

Klamath Couple Married in South

Captain William Cummings and Mrs. Eleanor Weimar Exchange Vows in Sacramento Friday

Word of the marriage of Mrs. Eleanor Barker Weimar and Captain William Hutchinson Cummings, United States army air corps, in Sacramento early Friday morning, April thirtieth, was received here with interest. The ceremony was read in Christ Episcopal church by the dean at half past nine o'clock and in the presence of members of both families.

The couple was unattended.

A deep blue wool traveling suit with a small scarlet cap was chosen by the bride for her wedding costume. She carried a white prayer book with a small spray of white orchids. Immediately after the ceremony, Captain and Mrs. Cummings left for Carmel-by-the-Sea for a weekend stay.

Mrs. Cummings has made her home in Sacramento with her mother, Mrs. Barker, and has been employed in the office at Mather field where Captain Cummings is now taking navigation training in addition to flying. The Cummings have taken a house in Sacramento where they will reside during his service there.

Captain Cummings, who is the former Herald and News sports editor prior to his enlistment in the army air corps two years ago, received his captaincy last March. Both are former University of Oregon students, he affiliated with Phi Delta Theta fraternity, and Mrs. Cummings with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Both are well known in Klamath Falls where they resided for a number of years.

CHILDREN SATURDAY

Easter Saturday was chosen by three sets of Klamath Falls parents for the christening date of their children at St. Paul's Episcopal church by the Rev. Frederick C. Wisenbach.

Diane, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ray W. Oldenbrg, was christened during the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Theodore M. Medford as sponsors.

Ronald Bason Hopkins Jr. was christened on that day. He is the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald B. Hopkins, and sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Sid Buchanan.

Sponsors for young William A. Sprout, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Sprout, are Mrs. Francis Robert Olds and Lieut. and Mrs. Robert D. Shaw.

Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, one of our town's most fetching matrons, writes in glowing terms from Washington, D. C., of the charms exhibited by her new granddaughter, Jane Gillenwaters. She's doing quite a bit of sight seeing along with a visit with her family and finds Washington most interesting in wartime.

Word comes from Mrs. John Budd and her two sons, John and Bill, that they are now domiciled at 438 Pine-land street, St. Paul, Minnesota, while Major John Budd is in North Africa. The Budds left here a year ago for Whitefish, Montana, and last fall John enlisted.

Mothers To Be Honored

Fremont Mothers Invited Annual Tea on Tuesday at School

Clever invitations were brought home this week by students of Fremont and Junior high schools telling about the annual tea to be given by the teachers Tuesday afternoon, May the fourth, honoring the mothers. This is always quite an occasion at the year's end and the teachers hope that all mothers will attend.

May Day will be the theme to be carried out in a program of Maypole dances, a play, clarinet solo, piano numbers and songs, presented by students of the various grades. Several numbers will be presented by the Junior high mixed chorus.

Tea will be served by the teachers with the past president of Fremont PTA, Mrs. George Blanes, and the newly elected president, Mrs. J. B. Cashin, pouring.

Those on the hostess committee to greet the guests are Geraldine Owsley, Freida Ellis and Orpha Hudson, Henrietta Clemens, Claudia Moore, May Phinney and Lena Hackett are in charge of decorations.

Arranging the tea table will be Audrey McPherson, Eva Mary Lovely and Genevieve McGee. Olive Wilson, Jennie Mills and Hazel Gass are in charge of refreshments. The program will be under the direction of Jean Whitney and Augusta Parker. The invitations were prepared by Jeannette Brown, the art instructor.

RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. Earl L. Sanders is the former Luewala Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Olson of Bend, whose marriage occurred February thirteenth in San Diego.

Attractive Tea Table

Ration Tables Made at St. Paul's Tea on Monday

The tea table at the Easter Monday bridge party given by St. Paul's Guild at the Willard hotel last Monday afternoon, was one of the prettiest seen in many a year. White snapdragons, tall white taper, crystal appointments reflected in mirrors, and gleaming silver tea services completed the arrangements.

Awards presented during the afternoon followed the war time ration idea, and Mrs. E. D. Hamacher received a cake, and Mrs. William E. Geer a basket of eggs as their guest prizes. High score in bridge was held by Mrs. Ben Gibson, and she was given a plump chicken. Second award of homemade pickles went to Mrs. Edwin Schneebek, and low, another basket of eggs, went to Mrs. Charles F. Scharfenstein.

BETROTHAL TOLD BY SALEM GIRL

The following story from the Capitol Journal in Salem is of interest to residents of Klamath Falls and announces the engagement of Georgia Rose Cook and Clyde Dehlinger:

"One of the highlights of the Theta Chi formal dance held at the College garden on the Oregon State campus Saturday evening was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Georgia Rose Cook and Clyde Dehlinger, with Sunday, May 30, as the wedding date.

