Presbyterian Delegates Complete Spring Session

TULELAKE—In a spiritual, deeply impressive atmosphere, delegates of 27 Presbyterian churches of southwest Oregon gathered here Wednesday and Thursday for spring sessions of the Presbytery and Presbyterian society of the Presbytery of Southwest Oregon. Seventy-eight delegates signed with Mrs. Merton J. Brown, registrar.

The meetings marked the election of a new moderator of the Presbytery and other officers of both organizations, installation of Rev. Hugh L. Bronson as pastor of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church and presentation of a number of distinguished speakers in theological circles on the west coast.

Rev. Elmer E. Rosenkilde, Bandon, formerly pastor of the Malin Presbyterian church was elected to succeed Dr. Morris H. Roach, Roseburg, as moderator.

Rev. Donald Dod, pastor of churches of Malin and Merrill, will serve as temporary clerk. Rev. Lawrence Mitchelmore, former pastor at Merrill, now at Jacksonville, will act as stated clerk and the permanent clerk is Rev. Hugh T. Mitchelmore of the Altamont Presbyterian church, Klamath Falls.

Commissioners to the general assembly of Presbyterian churches to be held in Detroit, Mich. in May, were announced as Dr. A. T. Smith, pastor of the Klamath Falls Presbyterian church, ministerial commissioner, and Rev. E. E. Rosenkilde, alternate. The lay commissioner is Jack Frost, Ashland. No alternate for this office was announced.

Rev. Bronson, who returned to the local pastorate November 1, 1942, after an absence of three years, was installed Tuesday evening with Rev. Rosenkilde, presiding. Rev. Forrest C. Travaille, missionary home on furlough from Thailand, gave the invocation and the scripture, Acts 1:1-15, was read by Rev. Lawrence Mitchelmore. Rev. Hugh L. Mitchelmore gave the charge to the pastor, and the charge to the congregation was given by Rev. Harold M. Roberts, Medford. Questions to the pastor and congregation were read by Rev. Rosenkilde.

Dr. Morris Roach delivered the sermon, "Ye Are My Witnesses." Special music was by the women's chorus under the direction of Mrs. Frank Bell.

A second musical number, "Forgive Me Father," was offered during the sessions was written especially for the meetings by Mrs. Ray Atkins, Tulelake, with the music score arranged by Mrs. Virginia Street Browncombe, Woodland. Mrs. J. C. Stevenson Jr., was the soloist.

Other speakers before the sessions were Dr. Morgan S. Odell, president of Lewis and Clark college, Portland; Dr. James Miller, Portland; and Miss Ethel V. Higgins, director of the Ming Quong home for Chinese girls in Oakland.

"Light in Education," was the theme of the Presbyterial meeting which convened simultaneously with the Presbytery. Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Roseburg, filled out the unexpired term of the presidency for Mrs. J. E. Edgar, Ashland.

Mrs. Akerill, Grants Pass, presented the program; Mrs. B. E. Morechett, Glendale, the review of the society's activities during the past year; and Mrs. Ray Martin, Jacksonville, gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. J. E. Edgar spoke on the plan of the organization. Mrs. Morris Roach was in charge of devotionals. Other speakers were Mrs. Ralph H. Mort, Portland, dean of women at Lewis and Clark college and Mrs. John McCormick, Portland, synodical president, who was installed as president of the Presbyterial society for the coming year.

Musicians assisting with the services included Mrs. Allison Osborne, Tulelake, Miss Dorothy Reed and Miss Ruth Henry, Klamath Falls.

Luncheon and dinners were served by the Community guild of Tulelake, in the annex of the church with breakfast prepared in the homes of friends of the church and members of the congregation where they were accommodated. Twenty-seven churches were represented.

A profusion of spring blooms brought from various points in the Rogue River valley were used in the church and the annex.
