

S O C I E T Y

By LOIS
STEWART

Inaugural Ball Plans Are Made

Elks and Their Ladies To Honor Newly Elected Officers With Annual Affair

This evening is the annual inaugural ball given for the incoming officers of the Elks lodge in the Elks ballroom for members of the lodge and their ladies. The affair will be the most important dance of the year for Elks.

Members of the committee are keeping their plans fairly well streamlined in the war time spirit and there will be a light supper at one o'clock. Dancing starts at ten o'clock.

Committee members are Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Van Doren, chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reading and Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Padgett.

A number of cocktail parties are planned before the dance. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Epley are entertaining officers and appointive officers of the lodge and their ladies in the pine paneled room of the Elks lodge prior to the dance. Mr. Epley is the newly elected exalted ruler and with Mrs. Epley will lead the grand march as the party opens.

Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peyton, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ruger, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seavey, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Offield, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. England, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Goble, Dr. and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thompson of Malin, Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Houston and Mr. E. B. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd F. Prock have asked a group in for cocktails at their home on North Second street just before the party. Asked are Mr. and Mrs. Justin McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Cotter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Wiley Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drew Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Deb Potts and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Marshall.

Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm of Pacific Terrace expects to leave Sunday for Portland to be with her sister who is ill at her home in the northern city.

Party on Friday Eve

Osborn Home Scene Of Supper Honoring Two Visitors

Norma Ainsworth of Gig Harbor, Washington, and Barbara Osborn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dean H. Osborn, were honored Friday evening with a supper party at seven o'clock at the Osborn home on Lawrence street when Shirley Ann and Mary Jane Mason entertained. Both girls are home from Annie Wright seminary and will leave early Sunday morning to return to school in Tacoma, Washington.

Supper was followed by dancing and enjoying the affair were the honor guests, Eleanor Thomas, Mary Lou Fowler, Ella Tallow, June Hauger, Mary Havens, Britta Lion, Nancy Humble, the hostesses, and Bill Radcliffe, Jack Proctor, Dale Constans, Bill Mead, Roy Kephart, Jim Grimes, Stephen Stone, Robert Mann, George Ray and Fred and Ted Reeves.

The girls enjoyed a trip to Camp White with Mrs. Osborn on Thursday, going through the camp as guests of Maurie Spaatz, and several days this week they have been riding in Klamath's nice spring weather.

On Saturday Miss Lion was hostess for Miss Osborn and Miss Ainsworth at luncheon and the theatre.

PORTLAND VISITORS IN KLAMATH

It isn't every day that the president's wife waves at you! That's the way young Kurt Schmidt feels after Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt gave him a hearty smile and a wave at the launching of the Alazon Bay in Portland last week. Kurt and his mother, Mrs. Bert Schmidt, now living in Portland, were home this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Bell of Johnson street. They were fortunate in seeing the launching of the big air craft carrier.

So much excitement as there was last weekend! It was the Girls League annual spring formal and the girls asked the boys and a good time was had by all including all the best bib and tuckers which were pressed for the occasion. The party, given in Pelican Court last Friday evening, was streamlined and without the usual frill and feathers as to decorations.

Palms and flowering branches formed the background for the pretty frocks and dark suits. Patrons were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Grapp, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Schultz.

A few pictures were taken by Cowell Barnstable and are shown on this page. Upper left, Joanne Hamilton, president of Girls League, and Jimmy Noel. Lower left, and left to right, Dick Hicks, Letty Linman, Mary Ellen Long and Irwin Heimes. Upper right, Bill Burness, Deanne Hamilton, Jean Aubrey and Dick Hoyt. Lower right, Fred Floetke, Vivian Dirschl, Jimmy Howard, Sally Mueller, Bettie Hopkins and Marvin Lucas. Incidentally, Vivian, Sally and Bettie are three of the four Sweetheart of Klamath High candidates in the war bond drive now under way. Betty McKinney is the fourth.

Committee members were, Maxine Copeland and Marion Deering, lights; Joy Kent, floor; Beverly Zamsky, Jean Aubrey and Helen McNulty, decorations; Helen Howrie, coat room; Doris Phillips, programs; Jacqueline Obrist and Mary Ellen Long, furniture; Dorothy Davis and Maxine Liskey, flowers; Letty Linman, programs.

LUNCHEON PARTY ON FRIDAY

Mrs. William Spangler entertained at a prettily appointed bridge luncheon at her home, 2027 Del Moro street, Friday afternoon at one o'clock. Guests were seated in the dining room and the table was centered with a lovely arrangement of daffodils and plum blossoms.

In cards, high score went to Mrs. Guy Harmon, low to Mrs. A. P. Heup. Other guests included Mrs. E. D. Hamacher, Mrs. Loren Palmerton, Mrs. C. L. Hubble, Mrs. Willard Constans, Mrs. Harry Wayne, Mrs. Ray Coulam and Mrs. George Adler.