Miss Georgia Rose is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Cook of Salem. She attended Willamette university where she was a Delta Phi and is now a senior at Oregon State college and affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta. She is past worthy advisor of the Chadwick assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, and for the past two summers was employed by the public utilities commission.

Mr. Dehlinger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Dehlinger of Klamath Falls, and is also a senior at Oregon State college, where he is affiliated with Theta Chi. He is in the army but at present is stationed on the college campus."

Son Arrives in Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cartwright of Walla Walla, Washington, are parents of "Danny," who arrived at a Portland hospital Wednesday morning, April twenty-eighth. The young man is named for his great-grandfather, the late Daniel Malarky of Portland. Mrs. A. L. Crawford is expected home Monday after being with her daughter, the former Betty Crawford of this city, for the past month.

It's Major Dayton E. Van Vector now, and at this writing "Van" has received his orders at Ephrata, Washington air base. Mrs. Van Vector and Robert have left for Golden-dale, Washington, where they will be with her mother, Mrs. H. O. Allyn, until the close of school. They plan to return here for the summer.

SOCIETY

By LOIS STEWART

Klamath Youth Takes Portland Girl as Bride in Famous New York Chapel

The Little Church Around the Corner in New York was the scene of a wedding which occurred April the seventh, when Miss Nancy Hall Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Alan Gardner of Portland, became the bride of Corp. Lester Edwin Thayer, son of Mrs. Edna Hastings of this city.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Floyd H. Gardner, chose a checked taffeta dressmaker suit with black and white accessories for her wedding costume. Mrs. Gardner was her niece's attendant.

The service was read by the Rev. Randolph Ray.

The young couple, known to the college set here, will make their home at Presque Isle, Maine, where Corporal Thayer is serving with the priorities division of the transport command.

Both are former University of Oregon students, the bride receiving her degree this past March. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. The groom attended the university for two years and was affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Until he entered the service, Corporal Thayer was with United Airlines in Portland.

EULALONA TO ELECT OFFICERS

Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet Monday evening, May the third, at eight o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Warren Hunt. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Alfred Collier and Mrs. Earl Reynolds.

The nominating committee, elected at the last meeting, will make its report and officers will be elected and installed. Serving on this committee are Mrs. B. W. Zollman, chairman, Mrs. Irene Foster and Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm.

Mrs. Z. W. Dixon, chapter regent, urges members to be present at this, the last meeting of the chapter year.

Miss Mary Lou Johnson, home from Pomona college at Claremont, California, for the summer months, left this weekend for Portland where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Byson at their home in Dunthorpe.

Sojourners Gather

Red Cross Chairman Gives Satisfactory Work Report

On Wednesday afternoon, in the blue room of the Willard hotel, Sojourners and their guests met for their regular meeting and social afternoon with Mrs. Guy Harmon, president, conducting the business session.

Mrs. J. R. McLellan, Red Cross chairman, announced that members had turned in 273 hours for the Klamath chapter during the month of April. She praised members for their cards during the afternoon went to Mrs. Charles Gilbert, high; Mrs. M. H. Raw, second, and Mrs. Frederic C. Hamilton, low.

At the next meeting in May, Mrs. L. M. Willoughby and Mrs. Roy Preme will be hostesses.

FACULTY WIVES SEW FOR RED CROSS

Faculty Wives met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Arthur Mason on Eldorado street with Mrs. Kelley F. Robinette, assisting hostess. The group spent the time sewing for the American Red Cross. Twenty were present.

Mrs. Mason was named president of the group for the coming year, Mrs. Frank Ramsey to serve as secretary and treasurer. Coffee was served late in the evening. This was the last meeting of the season.

Among those attending Junior Weekend at Eugene Saturday and Sunday were Mrs. E. M. Igl, guest of her son, Dick, and Mrs. Andrew M. Collier, guest of her daughter, Phyllis.

Here for a fortnight's visit is Mrs. Ruth S. Addison of Eugene, guest of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Addison and Mary Margaret.

Tea Plans Discussed

AAUW To Entertain For Klamath High Senior Girls May 15

Plans are being made for one of the most delightful affairs of early spring when members of Klamath chapter of AAUW will entertain Saturday afternoon, May fifteenth, from two until five o'clock at the home of Mrs. Nelson Reed for senior girls of Klamath Union high school.

Mrs. O. K. Puckett is general chairman. She has named the following committees:

Tea preparation, Mrs. Arthur Larsen, Mrs. J. V. Owens, Mrs. Burge Mason Jr. and Miss Emilie Halde-man.

Decorations, Mrs. Robert Ellingson Jr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt.

Music, Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt.

Dining room, Mrs. Warren Noggle, Mrs. Harold Teale, Mrs. Beverly Thomas and Mrs. William Spangler.

The affair is given annually for senior girls and is one of the highlights of commencement week. All members of the senior class have been invited to attend.

