TWO CONVICTS KILLED DURING PRISON BREAK

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14 (AP)—Listing two convicts as dead and two recaptured in the latest escape attempt at Alcatraz federal prison in San Francisco bay, Warden James A. Johnson said today the men who made the dash were "all accounted for."

Last to be checked off was Fred Hunter of Ohio, 43-year-old stoop-shouldered former pal of the late Alvin (Old Creepy) Karpis, postoffice and train robber.

Hunter was flushed out of a cave on the beach of the prison island late yesterday, not far from where he and the three others started their dash in the morning from the prison model shop, after binding and gagging two guards.

The warden also said four one-gallon paint cans were found, each stuffed with army uniform clothing. The men had planned to use the cans to help keep them afloat in the bay and the clothing, taken from the prison shop where army goods are reclaimed, to serve as disguise.

The dead, picked off by guards' rifle fire as three of the convicts battled the ebb tide, were:

James A. Boorman, 24, Indianapolis bank robber and youngest member of the quartet, and Floyd G. Hamilton, 36, once a member of the Bonnie Parker-Clyde Barrow gang which terrorized the southwest a decade ago.

Pulled from the water naked and returned to his cell was Harold M. Brest, 31, Pennsylvania bank robber serving a life sentence. He suffered an elbow wound which required two stitches.

Johnson said he was positive Boorman and Hamilton were killed.

"Hamilton was shot and we saw him go under," the warden said.