BOB VEATCH TO GET WINGS IN LUBBOCK

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert S. Veatch will leave this evening for Lubbock Field, Texas, where they will be among the properly thrilled parents watching their sons receive their silver wings from the Lubbock Advanced Flying school. Date of graduation is April twenty-second.

At that time Robert E. Veatch will receive his coveted wings and will be graduated as a pilot with the rank of second lieutenant. En route home Mr. and Mrs. Veatch will visit at Carlsbad caverns in New Mexico, and also plan to spend a day or two in San Francisco.

Plant Sale Slated

Both Vegetable and Flowers To Be Offered Monday

The plant sale, eagerly awaited by members of the Klamath Falls Garden club, will begin at one o'clock sharp at the city library auditorium on Monday, April the nineteenth. First come, first served, is the rule of the sale and both the vegetable and flower plants will be offered. Mrs. Will Wood is in charge. All members are urged to bring plants.

Following the sale there will be a program starting at half past two o'clock. Colored slides which were made from original paintings by R. Bruce Horsfall to illustrate Dr. W. A. Elliot's book, "Birds of the Pacific Coast," will be shown. Mrs. F. O. Small will present a bird talk, and Mrs. E. D. Lamb will run the slides. The public is invited and members are asked to bring a guest. There will be a display of the Horizon Camp Fire Girls' collection of bird nests.

MISS M'GRATH HONORED ON THURSDAY

The many friends of Delia McGrath will regret to learn that she will leave Klamath Falls within a short time to make her home in San Francisco after a residence here of many years.

In Miss McGrath's honor, women members of The Herald and News staff met for a supper party Thursday evening at Lucca's following cocktails at the home of Mrs. Don Wells. Miss McGrath was presented with a gift from the group which included Mrs. James Johnston, Mrs. Don Wells, Mrs. Malcolm Epley, Mrs. Lawrence Rolph, Mrs. Roderick Smith, Mrs. Harold Raymond, Mrs. Howard Graham, Mrs. Vergil Nelson, Mrs. A. B. Wade, Mrs. Delbert Addison, Mrs. Frank Payne, Mrs. Neal Stewart and Kathleen Livingston.

Easter Monday Is Date Scheduled

Final Plans Made for Annual Affair To Be Given By St. Paul's Guild April 26

There have been a few parties this year, as compared to past seasons, and Klamath Falls women will look forward to an afternoon of cards on Monday, April twenty-sixth, when they go to the Willard hotel to play bridge at the annual Easter Monday benefit tea, sponsored by the Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

All women of the city are invited to attend and reservations may be made with any member of the Guild committee, it was announced by Mrs. Ralph S. Hokins, president. This group is made up of Mrs. Raymond H. Reeves, Mrs. DeLos Mills, Mrs. E. B. Goekner, Mrs. Roy Lee, Mrs. Joseph Plland and Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas.

KLAMATH GIRLS HONORED AT UNIVERSARY

Of interest to Klamath Falls residents is word from the University of Oregon at Eugene that the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Sloan of Payne street, was chosen to attend the Matrix dinner honoring outstanding students in various departments. Miss Sloan represented her sorority, Pi Beta Phi, in letters, arts and music.

Another Klamath girl, Marjorie Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young, is the newly named editor of The Emerald, University publication.

Lt. Drew Is Stationed in Wales

Word has been received that Frank Pierce Drew, now stationed with the United States navy in Wales, has been promoted from ensign to the rank of lieutenant (j. g.). Mrs. Drew and David are here visiting at the N. B. Drew home. On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Drew entertained with a family dinner honoring the visitors.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dalton are expected home this weekend from a stay in San Francisco. The Dalton's daughter, Betty Lou, will return here for Easter vacation from Dominican college to visit her parents at their Malin ranch.

Mrs. R. Henry Anderson is general chairman and will be assisted by the following committees.

Refreshments, Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. John Morgan, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. William Barron, Mrs. W. B. Hendrickson, Mrs. John Cashin and Mrs. L. S. Tyrrell.

Tea table, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin.

Door, Mrs. Carey Ramsby, Mrs. Carl Michelson.

Hostesses, Mrs. Ralph S. Hokins, Mrs. Charles F. Scharfenstein, Mrs. Lyle O. Mills and Mrs. Horace E. Getz.

Decorations, Miss Hazel Morrison. Pouring, Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. Harold Shaffer and Mrs. Frederick C. Wissenbach.

Little Janet Perry will spend one week here with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Hall of Roseway drive. Mr. and Mrs. Allan Foster Perry of Medford are leaving Easter Sunday for Victoria to attend the Rotary convention. Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Perry are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Myron J. Mordoff of this city.

Mrs. George Wirtz will entertain for members of the Art Needle Work club at her home, 529 Jefferson street, at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon of this week.