NILE MEETING FOR TUESDAY, MAY 4

Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. Lawrence Bertram and Mrs. Harry Pan-nuir will act as hostesses for the May meeting of the Klamath Falls Nile club on Tuesday afternoon in the club party room.

The no-hostess luncheon will be served at one o'clock sharp and members whose birthdays occur in May will be honored.

Visiting here this weekend is Mrs. Don McLucas of Duns-muir, California, who is the houseguest of Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., of Washington street.

VISITS HERE

Mrs. Forrest Alter was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Alter of Washington street this past week. The visitor is a former Lakeview girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merville W. Moore, now of Corvallis. Lt. Atter is in Central America.

Couple Wed in North Saturday

Doris Foster Becomes Bride of Stephen Sabo Jr. At Fort Worden Army Chapel; Visits in City

Miss Doris Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Foster of 303 Prescott street, and PFC Stephen Sabo Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sabo of Altamont, were married at a simple ceremony performed in the army chapel at Fort Worden, Washington last Saturday evening, April the twenty-fourth, in the presence of a few relatives and friends.

Mrs. Small Talks at Club

Pictures of Wild Birds Shown at Soroptimist Meeting

Mrs. F. O. Small, expert on birds and wild flowers, was the guest speaker at the Soroptimist luncheon meeting held Thursday afternoon at the Pelican party room.

In her talk, Mrs. Small emphasized the importance of protection of wild birds, pointing out their value as a friend to man. She also showed a number of beautiful screen pictures of wild birds of the Pacific Northwest.

Mrs. Rose Poole, president, told of her visit to the San Francisco Soroptimist club last week, and of having dinner with the national president of the federation, Harriet Tyler, at her home on the peninsula.

A letter was read from Miss Beverly Sanders who is a machinist second class in the Waves, stationed at Memphis, Tennessee. Miss Sanders is a former member of the Venture club.

Mrs. Stephen Sabo Jr. (Doris Foster) was greeted as a guest.

FORT LEWIS IN KLAMATH

Quite a bit of informal entertaining has been going on for Major and Mrs. Paul W. Sharp, former Klamath residents and now making their home at Fort Lewis, Washington. They plan to return north Monday.

Mrs. Sharp was a guest at both her bridge clubs which met this week, and several dinners have honored the visitors.

Oregonians Meet in East

Mrs. Robert A. Thompson writes interesting letters from Washington, D. C., where she is visiting her husband, Lieutenant Thompson, for one month. She tells of dinner parties at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Stockman and Lt. Col. and Mrs. T. R. Gillenwaters, and of seeing other Oregonians in the nation's capital.

Home from Lubbock Field

Texas, where they witnessed the graduation ceremonies of American flyers, are Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Veatch. They were happy to learn of their arrival that their son, now Lieutenant Robert Veatch, had been granted a twenty-day leave, and "Bob" is now at home for that time. He has been assigned to the troop carrier command and will be stationed at Del Valle field, near Austin, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Sabo left for Seattle following the ceremony, where they spent the weekend, arriving here Thursday. The groom, who is with the coast artillery, left immediately for his new appointment at Phoenix, Arizona, but the bride is spending several days in Klamath Falls before returning to her position with a publishing company at Portland. She plans to join her husband later.

The young couple are both well known here and both are graduates of Sacred Heart academy. Mr. Sabo later attended the University of California, entering the armed service last July. He has been stationed at Fort Worden since then until his transfer to Arizona this week. Besides his scholastic activities, Stephen Sabo Jr., was outstanding in music and appeared on numerous programs.

Honoring the bride, a dinner party was given Friday evening by Mrs. Sabo Sr., at the Pelican when a number of her school friends greeted her. Several close friends of the hostess were invited to meet Mrs. Sabo Jr. Covers were laid for about twenty.

Members of Klamath chapter, Order of DeMolay, will have their annual Mother's day breakfast on Sunday, May the ninth, at nine o'clock in the morning in the Elk hotel.

An interesting program is being planned by the young men for the mothers, sons and advisors who will be present. Following breakfast, the group will attend church services at the Klamath Lutheran church. This is one of the highlights of the DeMolay social program and all mothers are asked to reserve that day. James R. Shaw Jr. is chairman of the day.

Miss Ganong Home From North

Home for the next two months is Polla Ganong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ganong of Summers lane. Polla will leave the latter part of June for Tobecoburn Merchandising school and will be one of their youngest students. She has been doing that sort of work in Portland and has long anticipated her entry into Tobecoburn, ranked as one of the finest schools in the country.

The scheduled meeting of the afternoon book section of AAUW, slated for Tuesday of next week, has been indefinitely postponed, it was announced.

Mrs. Marshall Cornett entertained five members and guests of Tau chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, at her home on Lavery street, Tuesday evening of this week.
