Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Classes for all ages and a staff of well-trained adult Bible teachers. Mrs. J. D. O'Neal is superintendent. We just need a few more scholars to reach our goal for next Sunday. Will you be there to help us reach the 100 mark?

Morning worship, 11 a. m. Of all the Sundays in the year, you should be found in church this coming Sunday morning, in memory of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. The pastor will deliver the Easter sermon at this morning worship hour, also special music.

Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. This hour will be devoted to an Easter pageant, given by the downstairs department of our Sunday school. We feel sure that they have a special treat for us and we want you to be there, especially you mothers and dads who have little folks in our school.

Mid-week service, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. Prayer and Bible study at the church. This Bible study is open to all people, members of our church or not. Bring your Bible and notebook if you so desire and you'll enjoy a study in the word of God.

There will be no young people's meeting this coming Saturday night, April 24. But we would encourage all you young folks to attend the Good Friday service at the Covenant church and also the Easter sunrise service early Sunday morning.

This is the friendly, Bible-loving church. Come and make it your spiritual home if you are a stranger in the city or do not have a church home here. You are always welcome.

Good Friday

St. John, Chapter XIX.

Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe.

And said, Hall, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands. Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid.

And went again into the judgement hall and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? Knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivereth me unto thee hath the greatest sin. And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar.

When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar.

Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away. And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha.

When they crucified him, and two others with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

And Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. And the writing was, "Jesus of Nazareth the King of the Jews." This title then read many of the Jews for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city, and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am the King of the Jews. Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

When the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part, and also his coat, now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rent it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!

Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home. After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar, and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

Rev. H. L. Russell to Go To Washington Appointment

Rev. H. L. Russell, for 10 years pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Klamath Falls, is leaving Monday morning for Snoqualmie, Wash., where he has accepted an appointment. Rev. and Mrs. Russell will be accompanied by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gerald Russell. They plan to spend the coming week at Kelseo, Wash., to attend the district assembly of the church, then will continue to Snoqualmie.

The church, organized in July, 1926, with 11 members including the pastor, first met in a tent, but when Rev. Russell, its fourth pastor arrived, the former church building on Martin street was partially completed. He finished the work on that building, succeeded in paying off the outstanding obligations, and then he and his son Gerald, built almost without outside help, the distinctive new church on Garden avenue, afterward remodeling the old church into an attractive and modern parsonage.

Rev. Russell is a member of the Klamath Ministerial association and has been very cooperative. Mrs. Russell has been a great help in the work of the
