

Women Dig Deep In War Bond Drive

Soroptimists Launch "Twenty Dollar" Luncheon Idea To Aid Savings Program

Soroptimist club sponsored a "Twenty Dollar plate" war bond luncheon Thursday with astonishing success, the result being a total of $18,000 in bonds and stamps sold during the hour.

The guest speaker was Mr. Vern Owens who gave a most interesting review of the war bond situation and why we must not relax our efforts to invest all we possibly can each month to help the government in the task of keeping our fighting men supplied with the much needed ships, planes and all munitions of war.

The luncheon room was decorated with a lovely centerpiece of red, white and blue flowers and many old and interesting flags. One in particular that had thirty-seven stars was carried through the Civil war, was loaned by Catherine Brumbaugh. Another one, the property of Rose Poole, was given to her on the morning of Armistice day, 1918, by an old friend with the admonition to keep it always as a reminder that "there would never be another war." Mrs. Poole also had flags of all the allies which were carried in the Armistice day parade here twenty-four years ago.

A number of guests were present, among them three recruiting officers for the Women's Auxiliary Army corps, Auxiliary Nina Keeney of Portland, Auxiliary Jane Bowne and Auxiliary Gerena Tipton, both Klamath Falls girls who have joined the WAACS and are official recruits in this area. Other guests were Marycarol Jones, director of child welfare, Margaret Wierland and Katherine Walton.

Several patriotic songs were sung by the group and a most interesting letter was read from the sister club in Brighton and Hove, England, which is located very near the white cliffs of Dover, and has seen some of the worst air raids of the war. Despite this the club is still carrying on.

The attendance at this luncheon was excellent, and every member bought her quota of bonds—and more. Mr. Owen and the Pelican cafe management also assisted in swelling the total sales by buying through the club. Rose Poole, president, and Olive Cornett, chairman of the defense committee, expressed their gratification at the enthusiasm and effort put forth by the club and its guests in making this meeting the grand success it was.

ALTAMONT WOMEN ENTER CLASSES

Altamont women responded generously at the opening of the auxiliary unit of the surgical dressings project Thursday in the Altamont Junior high school. Hours were from nine to twelve o'clock noon, one to four o'clock in the afternoon, and seven to ten o'clock in the evening.

Thursday will be the regular day for surgical dressings in the Altamont district and Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney, projects chairman, announced that if attendance warranted, another day would be set. Mrs. Victoria Pasek of 3905 Boardman street, is chairman of the workroom. Trained instructors are in charge and all women are urged to participate.

SOJOURNERS MEET IN WILLARD

Sojourners gathered in the Willard hotel Wednesday afternoon for a business meeting presided over by Mrs. Guy Harmon. Bridge followed with high score held by Mrs. Ben Gibson, second by Mrs. Earl Brandenberry, and low by Mrs. L. O'Harra.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. K. M. Moty and Mrs. Keith Rice. The next meeting, April twenty-eighth, will be held in the Willard with Mrs. Jacqueline as hostess. All newcomers to the city are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Albrecht plan to leave Sunday evening for San Francisco where they will spend a short time, and while in the Bay area will also enjoy a visit with their daughter, Merlon, a student at Stanford university.

Mrs. Ralph McCulloch has returned here from Portland and will spend a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stiles and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ramsby. She plans to leave for Piedmont, California. Captain McCulloch is now in North Africa.

Robert L. Lamson of Kansas City, Missouri, is spending this week as guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ramsby of North Fifth street.

Library Members Hear Musicale

Last Program of Year Enjoyed by Club Members On Monday Afternoon Here

A delightful afternoon of music which combined new artists with more seasoned performers, was thoroughly enjoyed Monday afternoon at two o'clock in the main auditorium of the library when the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club met for the last program of the year. Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, music chairman, was in charge.

One of the highlights of the program was the appearance of Mrs. Hazel Muller, soprano, and her accompanist, Mrs. C. S. Pettie, both of whom make their home at Camp White, Medford, where their husbands are on the staff. Mrs. Muller's lovely voice thrilled her audience and advance notices of her charm were not underestimated. She sang two groups, "The Land of the Sky Blue Water", "One Kiss", "Danny Boy", and as an encore, "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen", and for her second group, "Lover Come Back to Me", "Zigeuner", and the "Italian Street Song" and "Smilin' Through" as an encore.

Hostesses were Mrs. Alfred Collier and Mrs. G. C. Blohm, and lovely spring flowers were arranged by Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps. Those taking part in the program were the Junior High school girls' chorus directed by Miss Lillie E. Darby, Jean Underwood, Wanda Shaw, Madelon Adler, Mary Louise Sexton, Virginia Tyrrell, Joy Kent, Mrs. David Burgoyne, Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill, Mr. Albert Woodruff, and the Medford visitors.

Before the Monday afternoon meeting, officers, committee heads and several others attended a no-hostess luncheon at the Pelican.

