

City Briefs

For the Duration—Mrs. Ruth Turner returned to Klamath Falls Tuesday night accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Allan Priest of Stockton, Calif., who, with her three children, Allan, Jr., and the twins, Joan and Jean, will make their home here for the duration. Captain Priest, US army medical corps, has been ordered to Salt Lake City for further orders. Pvt. Larry Ray of the US marine corps, who is home from active service in the South Pacific, is recovering at the family residence on Homedale road from a recurrent attack of malaria. His friends will be happy to learn he is greatly improved.

Weekend Here—Mary Awdry and Helen Radcliffe, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe of Pacific Terrace, were here for the weekend from school. Mary Awdry is a student at Oregon State college and Helen attends Southern Oregon College of Education in Ashland. Helen had as a house guest with her, Lillian Bestul of Grants Pass, also an SOCE student.

In Madison—Dr. John Merryman, son of Dr. and Mrs. George H. Merryman of Pacific Terrace, is now serving as an interne in the Wisconsin State General hospital at Madison, Wis. Dr. John was graduated in March from the University of Oregon school of medicine in Portland and spent a week here with his parents, leaving April 5 for Madison where he will interne from one to three years.

At Fort Lewis—Lt. Thomas Radcliffe, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe, Wash., and has been assigned to his division. Mrs. Radcliffe and young daughter, Diane, who were in Portland while Lt. Radcliffe was at Camp Roberts, are now in Bremerton, Wash., as guests of her aunt.

Father Passes—Rev. H. L. Russell, 620 Martin street, has received word of the death of his father, A. M. Russell, on Tuesday morning, April 13, in Fort Wayne, Ind. Rev. Russell returned recently from Fort Wayne where his father had been ill for some time.

Returns—Mrs. Freeda Kemnitz, teacher at Riverside, has returned from southern California, where she visited her husband who is stationed there with the U. S. army air corps. During her absence Mrs. Elda Fletcher served as substitute teacher.

From St. Paul—Mr. and Mrs. Grant S. Macartney of St. Paul, Minn., will arrive Thursday to spend the weekend with Macartney's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Macartney of Washington street.

Discharged—Mrs. Lyle Friedley, 329 Lincoln street, left Klamath Valley hospital Wednesday morning with her infant son.

In South—Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., and daughter, Clarissa, are spending this week in San Francisco. John Mason is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Burge Mason of High street, during his mother's absence.

Returns Home—Mrs. W. C. Krouse of Dorris, with her infant son, left Klamath Valley hospital for her home.

Improving—Frank Dyche, Al-goma employe, was reported improved at Klamath Valley hospital where he is receiving treatment for injuries received at the Algoma camp near Fort Klamath.

Returns North—Lloyd G. Reed has returned to Vancouver, Wash., after spending a week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Reed of 1125 Walnut avenue. Reed is employed as a welder at Kaiser shipyards.

Dismissed—Charles McCall of Quartz Mountain, employed by Bly Logging company, was dismissed from Klamath Valley hospital Tuesday after receiving medical treatment following an accident at the woods camp.

For Your Information

MAIL CLOSING TIME
(Effective Feb. 15, 1943)
Train 19 Southbound: 6 p. m.
Train 20 Northbound: 11 a. m.
Train 17 Southbound: 7 a. m.
Train 16 Northbound: 10 p. m.
Medford Stage, Westbound, 3:30 p. m., Evening Airmail.
Stages to Alturas, Ashland, Lakeview and Rocky Point, 7 a. m.

Revival—The revival at the Pentecostal Assembly of God, 746 Oak street, continues this week. Rev. John Dean Lewen, who was a Franciscan friar before he became an evangelist, will speak on the following topics at 7:45 p. m. Wednesday, "Armageddon, the Coming of Christ in Glory." Thursday, "God's Way of Healing." Friday, "How a Former Franciscan Friar Received the Baptism of the Holy Ghost." There will be no service Saturday. Sunday, 11 a. m., "Gifts of the Holy Spirit for the Present Day in the Church." Sunday, 7:45 p. m., "When Hitler Meets God—Alone."

