FAMILY WEEK TO BE NOTED BY CHURCHES

The week of May 2 to 9 has been set aside by the United Council of Church Women as National Family week, when the values inherent in the Christian home are to be stressed. All over the country church women will gather at their annual May luncheon to renew fellowship with one another and to consider the great responsibility and opportunity facing the home in a world at war. Here in Klamath Falls the meeting will be in the First Christian church, Thursday, May 6, and dessert will be served at 1:30 p. m. with Mrs. Ralph Hopkins chairman for the afternoon.

The central theme will be, "The Christian Family" and "Recreation in the Home." There will be a round table discussion of "Juvenile Delinquency," and several musical numbers will be presented. There will be no charge but a silver offering will be received.

First Presbyterian

The First Presbyterian church is located on North Sixth and Pine streets. The pastor is the Rev. Theodore Smith, 435 North Second street, telephone at home, 5477, and at the church, 7311. Lillie E. Darby directs the choir and Mrs. A. H. Denison is the organist.

The morning worship at 11 o'clock opens with the organ prelude, "Song," by Diggle. "Fairest Lord Jesus" is the processional. After the call to worship, choir and congregation unite in singing the "Doxology" and, after the invocation and Lord's Prayer, "The Gloria Patri." The period of quiet meditation is ushered in by the choir singing, "Hear Our Prayer, O Lord," and is concluded by choir and congregation singing, "Our Fathers' God to Thee, Author of Liberty." The choir offertory is Schumann's "We Give Thee But Thine Own," and the organ offertory, "Solace," by Pease. The anthem for the morning is, "Christian, the Morn Breaks Sweetly O'er Thee," by Shelley. The pastor will speak on "Jesus Manifests Himself." The service closes with the benediction, the choir dismissal, "Threefold Amen," and the organ postlude, "Meditation," by Gillette.

The evening worship is held at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor will speak on "Precious Things." Bible school, 9:45 a. m. It is immediately preceded by a prayer meeting in the pastor's study for God's blessing on the school and the services of the day.