The next meeting is scheduled for Monday, May the tenth, at two o'clock, when election of officers and chairmen reports will be given. There will be a silver tea with Mrs. E. D. Hamacher in charge, and proceeds will go to the Commando fund.

The Garden club will have charge of a non-competitive flower display with Mrs. Fredrick W. Hamilton in charge. All members and friends are urged to bring their flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Moty of 910 Eldorado street are receiving felicitations of their friends over the arrival of a son, born April the sixteenth at Hillside hospital. The young man weighed six pounds and nine ounces at birth.

Klamath Girl Named

Nadine Palmerton Wins Good Citizenship Award Here

Miss Nadine Palmerton, senior at KUHS, was winner of the 1943 Daughters of the American Revolution good citizenship contest for her school. These contests are part of the good citizenship campaign carried on by the DAR. In the past years state winners have received trips to Washington, D. C. This year officials in charge of the event are giving a $100 war bond, to avoid placing an extra strain on travel facilities.

A winner is named for each of the forty-eight states in the nation. The state winner is chosen from high school representatives from each high school entering the contest. This year Governor Earl Snell made the drawing in the governor's office, and Phyllis Kifte of Franklin high school in Portland, was the winner.

Candidates for the award are chosen by the vote of their fellow students. Three girls are chosen from each school and the faculty selects the representative to be considered for the final state award. Qualities upon which candidates are judged include citizenship, patriotism, leadership, service, and patriotism. Eulonia chapter DAR sponsors the contest in Klamath county.

The national society of the Daughters of the American Revolution will have its 52d continental congress this year in Cincinnati, Ohio, instead of Washington, D. C. Dates will be from April 17 to 21. Mrs. William Horstall, Marshfield, state regent, and Mrs. Howard P. Arnett, Portland, vice president-general, will be among those attending the continental congress from Oregon.

GIRL SCOUTS ENJOY VISIT AT FLOCK'S

Twelve Girl Scouts of troops two and eight, accompanied by Mrs. J. K. Reno, Girl Scout commissioner, were guests at the home of Mrs. J. Fred Flock on Wednesday afternoon, April the fourteenth, from four to five o'clock. As one of their projects in the study of international friendship the girls viewed a collection of dolls from foreign countries, part of the two hundred and fifty dolls collected by Mrs. Flock over a period of years. The dolls were arranged in groups. An especially interesting group was the Royal Family of England.

PTA Convention Is Held in Portland

Streamlined Session Discusses Parent-Teacher Work in War World

Mrs. James R. Hall, retiring president of the Klamath County Council of Parents and Teachers, was elected regional vice president of the Oregon Congress of the state PTA meeting which ended in Portland late Thursday afternoon.

More than four hundred women found time to leave their war activities to attend the PTA sessions which were exceptionally streamlined this year and cut down to a minimum on entertainment. Mrs. Hall attended a dinner and board meeting Tuesday night at the Portland hotel before the actual work of the convention got under way.

HONORED

Nadine Palmerton, prominent Klamath Union high school student, was honored recently by Daughters of the American Revolution when she was chosen as their representative from the school.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Theme of the 1943 convention was, "Choosing Our Way," and Mrs. Frank W. Blum, who was reelected president of the Oregon Congress, stressed this in all meetings, both formal and round table. Virtually all sessions had to do with some phase of war work through the Parent-Teacher association, with such subjects discussed as block mothers, radio recreation, juvenile protection which was considered one of the most important, and war emergency.

Seven attended from Klamath county including Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Frank Peyton, newly elected county council head, Mrs. T. L. Holland of Fairview school, Mrs. J. B. Cashin of Fremont, Mrs. C. L. Barkdoll of Altamont, Mrs. A. H. McLean of Fairhaven and Mrs. Ivan Crumpacker of Shasta. A full report will be given to the council later.

During their stay in Portland both Mrs. Crumpacker and Mrs. Barkdoll found time to visit the blood bank where they gave their donations.

TOURNAMENT WINNER IS MRS. SWANSON

The tin whistle tournament for women of Reames Golf and Country club was an event of Friday morning and winner was Mrs. Martin Swanson at the close of the day. During the afternoon, Mrs. F. E. Trotman of Merrill received the guest award.

Potluck luncheon followed golf, and Mrs. W. E. Lamm, president, wished to announce that potlucks will be the order in the future. Several tables of bridge followed. Guests included Mrs. F. E. Trotman and Mrs. W. R. Hibbs.

Hostesses this week were Mrs. Charles V. Rugh and Mrs. R. D. Rakestraw and next week they will be Mrs. George H. Merryman Sr., and Mrs. W. J. Grove. This will be the day to play the defense tournament with high and low handicap.

Mrs. Francis W. Peak and Susan have left for Santa Ana, California, to join First Lieutenant Peak, who has been transferred there from LaJunta, Colorado. They visited here briefly en route south from Portland.
