Duty

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12 (AP)—Ralph Seals, who has batted .312 for the San Francisco Seals last year and led the Pacific coast league in runs batted in, has been ordered by the U. S. maritime service to report for duty at once at Kansas City, Mo.

The Seals' management said his loss would be felt keenly, and might mean the difference between a winning and a losing team.

Jean Eberhart, Sons Coach, Joins Navy as Lieutenant

ASHLAND, April 12 (AP)—Jean Eberhart, Southern Oregon College of Education coach for seven years, is en route to Chapel Hill, N. C., to become a lieutenant, junior grade, in the navy. Eberhart, on leave of absence, expects to be assigned to the navy's physical education program.

LAST LAUGH

Pop Lafleur, veteran Hartford, Conn., umpire, gives this explanation of why he started to wear a blue uniform instead of a baseball player's monkey suit. . . "I pitched until my eyes gave out. When I no longer could see whether the ball went over the plate or not, I resigned as a pitcher and became an umpire. When you call 'em as an umpire, you can't be wrong."

Tommy Harmon, who made the No. 98 famous as an all-America halfback at Michigan university, used that number as part of the insignia on his army bomber (shown above). A second lieutenant in the U. # Junior American Legion Baseball Needs Support

And Klamath County Needs Ball Clubs To Develop Its Younger Generation

By VIRGIL GROSS

Whether or not Junior American Legion baseball will be played in the state of Oregon in 1943 is unknown, and it seems as though nothing is being done toward its continuance.

L. H. Gregory wrote a very interesting article last Friday in his column on legion ball which should stimulate some action in legion circles throughout the state. Greg pointed out that nothing in the way of organizing it had been started, and that it was about time something is done about it. This will be one year when semi-pro baseball will be curtailed by the lack of players due to the draft, and Legion ball will be just the ticket for its replacement, since those playing it would be under draft age.

Semi-pro baseball in Klamath Falls has been the only kind of baseball entertainment known to the many fans in the city for many years, but this year it is doubtful whether it can continue because of player shortage; so why not have Legion ball to supplement semi-pro ball this summer? Too much young baseball talent has been lost already in this city and it's about time something is done to bring it back.

Many major league ball players got their start playing Legion ball; namely, Joe Gordon of the Yanks; Johnny Pesky, formerly of the Red Sox; Jack Wilson of the Red Sox and Verne Olsen, formerly of the Cubs. There may be some potential big leaguers right in our own backyard but how is anybody going to find them if they don't get the same chance of young boys in other cities throughout the nation. It has been ten or eleven years since Legion baseball was played in Klamath Falls. Why it has not been played since then is not known.

Since many of the boys' parents are working—thus leaving them alone—this should give them recreation during the summer months and keep them in good physical condition.

Because of the lack of gas many people will have to seek entertainment at home. Legion ball should serve the purpose very well, and parents who have boys old enough to play will get the thrill of seeing them in action.

There should be plenty of sponsors in Klamath Falls since so many people are interested in its return. As far as that goes all local business concerns could back it, and thus would not overburden one separate sponsor.

The boys of Klamath Falls will welcome the return of Junior American Legion baseball to this city. So let's not let the boys down. Let's do all in our power to see that they get Legion ball this summer.

TRAINING CAMP BRIEFS

By The Associated Press
MUNCIE, Ind.—The Pittsburgh Pirates got the day off today after lurching out of their spring-long batting slump and defeating the main forces of the Detroit Tigers, 13 to 2. A game was carded with the Louisville colonels today but Manager Frankie Frisch cancelled it and gave his team a vacation.

COLLEGE PARK, Md.—Bob Johnson, Washington's slugging left fielder, still has Manager Ossie Bluege believing that his newest acquisition will provide the needed punch for the Senators this season. Johnson got 3 for 6—two of them doubles—and batted in four runs as the Senators unleashed a five-run flurry in the seventh to beat the International league Orioles, 12 to 6, at Baltimore Sunday.

BOSTON—The Boston Red Sox returned from a week-long barnstorming tour today in time for a brief workout that was preceded by a skull session during the train ride from New York. Manager Joe Cronin said the club showed a weakness at the plate and poor base running against the New York Giants in Sunday's defeat. The Soxers play Boston college Tuesday and Harvard on Thursday.

NEW YORK—The New York Yankees speedsters, George Stirnweiss and Roy Weatherly weren't swift enough for the Brooklyn Dodgers as the American leaguers lost their third straight to the national loop nine Sunday. Stirnweiss, who swiped 73 bases last year in the international loop, was thrown out on a bunt and Weatherly was caught stealing.

BROOKLYN—The Brooklyn Dodgers, winners of three straight over the New York Yankees, still were talking about Arky Vaughan's glittering play that robbed John Lindell of a hit as they embarked for Camp Dix, N. J., and today's struggle with the New York Giants. Vaughan,

Cody Gets Kisses When "Kids" Win Swim Meet

Team Title Won by Multnomah Club Young Mermaids With 43 Point Total

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
 CHICAGO, April 12 (AP)—It was an unusual sight. On the edge of the swimming pool, so happy that he almost fell in, was Jack Cody—a small, heavy-set man of about 55. Surrounding him were four pretty girls, trying to hoist him to their shoulders. When they failed, each planted a nice kiss on his leathery cheek.

All this was a colorful episode at the conclusion of the three-day national AAU senior women's indoor swimming meet yesterday. The girls, whose average ages were 17, were the sole members of Cody's Multnomah club team of Portland, Ore., which swirled away to the team championship with 43 points to 31 for the second place Riviera club of Indianapolis.

Although Cody had coached Multnomah 30 years, he never bobbed up with a team title until his "flashy foursome" lassoed it for him. If ever a man deserved those kisses as an anti-climax, Cody was the one.

With premeditation, he announced simply: "Fine bunch of girls I got. Yes, sir!"

They won five championships. Suzanne Zimmerman showed fine versatility in capturing the 100-yard freestyle one day and the 100-yard backstroke the next.

Brenda Helsler took the 220-yard freestyle yesterday, then combined with Miss Zimmerman and Nancy Merki to win the 300-yard medley relay and shatter any chances Riviera had of overtaking Multnomah in the team race.

Helsler, Zimmerman, Merki and Mary Ann Hansen, the debutante of the foursome, also won the 400-yard freestyle relay championship earlier in the meet.

Two other "double" winners were 14-year-old Joan Fogle of Riviera, who annexed the 300-yard individual medley and the 440-yard freestyle in a brilliant upset which kept Miss Merki from repeating in the race for the fourth straight year; and Ann

Recognition To Be Asked for Cashin's Feat

PALO ALTO, Calif., April 12 (AP)—Official recognition will be asked for Enmett Cashin's feat in bettering three world intercollegiate swimming marks as he and his Stanford university teammates beat College of the Pacific, 36-37, here Saturday.

In the presence of three official timers Cashin swam the 200-yard breaststroke event in two minutes, 19 seconds. This was better than the 1937 mark of 2:22, set by Dick Hough of Princeton.

In the 200 meters and 220 yards, similar distances but considered separate events, Cashin was timed in two minutes, 33.7 seconds. It bettered the time of 2:37.2 for the events set in 1936 by ack Kasley of Michigan.

Ross of Brooklyn's Dragon club, who retained her one-meter lowboard diving crown and added on the three-meter highboard honors.

The other new champions were June Fogle, Joan's 16-year-old sister, in the 220-yard breast stroke, and Alyce Miller of the Evanston, Ill., Lido club, who beat out New York's Lorraine Fischer by a fingernail in a surprising 100-yard breast stroke victory.
