HOLMAN ASKED TO FIGHT FOR FOREST FUNDS

PORTLAND, Ore., April 30 (AP)—Sen. Rufus Holman (R-Ore.) has been asked by Secretary-Manager W. B. Greeley of the West Coast Lumbermen's association to lead a congressional battle for additional Pacific coast forest protection funds, The Oregonian said today.

Greeley said a house committee had sliced to less than $2,500,000 an appropriation of $3,989,732 recommended by the U. S. forest service and the budget bureau.

An additional $5,000,000, provided last year under the sixth supplemental national defense appropriation act, is needed again this year to meet the threat of sabotage and more enemy bombings, he said.

The budget bureau holds that coastal forest protection is the army's responsibility and its appropriation bill should provide funds, Greeley said, but as yet there is no indication that the money will be supplied by the army.
