NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—The opening-day major league scores led us to wonder whether the 1943 model baseball really is dead, or just the hitters. . . . And what became of the idea that managers wouldn't let their prize pitchers risk their arms for more than four or five innings in the early games? Johnny Vander Meer and Mort Cooper probably will tell you they couldn't learn a thing now from Bill Cox' commando training. . . . The Phils and Braves plan to play a morning game in June for the benefit of war workers. . . . Well, that's one way of discouraging absenteeism.

Clarence De Mar, the 55-year-old marathoner, didn't figure he had to take a day off to run his 25th Boston marathon last Sunday. . . . As usual, he milked the cows on his Reading, Mass., farm; took a bus to Hopkinton; shuffled 25 miles, 385 yards to finish 17th; went home for dinner and another look at the cows, then went to work on the 8 p. m.-4 a. m. shift in the Boston Herald composing room. . . . Why, the guy must be an amateur.

Great Pitchers' Year Promised for Majors

Opening Day Sees Four Games, Four Shutouts; Weather Holds Schedule

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

If opening day in the major leagues was any criterion, this may be the greatest pitchers' year in baseball history.

Four games, four shutouts, two of them 1-0, one of them 11 innings!

Weather conditions permitted only half of the eight scheduled inaugural games to be played yesterday, and held down attendance at these contests to 55,021 fans, but classic pitching made the day worth remembering.

Looking at the day's business in composite there was a total of only 11 runs, 42 hits of which just nine were for more than one base, and up till the seventh inning there had been but three runs scored.

The most magnificent mound show was given the largest crowd, 27,709 at Crosley field in Cincinnati, where Johnny Vander Meer and Mort Cooper duelled for 11 innings before the Reds finally squeezed in front of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals 1-0.

Vander Meer, who could look forward to his greatest year if he were not awaiting a call for induction, held the Cardinals to two hits, both of them singles in the first three innings. In one superb stretch he retired 21 consecutive batters, most of whom never even got the ball out of the infield.

Cooper was in occasional trouble, but he worked out of his jams and up till the 11th had allowed only four hits. Then Lonny Frey beat out an infield hit, was sacrificed to second and came sprinting home on a single by Max Marshall.

A struggle almost as spectacular was staged for 13,847 fans in Cleveland's big municipal stadium as the Indians nosed out the Detroit Tigers, 1-0, with a run in the ninth. Jim Bagby, who had tamed the Tigers in last year's opener, again was the star. He held Detroit to three hits, and drove in the winning run with a long fly.

The veteran Tommy Bridges made it a battle, spacing six Cleveland hits, but he couldn't stop the Indians' battery.

The Pittsburgh Pirates hand-cuffed the Chicago Cubs, 6-0, with Truett (Rip) Sewell scattering three hits. Paul Derringer, making his debut in a Cub uniform before 9044 fans at Wrigley field, Chicago, restrained Pittsburgh to two runs till the eighth, when the Pirates plastered across four tallies and Manager Jimmy Wilson had to use three other hurlers to finish the game.

At St. Louis, Lefty Al Hollingsworth pleased a small turnout of 4421 by pitching the Browns to a 3-0 triumph over the Chicago White Sox on four hits.

boys would make good use of all the baseball equipment they can get, and from Camp Crowder, Mo., where the driving range may have to shut down because of a shortage of golf balls and clubs. . . . The Iowa navy pre-flight school claims a record in running off six dual swimming meets in one pool in 40 minutes. The swimmers were started at intervals so that six races were going on at one time—and no collisions were reported.

Right Church, Wrong Pew

Gussie Suhr, San Francisco Seal first baseman, went "over the top" in an effort to snag a high foul ball in the Pacific Coast league opener with Hollywood. Suhr raced from his position at first in vain; he dropped the ball and landed in "enemy" territory—the Hollywood dugout. The Seals won, 7-5.

The four-day old Pacific coast league baseball season saw one team, Portland, shunted out of the 1,000 per cent column yesterday, and two teams, Seattle and Hollywood, still unable to break into the win column.

Sacramento, 1942 champion, uncorked a new pitcher who lifted the solons from the lost column with a 3 to 0 victory over Portland. He was Clem Dreisewerd who pitched four-hit ball.

Seattle tried hard against San Diego, losing 3-2 in 11 innings. Bill Salkeld, batting for Pitcher Rex Dillbeck, provided the winning blow, a single which scored Left Fielder Swede Jensen. The Rainiers outbit the victors 10 to 9, but San Diego's errorless ball contributed to the victory.

San Francisco joined San Diego as the only undefeated teams in the league by beating Hollywood 5-1 in an unspectacular game.

At Los Angeles the Angels and Oakland pummeled each other's pitchers merrily before Los Angeles came through for an 8-7 victory. The Acorns out-slugged the home team 13 hits to 11.

The Sacramento-Portland game demonstrated the kind of rookie talent the league has been recruiting to replace veterans gone to war. Earl Peterson, young catcher from Pocatello, Idaho, lifted the ball over the left field fence in the sixth inning for the Solon's third run. It wasn't needed to win, but it was impressive.

Drawings for places in the tourney will be made at the field directly before the matches at 4:15 p. m. Prizes to first and second place winners will be made by Roberts Hardware company, Matt Finnigan; and the Southern Oregon Hardware company.

SACRAMENTO, April 22 (AP)—Soldier ball players of the McLeilan field nine here knew what they were going into, so they have no real squawk coming.

But for the record they would like to report that on a recent trip to San Quentin prison for a ball game, their lockers were looted and they lost $20 in cash, two fountain pens, and all their cigarettes.

Soldier Ball Men Lose All in Tilt With Prison Team

ADDEL, Ia., April 22 (AP)—Hal Manders, Detroit Tiger pitcher, who by his own choice returned to a farm for the duration, took time off from work to listen to a broadcast report of the Detroit-Cleveland game which marked the opening of the 1943 baseball season for his team mates.

Hal had to go to the house to hear the radio report, but he hopes later to have a radio installed on his tractor so he can listen without leaving the field.

"I spent a couple of weeks in training with the Tigers at Evansville, Ind., and they were taking players away from us so fast I got to wondering if baseball would be able to make a go of it this year," the 25-year-old Tiger hurler explained.

Any crack about the weather in April doesn't come under the heading of dry humor.

Oregon Tops Cougars for Fifth Loss

Huskies Heading for Four Big Tussles With Beavers, Webfoot on Home Fields

By The Associated Press
The University of Washington baseball team heads for Oregon today for four sharp tussles that will test the Huskies right to undisputed possession of the northern division leadership.

The University of Oregon handed Washington State its fifth straight defeat, 10-5 yesterday, and, with Oregon State, stands ready to knock the Huskies out of the lead. The Oregon schools have lost a game apiece, while Washington's record is unmarred.

The schedule pits the Huskies again at Oregon State at Corvallis tomorrow and Saturday and against Oregon Monday and Tuesday.

Oregon collected 11 hits off Pitcher Walla Kramer in yesterday's victory over the Cougars. Kramer and Outfielder George Davison drove out home runs for Washington State, as did Third Baseman Bill Hamel for Oregon.