Congregational Circle—The Senior circle of the Congregational church will hold a regular meeting on Friday, April 16, at the home of Mrs. Bruce Hull, 4626 Cannon street, with Mrs. C. L. Jones, the assisting hostess. Dessert luncheon will be served at 1:30 p. m. There will be a business meeting, and Rev. Eugene Haynes will review the book, "On This Foundation." Members may meet at the home of Mrs. H. S. Stone, 2204 Darrow avenue, at 1 p. m., for transportation; anyone taking the city bus should get off at Boito's store and walk two blocks south.

Card Party—The Women of the Moose will hold a card party Wednesday, April 14, at 8 p. m., in the Moose hall. This is the second in a series of card parties open to the public.

Rummage Sale—Methodist ladies of Circle 2, will sponsor a rummage sale Saturday in the Pelican hotel building at 1016 Main street.

Rebekah Lodge—Prosperity Rebekah lodge 104 will meet in the IOOF hall Thursday, April 15, at 7:30 p. m. All Past Noble Grands are invited to attend.

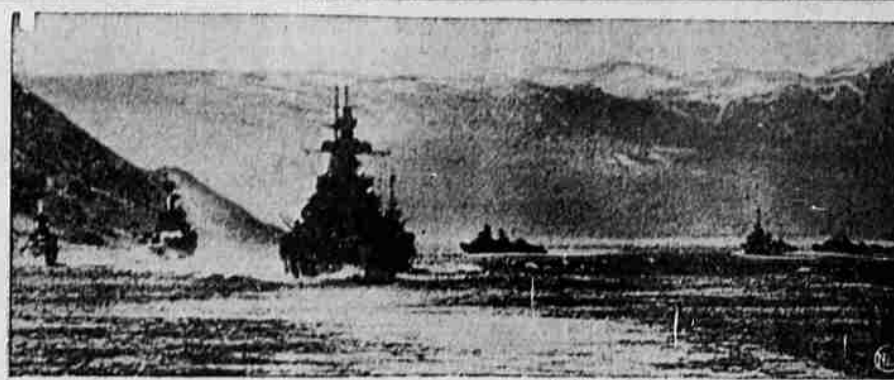

Pinochle Party—The Ladies auxiliary of the VFW is sponsoring a pinochle party Thursday, April 15, in the KC hall. There will be a luncheon at 1:30 p. m., and playing will begin at 2 p. m. The public is invited. This is the last in the card party series.

CHILDREN BUY $5688.05 IN WAR SAVINGS

Klamath county school children purchased $5688.05 in war savings during the month of March, it was learned Wednesday from Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, Klamath women's war savings chairman who has just completed a visit to all schools in the county. Mrs. Weaver addressed students of both elementary and high schools in the interests of war savings. Following is the satisfactory report as issued from the school superintendent's office:

Weyerhaeuser camp, $12.40; Fort Klamath, $42.35; Bly, $305.55; Keno, $134.75; Fairhaven, $289.20; Shasta, $429.40; Malin, $396.00; Gilchrist, $392.85; Henley elementary, $163.15; Henley high school, $2253.25; Shevlin, $54.70; Sprague River, $151.45; Chiloquin, $145.45; Altamont elementary, $276.60; Altamont Junior high, $640.95; total, $5688.05.

There are oysters that live in trees in Florida.

Under the snow-capped mountains fringing a northern fjord several German warships lie at anchor in this picture from a captured Nazi newsreel. These enemy vessels are a threat to United Nations convoys on the North Atlantic-Arctic supply route to Murmansk, Russia.

FOR FUEHRER'S FACE?
Since the nazis occupied Denmark, customers at barber shops have been required to bring their own towels. Danish toweling has gone to Germany.

Mustang fighters of the British army co-operation command are armed with eight machine guns.

Hans Norland Fire Insurance.

BURR-O-N
Closed for Repairs
WATCH FOR OPENING

Something New For Easter!

Coats and Suits

Rothmoor! Swansdown! Brittany! Columbia . . . and many, many other nationally advertised brands. All wool, of course, and all colors, all sizes, and all prices, too. Your Easter parade starts at La Pointe's!

$19⁹⁵ to $59

La Pointe's

First Lady Meets Welder

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt (above, right) took time off on an inspection tour at the Henry J. Kaiser shipyard at Vancouver, Wash., to chat with Mrs. Frances Carpenter, a welder. While at the yard Mrs. Roosevelt christened the first aircraft carrier built by Kaiser.